The Tillamook Headlight,

Recent rains have given the corn crop a fine lift toward the 3,000,000,000-bushel mark.

A Massachusetts preacher expects to enjoy baseball in heaven. Will umpires succeed in pleasing everybody or be absent?

A rattlesnake was killed in New York Monday. While this remains possible, the lid can never be kept down on that town.

Col. Bryan contemplates removing from Nebraska to Texas. He and Senator Bailey will get along like two brothers—Cain and Abel.

Germany claims to be ahead of England with new 13.8 inch navel guns. But the United States is making 14-inch guns and is satisfied with the tests.

The explorers who attempted to follow the Dr. Cook route to the summit of Mount McKinley have come back, which is more than Dr. Cook seems to be able to do.

By chance, or accident, or providential interference, the Ohio Republicans have nominated a candidate for governor who is conceded to be satisfactory to all factions of the party.

It is stated that the steam railroads of the United States could be duplicated for $41,030 per mile. If the interurban systems were included this figure might be shaded still more.

In the Panama Canal zone thirty-seven churches have been built since the United States took possession. As for schoolhouses the count is always satisfactory when Uncle Sam moves in.

President Taft will make a visit to the Panama country this fall. The canal is the one thing connected with the administration that the insurgents have not found fault with.

There are various ways of influencing public opinion. In Illinois the jack pot is employed. In Texas it is a barbecue. In Iowa it is a brass band. In Washington it is a frog-leg dinner.

Uncle Sam has completed two leviathan battle ships, the North Dakota and Delaware, and others are under construction. With their speed of over twenty knots they add much to naval power in this as in other respects.

At the unveiling of the Pilgrim Fathers Monument one of the features was a review of a great squadron of modern battle ships, and the occasion generally was entitled to be called the topflower of the Mayflower.

In the light of history it is impossible to see why the Central Americans should blame their revolutionary spirit upon the people of the United States. The gold medal just voted to Mr. Carnegie by the Pan-American Congress is one proof of the endeavors in this country to promote peaceful conditions in Latin-America.

The New York City commissioner of weights and measures has decided that hereafter eggs and bread must be sold by weight under an ordinance requiring provisions to be so sold. He finds that Eastern markets are supplied generally with the smaller sizes of eggs because at Chicago dealers insist on buying eggs by weight.

One of the latest of the big trade combinations backed by J. P. Morgan is the Single Service Package Corporation of America, which is organized in New York with a capital of $2,500,000, and of which Charles A. Henderson of Chicago is president. This corporation is to buy or control all the valuable patents on machines for making receptacles out of paper and other substances, said machines to be leased on royalty and never sold. Some idea of the magnitude of the proposed business may be gathered from the fact that fourteen concerns in this county use 365,000,000 of these containers, and the corporation is to charge the users $1 royalty on every 100 of the containers made.

Commissioner General Keen of the Federal Immigration Bureau on Monday gave out the final figures concerning the number and character of immigrants during the last fiscal year. The grand total of arrivals for that period was 1,041,570. There was besides these 156,457 nonimmigrant aliens admitted, while 24,270 immigrants were debarré for various reasons under the law. Italy was the country sending here the largest number of immigrants, or 222,433, while Poland is second with 128,348.

The Chinese numbered 1770, Japanese 2798, English 52,498, Irish 38,382, Jews 84,200, Germans 71,380, Magyars 27,302, African negroes 4960, East Indians 1782, and 61 Pacific Islanders. Over the Canadian border came 47,888 immigrant aliens, against 29,680 departed. Of those shut out 12,382 were adjudged as likely to become public charges for lack of funds and 2471 on account of disease.

In Anderson County, Tex., on the night of July 80, about the little town of Slocum, a mob of whites, angered by the remark of one negro who refused to pay a note, went from house to house occupied by negro families and, calling out the male members, shot them down in cold blood until at least eighteen negroes had been slain. Next day the negroes of the whole region began to arm and gather in self-defense, and a sheriff's posse went in pursuit of the murderers. A company of troops was ordered to the scene then to restore and preserve order. Hundreds of negroes left the section in fear of their lives.

