 Opera House, two nights, Friday, September 30th and October 1st. The Dramatic Club will present under the personal direction of B. J. McCowell, the very latest society drama, "The Price of Honor." The moral tone of this play is often referred to in comparison to "The Christian" and such plays as it. It treats an old story in a new way. Words cannot describe the beauty and depth of thought in "The Price of Honor." For two months Mr. McCowell was in correspondence with the author, endeavoring to secure it. He being a personal friend at last consented to allow the play to be played upon the Pacific Coast for a limited time only. Tillamook will be able to see it for the first time. The new people in the cast will surprise you. Mark the date, Friday and Saturday, September 30th and October 1st. Seats will be on sale at Lamar's drug store.
