Miss Minnie M. Bassett,
Singer, Personal Worker and Assistant Evangelist.

Miss Bassett is a true, concentrated, talented, sweet spirited Christian Lady. She possesses rare ability as an alto singer, having a full sound, sweet, melodious voice, which makes her very effective in duets, trios and quartettes. Her special training qualifications makes her a splendid Assistant Evangelist.

Esther Lillian Moss,
Singer.

This sweet little sunbeam is being used of God mightily, in her clear expressions of heavenly sentiment. For a little girl of only five summers she can sing the Gospel with wonderful power and clearness. You can hear her words all over a Tabernacle which seats over 1000 people. It will pay anyone to hear her heart stirring message of vocal expression of song.

SPECIAL MUSIC FOR REVIVAL
CONSISTS IN:

Solos, Duets, Trios, Quartettes, Chorus and Orchestras lead by M. M. MOSS.

Mr. M. M. Moss,
Chorister, Musical Director, Soloist, Director of Personal Work and Associate Evangelist.

Secretary Moss, Director Moss, Prof. Moss, Rev. Moss, Doctor Moss—he is entitled to all of them and yet you wouldn't suspect it in meeting him; no, nor in knowing him. What suits him best is "Mr. Moss—M. M. Moss—and he's about to leave us. A Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., a Director of Chorus, a Principal of our South Side High School, a Doctor of Philosophy and a Minister of the Gospel—he leaves them all to become a Singing Evangelist. Those who have had charge of our music at different times will tell you that no one so readily responded to their call to "Come over into Macedonia and help us" as did Mr. Moss. Some of us who sat and listened will tell you that his "Is That Somebody You?" sung at our Brotherhood boys' banquet was even more effective than the splendid addresses of an ex-Governor, an ex-Judge and a District Superintendent.

He has left ringing in our ears since Sunday night his "Somebody Cares." We are glad that "Shadows" can be "chased away with a song," and it is more worth while than anything he has prepared himself to do, to just do what God has prepared him to do. Bellingham is still to be our Brother's Church home. Good bye! God bless you and yours, and those who listen to you.—Methodist Bulletin, Bellingham, Wash.

DAVID EUGENE OLSON,
A. B., B. D., B. O.,

The Tacoma Ledger says: "David Eugene Olson is one of the greatest Evangelists in the Northwest." Olson is meeting to the full anticipation of all who have looked forward to his coming. His power of speech, his extensive education and his powers as logical make him a great Evangelist. He preaches with all the vehemence, rapidity and fervor of a Bill Sunday, but with a greater choice of language and no slang.—Rochester Minn., Post-Record.