Preliminary figures for the last fiscal year, as reported by the Interstate Commerce Commission, show that 8720 persons (including employees, passengers and others) were killed on the railroads of this country, and that 95,600 were injured. This was 2000 fewer deaths on the rail than during the preceding year and 10,000 fewer injured. One passenger in 3,500,000 was killed, and one in 86,000 injured. There are now 236,870 miles of railroad in the United States, an increase of 3200 miles for the year. The capitalization totals $13,712,000,000, with a par value of $17,500,000,000. Dividends were paid to the tune of $321,000,000, but only 36 per cent of the roads paying a profit.

Some good friend of Messrs. Cummins, Bristow, Dolliver and Murdoch ought to take these gentlemen aside and tell them that in this hour of victory it might be well for them to be on the lookout for breakers ahead. The descent to Avernus is easy, but trouble usually strikes those who get there. Men who talk with the airy recklessness of these individuals may say or do something which will take them out of the pale of sane politics. Pretending to be Republicans they denounce the leaders of the Republican party and condemn the record on which the party is appealing for the support of the people. If they are sincere in their belief that they are right and that the great majority of the party which elected them, and to which they still say that they belong, is wrong, they can not be blamed rejoicing over their triumph. Their triumph was not quite as sweeping as they predicted it would be, but it was sufficient to show that, on the face of the figures, they are masters of the situation in their respective states, for the moment, at least. But let them be careful not to burn the bridge behind them. Men as able and worthy as they have found themselves dropped outside of the breastworks and never were able to get back.

Telephone Manners.
Advertising has worked and is still working wonders. Its limits have not yet been approached. And yet it is difficult not to have a feeling of skepticism concerning the effort of the New York Telephone Company to instill courtesy into its subscribers by advertising. It is never pleasant to have our attention called to our faults, but in this case it is done in such an impersonal way that it may perhaps not prove offensive. The New York advertisements ask:

"Would you rush into an office or up to the door of a residence and blurt out: 'Hello! Hello! Who am I talking to?' and then, when you receive a reply, follow up your wild discourteous salutation with: 'I don't want you; get out of my way; I want to talk to Mr. Jones.' Would you?"

We most certainly would not! None of us; and for various reasons. Aside from the danger of getting ourselves thrown into the street for doing anything of the kind, it is not customary for people to act in that way. However grouchy and grumpy or disappointed we may feel, it does not even occur to us to act so. But with a telephone receiver at the ear it never seems to occur to many people to act in any other way. In the first place, it is safe; and in the second, it lacks that personal contact which makes more or less for decent manners.

Few of the facilities of modern life are of greater convenience than the telephone; but for all that the telephone—like other things—is not perfect. We do not always get the number we ask for or we are irritatingly delayed in getting it. It is not pleasant to sit with a receiver to the ear even for a few minutes. The intermittent buzzes and raucous rattles jar our nerves, so that when we do finally get the number we are after we are in no mood for the amenities of telephony, important as they unquestionably are. Furthermore, when we do not get the desired connection promptly and properly we generally have a suspicion—born, alas! of experience—that central has not done its whole duty in the premises. Central, like the telephone itself, is not perfect. Nor is it reasonable to expect the subscribers to be.

But, after all, we ought to try to realize that it is really a person at the other end of the wire we are talking to—not just the instrument. If we do that we shall hesitate to indulge in forms of speech that we never use when speaking to people face to face.

For Sore Feet.
"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at drug store 25c. For Sale by—Chas. I. Clough.

Acute Or Chronic—Which?
No matter if your kidney trouble is acute or chronic Foley's Kidney Remedy will reach your case. Mr. Claude Brown, Reynoldsville, Ill., writes that he suffered many months with kidney complaint which baffled all treatment. At last he tried Foley's Kidney Remedy and a few large bottles effected a complete cure. He says, "It has been of inestimable value to me."—C. I. Clough.

Oregon State Fair.
Some of the best horses ever seen in the west are entered for the harness events of Oregon state fair September 12 to 17, inclusive, and splendid contests may be looked for. The course has been worked down to a far better condition than ever before and track and northwest records will undoubtedly be made.

Lone Oak track when in condition is one of the fastest race courses in the country, and it is here that the most famous speed contests on the Pacific coast have taken place. It is here that Chehalis broke the world's pacing record for two miles on October 6, 1907, setting the mark at 4:19-1-4, and the following year a new record, for a guileless pacer, of 2:04-1-4 was made by Del Norte.

