WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT HIM.

Evangelist David Eugene Olson

was born of Scandinavian parents in Montgomery County, Iowa, November 6, 1876. He moved to the state of Washington in 1890. When only 17 years old he was converted to Christ and New Testament Christianity.

At once he began preaching among his own people and continued for five years with marked success.

The Lutheran Church gave to Brother Olson his early religious training. His father was a faithful and successful Lutheran preacher.

He was the first of his family to step out from all humanism and identify himself with the "Great Restoration Movement."

While he has proved himself a man of unusual worth and power among the Scandinavians, he is equally effective among English-speaking people.

The Eugene Bible University conferred upon Brother Olson the degrees A. B., B. D., and B. O., for required work done in this school and the State University of Oregon.

Especially gifted by nature for Evangelistic work, he has given careful attention to methods and details; nothing having been neglected that could contribute to his strength and success.

Though constantly in the University since beginning his ministry among the English speaking people, his success has been phenomenal. During his school life in Eugene, Oregon, he preached 1135 sermons, received 1312 members into the church and conducted 18 revivals, averaging 50 additions to the meeting.

He conducted three revivals in one place in a single year resulting in 206 conversions, the last of the three being the most successful.

Recently he held a meeting in Puyallup, Washington, a place of 6000 population, which resulted in 200 additions in less than six weeks.

He is a successful pastor, powerful in organization, sound in doctrine, strong in faith, fervent in prayer, cheery and hopeful in disposition.

He is a man of indefatigable energy in pulpit and personal work. In all, highly practical and all-around man who reaches men, making him just the evangelist you want for a meeting.

I have been associated with him for years as a fellow student, a co-worker in the ministry and in meetings as conductor of music.

I heartily commend him to all as an intensely earnest man who will win.

"Hundreds of people had the privilege last night of hearing David Eugene Olson, one of the greatest Evangelists in the Northwest."—Tacoma Ledger.

"Mr. Olson preaches a strong and insistent doctrine of the union of all churches."—Portland Evening Telegram.

"Mr. Olson delivered what many of his hearers pronounced one of the best lectures ever heard in Puyallup. He held the attention of 800 or more people from first to last. He is one who practices what he preaches and demonstrates and proves everything as he goes along."—Puyallup Republican.

"Evangelist Olson is one of the most powerful and influential speakers which Puyallup has known for years."—Puyallup Tribune.

"D. E. Olson is an earnest, able speaker, full of mother wit, and thoroughly conversant with the Scriptures which he seems to have committed to memory. He holds his audience from start to finish, giving them no time to become restless under his address. His methods are very commendable. He does not attack other churches and thus create prejudices, but commends them for all their good work."—St. John's Review.

Rev. David Eugene Olson delivered his great lecture on "Health" Tuesday evening in the Christian church, and it met with universal appreciation on the part of his large congregation. Wednesday evening he gave a recital which was also highly appreciated.—Puyallup Rep.

We the Disciples of Christ

- Wear no name but Christ.
- Have no priest but Christ.
- Accept no creed but Christ's.
- Submit to no authority but Christ's.
- Ask you to believe on Christ.
- Ask you to repent toward Christ.
- Ask you to confess Christ.
- Ask you to be baptised into Christ.
- Ask you to walk with Christ.
- Ask you to live for Christ.
- Plead for unity in Christ.
- Christ is our all in all.

Are you a Christian? If Not, why Not?

1. Is it because you fear ridicule? "Whosoever is ashamed of me and my words of him shall the son of man be ashamed." Luke 9:26.
2. Is it because you are waiting for a special call? "He calleth you by my Gospel." II. Thes. 2:14.
3. Is it because of the inconsistency of some church member? "Everyone of us must give an account of himself to God." Romans 14:12.
4. Is it because you think you are good enough without Christ? "Except a man be born of the water and the spirit he cannot enter the kingdom of heaven." John 3:5.
5. Is it because you fear you are too great a sinner? "The blood of Jesus Christ His son cleanseth us from all sins." I John, 1:7.
6. Is it because you fear that you cannot hold out faithful? "God is faithful who will not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able." I Cor. 10:13.
7. Is it that you wish to continue in sin? "The wages of sin is death." Romans 6:23.

