W. C. King is building an addition on to the rear of the Jenkins' Jewelry Store, to be occupied by the Monk Studio. This will put this Studio on the ground floor and Dr. Monk proposes to have the best equipped Studio West of Portland.
Mrs. F. S. Whitehouse and daughters returned to the city on Saturday from the East, where she had visited relatives and friends in New Hampshire and Massachusetts. Mr. Whitehouse met them in Portland, and Frank Easter drove them in from Willamina.
The steamers Sue H. Elmore and Golden Gate left out on Wednesday morning, after which a big storm came up which lasted all day and night and on that account some anxiety was feared for the vessels. They, however, reached Astoria on Thursday afternoon.
Hot Coffee and Biscuits made right before your eyes. We are going to demonstrate Quick Meal Kanges and Universal Coffee Percolators Saturday Nov. 19th. Biscuits and coffee will be served to all who come between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.—KING & SMITH CO.
John Harter and wife returned to the city last week after a trip of several weeks to the Middle West states, and meeting Henry Kunze in Yamhill county John undertook to take an active part in Henry's campaign, but before they reached this city, and while in a jubilant and hopeful mood, they ran across the hoodoo which quered Henry's chances of election. Honest John look serious and the smile, we are told, vanished on Henry's face.

Walt Purdin, formerly employed by the Tillamook Lumber Co., has sold his big brown team, wagons, and harness to Press Lucas & Son, the consideration being $400. Mr. Purdin had Elmer Lucas move his household furnishings to the Jess and Kennedy place at Cloverdale the past week. He intends to milk cows the coming year at that place.
The following cases have been tried by District Deputy Attorney Geo. Willett the past week. Jim Wilson and O. A. Johnson were each tried on two charges for the violation of the set net law. The cases were dismissed and new charges filed against them. Don Ellis and Henry Mitchell were tried and fined $20 a piece for violation of the fish law.
