A Close Call.

A camping party who has been at Tillamook, composed of Forest Grove ladies, came very near committing burglary last week at that place. It seems that a party of young men who were camping there had to leave for home and when they left told the ladies a the way of dishes were left and if For sale by C. I. Clough. they wanted them they were welcome to go and take them. That evening the ladies went to the tent and carried a sack and to their surprise found quite a supply of edibles, dishes and two blankets left, they packed all these articles in their sack and started to leave the tent, when one of them said, "Suppose we are in the wrong tent." 'O horror !" said the other and immediately emptied all the articles in the sack in a heap and beat a hasty retreat. In a short time the rumor spread in camp that a burglar was abroad, as two young men who lately arrived reported that some one had visited their tent and had packed up all their belongings and no doubt saw them, coming when they made their get-away. There were a number of ladies who felt a little timid but the Forest Grove campers had a nervous chill when they began to realize the close The P. A. Starck County News.
