TILLAMOOK COUNTY BANK.

Owing to Monday being a legal holiday and not a full gathering of the Republican County Central Committee present, no definite action was taken, and the Government was taken until the 10th.

Work on the new concrete building to be erected on Main street by the Tillamook Commercial Association was commenced on Saturday, the contract being given to G. S. Wistard Engineering Co.

There were twelve full boxes of choicest Flowers in the Jones-Bacher & Co.'s stock, which we are closing out at one half price. This is a decided bargain. It will pay you to buy your flower for next season.—C. A. Patzlaf.

The Sue H. Elmore came in Friday with the following passengers: T. H. Potter, A. B. McLellan, Mrs. Sparks, J. Olson, J. A. Parks, Mrs. Nellie Nelson, Mr. Cushi, J. McAllister, W. Ridehalgh, Dr. N. Vernon, J. O. Macaulay, T. B. Snyder.

Miss Marentha Smith celebrated her 14th birthday last Saturday night, a number of guests being invited. She received several handsome presents. The evening was spent in dancing and games, after which cake and ice cream was served. A good time is reported.

The play given on Friday and Saturday at the opera house by the Dramatic Club, under Mr. McCowell's direction, entitled "Ferdinand," was well rendered and reflected considerable credit upon the young amateur performers, who have been giving some good entertainments.

Died, on Friday, at Fairview, in this county, Charles Miron Hosley, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hosley, aged 3 years and 11 days. The funeral services took place on Tuesday at the family residence and the interment was in the L.O.O.F. cemetery.

Prices paid and to be paid at several of the creameries for April butter fat: Clover Leaf and South Prairie, 40c.; Elwood, 38c.; Tillamook and Maple Leaf, 38c.; Fairview and Pleasant Valley, 38c.; Miami, 37c.; East Beaver, 36 1/2c.; Long Prairie, 36.55c.; Red Clover, 36c.

Fire on the roof of St. Alphonsus Academy on Tuesday night caused some anxiety as to the fate of that building for a few minutes, but, fortunately, it was extinguished before it had gained headway. The hose company was called out but the services of the fire fighters were not needed.

Robert Wiley came in from Portland on Wednesday, his wife meeting him at Trask. After visiting his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Watt, at Bay City, they will leave for Alaska. This is the first time that Mrs. Watts has seen Mr. Wiley since he became her son-in-law, and the meeting was a most happy event.

We understand that Mrs. Srethna S. Phelps has leased the Hotel Columbia, Vancouver, Wash., which is all furnished, to George G. Piel, the leasing of which and other parts of the hotel building giving her an income of $9,000 per annum. Mrs. Phelps and her daughter will continue to make their home at the Columbia, having taken rooms during the term of the lease.

Mrs. John Groat entertained a number of ladies at her home last Tuesday afternoon, which was another of those enjoyable gatherings the ladies have been participating in of late. Whist was indulged in for amusement, after which Mrs. Groat served a dainty lunch, the ladies being well pleased with the manner in which they were entertained.

Miss Ella Eichinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Eichinger, who has been sick for some time, passed away on Tuesday at the home of her parents, who did everything possible to relieve their daughter's sufferings and make her last days as pleasant and peaceful as possible. The remains will be buried this afternoon, the funeral service being at the M.E. church.

Rev. E. A. Ballis will conduct services at the Presbyterian church for the next three Sundays, both morning and evening. Mr. Ballis comes with the view of becoming the pastor of that church if satisfactory arrangements can be made, and another pastor for the Presbyterian church at Bay City can be secured. Rev. J. V. Milligan, superintendent for the Synod of Oregon, and Rev. Mr. Diven will be at Bay City on the 24th and 25th June.

George Regan, who was accused of fraudulently obtaining a county warrant from the county clerk's office, had a hearing before Justice Stanley on Tuesday. Miss K. Mills, deputy county clerk, who issued the warrant, was positive that Regan was the man, but he had witnesses and letters to prove that he was in Portland near the time that the warrant was issued. Under these circumstances the justice did not think the evidence was strong enough to bind him over to the grand jury, so dismissed the case.

Bliss N. Davis, assistant superintendent salary and allowance, was in last week to inspect the post office and to close up the contract with the Tillamook Building Company. He recommended a few improvements. Owing to the large increase of mail at the Tillamook post office, Mr. Davis was instructed to report upon the need of additional assistance at this office, as the department only allowed pay for one assistant, which is not enough to handle the large amount of mail as expeditiously as it should be, consequently the postmaster has to pay for the additional help.