The race record for Lone Oak track is 2:05 1-4, held by the pacer Leland Onward, 2:04 1-4. This record was made in the Rapid Transit purse of $1000 for 2:05 pacers on September 18, 1908. He was in competition with Mona Wilkes, 2:04 1-4. The track record for trotters is 2:10 1-4, made by Day Break in the Lewis and Clark $5000 stake on September 17, 1908. The track record for trotters, is 2:10 1-4, held by Day Break, was equaled last year by Lady Sirius in the third heat of the 2:15 trot for the Farmers' $1000 purse.

The Independent Church.
Mark 13:10. "And the Gospel must first be published among all nations."

There is but one gospel, and that is the gospel of the Kingdom of God. The Jewish synagogue was succeeded by the Christian church of whatever name or order, but Christ taught his disciples to pray "Thy kingdom come." The kingdom of God is in advance of the church.

There is a difference between a man that is educated for the ministry and one who is interested in the Kingdom of God.

The educated man has never been able to explain the Kingdom of God. There is no enthusiasm in our theological seminaries about the Kingdom of God. The young man said, "Suffer me first to go and bury my father," but Christ said, "Let the dead bury the dead; but go and preach the Kingdom of God." Christ placed the preaching of the Kingdom at the head of the list. It was the most important in his life. The majority of his sayings were about the Kingdom of God.

"As it was in the days of Noah." Only Noah and his family understood, though he had preached about a century. Men are born into the Kingdom, so they naturally comprehend. The responsibility of preaching and publishing the Kingdom of God rests with men who are interested in and believe in its possibilities. One man practices what he preaches is worth more than a hundred professionals who have no responsibility.

'DRYS' MAKE DEFENCE.

27 Tillamook Men Deny Prohibition Is Failure.

They Declare There Is Not So Much Drunkenness in City Since Saloons Were Closed.

From the Oregonian.

TILLAMOOK, Or., Aug. 14.—There appeared in your issue of Aug. 14 a column under the headlines "Prohibition for Counties is a Farce." Inasmuch as Tillamook is cited as an example of this feature, and the officials and people implicated in said failure, there is a widespread feeling here that the situation was not fairly dealt with in the above-mentioned column by Mayor Coates and the hightitled "Greater Oregon Home Rule Association." Therefore we, the undersigned business men and citizens of Tillamook, respectfully request the publication of this further word in your valuable medium of intelligence.

Conditions are not just as ideal in Tillamook as intelligent progressive citizens could wish, nor were they when our open saloons were operating. But it is our candid opinion that, first, there is not nearly so much drinking and drunkenness, nor the drunkenness as violent or dangerous now as when the saloons were operating unmolested.

Second, while the finances of the city are not in as good shape as present as they were in just prior to the taking effect of local option, this is accounted for to a considerable extent by the fact that the city had to repay a large sum to saloonkeepers who had renewed their licenses shortly prior to January 1, 1904, putting the city immediately in debt, and the further fact that last year and this, under Mr. Coates' administration, the city practically threw away, so far as the use of the money by the city was concerned, $3000 of road tax money, by upsetting an arrangement with the County Court of long standing by which one-half of the county road tax collected in the city was being turned over to the city. Notwithstanding this, the public work of the city has never suffered to any serious extent by reason of the absence of saloons.

Third, cash receipts in general business are much better than when we had saloons, and better than they would now be with such saloons.

Fourth, Mayor Coates says "the local officers have honestly done their best to enforce the law." This we believe true of some of the local officers, notably the Sheriff. But our records show that, instead of some of our local officials having done their best to violate the law themselves, and have had to plead guilty and pay fines for such violations. Everybody knows that the honest enforcement of the law has been hedged and blocked at every possible turn by the attitude of some of these very local officials. The four places licensed by our Mayor and Council to sell and drink have been compelled to plead guilty to repeated offenses.

The city has meted no punishment to them, not even revocation of license. No one seems to take more delight in the fact that the law is violated, nor to be more personally grieved when such violations are arranged than our honorable Mayor himself. Conditions are not enough, but they are made seriously worse by the very encouragement and participation of some of our officials, and every standard of business this fact merits publication since attention has been called to the situation.