Dear Reader: Make no more excuses; hear Christ, believe Christ, confess Christ, repent towards Christ, be baptised into Christ and live for Him—faithful unto death—and you will be saved. All excuses will fail in judgment. Do what you know is right. Do it today. Tomorrow may never come. It is wise to be safe, it is safe to be in Christ." Roman 8:11. Enter to-day.

A Reasonable Argument.

If you hear Christ, believe Christ, repent toward Christ, confess Christ, and are baptised into Christ and live as he teaches in the Bible, you will be made better and happier for this life and run no risks as to the future.

If you do not, you will take all chances of being lost and have nothing to gain here or hereafter. All to lose. Be wise. Matt. 7:24-27. Not foolish. TAKE THE SAFE WAY. Do it today. Say I will.

Prominent Lawyer Tells of Evangelist Olson.

Compare Christian Preacher to Rapid Fire Gun and Automobile with Extra Tires.

"Have you heard David E. Olson, the evangelist?" a prominent lawyer was asked.

"I have," he answered, "and in some particulars he excels any man I ever listened to. James Hamilton Lewis, former Congressman from Seattle, was accredited with being one of the most rapid speakers who ever appeared in congress, but Olson will say three words to one of Lewis; in fact, Lewis is like a gentle shower compared to a cloudburst. I know of nothing to compare him with when it comes to rapid talking and Scripture quotations except to say that he appears to be a six-cylinder, high-power armored gospel motor car, mounted with four of the latest improved rapid fire guns with an inexhaustible store of ammunition, with extra tires strapped on behind. When he charges at the enemy he strikes a pace of more than a mile a minute and rakes everything fore and aft on both sides with the fastest shooting ever known in a gospel campaign work, and as he sweeps by, you instinctively hide, and when beyond you he halts for one moment, you emerge from your hiding place believing he has exhausted his ammunition. In a flash he about faces and trains all four guns on you, every one shooting faster than ever, and before he gets near you you either run for very life, surrender or cry for the rocks and mountains to fall on you to hide you from the wrath to come.

"The book of Revelation tells of a time coming when the cavalry of hell—two hundred million strong—the horses having heads like lions, and out of their mouths issue fire and smoke and brimstone, by which the third part of men are to be killed, will raid this world.

"But that army certainly will not attempt an invasion of Hoquiam while Olson is here. Jesus routed the devil with three scriptural quotations, and Mr. Olson seems to be so full of the Bible that quotations leap from his tongue, flash from his eyes and seem to spring from the tips of his fingers and from every hair of his head, and should that army appear and encounter a man so thoroughly equipped with Bible quotations, as Mr. Olson is, the whole bunch would break and run as soon as he would open fire on them, and never stop to hazard a battle with a man like Olson.

"Mr. Olson is a young man, but he is certainly a wonderful man. Everybody should hear him."

Are You in Christ or Not?

Out of Christ, means lost. In Christ means saved. To be in Christ we must first come "into" Christ. The Inspired word of God, the only infallible guide, tells how to come "into Christ."

The steps that lead in Christ are:

1. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ—John 20:30, 31; John 3:16; Heb. 11:5.
2. Repent, that is turn away from sin—Luke 24:47; Lk. 13:3, 11; Acts 17:30.
3. Confess Christ before men—Matt' 10:32; I Tim. 5:12, 13; Rom. 10:9, 10.
4. Be baptised into the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit—Matt. 28:18-20; Acts 2:38, 39; Rom. 6:3-5.

If you have taken these steps sincerely you are in Christ. Now to abide in Christ we must live daily in obedience to his word. See II Pet. 1:2-11; I Thess. 5:16-22; I John 4:11-21; Rom. 8:35-39.

Dear reader, "Are you in Christ?" Your friend.

Seven Great Scientific Statements.

1. There can be no design without an intelligent Designer.
2. No plan without an intelligent Planner.
3. No law without an intelligent Law-giver.
4. No thought without a Thinker.
5. No purpose without some intelligent person who has thus Purposed.
6. No order out of confusion without some intelligent person thus ordering.
7. No planned, designed, purposed, ordered, well thought out perpetual motion without intelligence behind it. The universe shows such motion, design, law, plan, purpose, thought, order and law. Man is not the designer, planner, thinker, law-giver, and governor. Therefore some greater intelligence is back of it all—"The God of the Bible," is an intelligent answer.
