Smith, Dr. Mills, H. I. Sheldon and E. Miller. Representative A. G. Beals and Attorney H. T. Botts, President of the Port of Tillamook, left on Monday for Portland, where they will meet with three government engineers who are to pass upon the proposed projects to improve Tillamook Bay as well as Hoquarton Slough and Bay. The meeting will be held today (Thursday) and if a favorable report is made there is probability of getting it introduced into the rivers and harbors before Congress.

Special price on Alfalfa hay, ton lots $25.00.—ROSENBERG BROS.

The steamer Elmore arrived in port Sunday with A. E. Flint, A. Bailey, F. Litcher, E. C. Derossia, Mrs. W. H. Bell, R. S. Miller, Agnes Randall and E. Brown on board. She also carried a large amount of Christmas merchandise for our merchants.

Those who arrived in port on the Golden Gate were: H. Anderson, Lizzie Van Patton, E. C. Soule, John Diercks and E. Slatta. The passengers of both the Golden Gate and Elmore had to spend Christmas eve on board but they tried to make the best of it.

The gasoline schooner Oshkosh, which arrived Tuesday at Astoria, reports sighting a large number of shingle and a small quantity of lumber adrift off Necarney Mountain about six miles north of Nehalem Bay. It is supposed that some southbound craft lost a portion of her deckload.

Mr. Farmer: Why not harness that creek on your place and have electric light in your house and barn? We are prepared to quote you on the necessary pipes and machinery and give you the benefit of expert advice in installing. Ask us about it, TILLAMOOK ELECTRIC LIGHT & FUEL COMPANY.

Helen, the two year old daughter of Mrs. John Conklin died at their home in this city Monday, at 4 p.m. or bronchial pneumonia. The funeral services, which were most pathetic, were held from the Christian Church, Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 p.m., interment being made in the I.O.O.F. cemetery.

The saloons of the town opened Saturday morning with licenses to sell liquor, although they have been selling just as much without the license since the November election. Sunday all saloons were closed and Chief Kimball also notified the owners of the Bowling Alley to close their doors. Tillamook was certainly dead.

The revival meetings gave place Saturday night to the usual Xmas exercises which were held in the different churches. The programs were all very good, the decorations in the different places of worship were well in touch with the Christmas tide and every one so far as we have heard received their share in presents.

The City Council met last Friday night and levied the taxes for the ensuing year. The tax levy for 1911 is as follows: General fund 8 mills, Water fund 2 mills, Library fund 1 mill, Road fund 1 1/2 mills. The following licenses were also issued: Patterson & Waynick, W. J. Stephens, C. W. Clements, Johnson & Laughlin, and Ed. Hadley.

The Wilson River Farmers Water Company met at the Commercial Club Rooms last Thursday afternoon for the purpose of raising money for their system. They have decided to have Lewis Larson build the system, which will head on Beaver Creek, having about two miles of main. Work will begin shortly after New Year's.

Steamer Wilhelmina, Capt. Tyler, Master, reached port Monday from Yaquina with a full cargo of hay for Rosenberg Bros. The boat discharged cargo at Small's dock. Rosenberg Bros. have arranged for the Wilhelmina to make a trip from Yaquina to Tillamook about once a month with hay and grain.

Tillamook is taking the initiative for a big blow out when the railroad is finished to that city from Portland. This is a step in the right direction and should receive the undivided support of every resident of Tillamook County. Each section should prepare an exhibit for the occasion as an added feature. This should be regarded as one of the events that is to inaugurate a new era for Tillamook County. Let it be fittingly introduced.—Nehalem Enterprise.

On the arrival of the steamer Golden Gate at Portland today she will be tied up for an overhauling and will probably not return until January 7. Captain Hosford, manager of the vessel, said on Tuesday that besides having oil burners installed and tanks provided for the fuel, she would be fitted with an electric lighting plant, and as a means of facilitating her departure from Tillamook at night a powerful searchlight would be mounted on her pilot-house.

The Saturday night dances are to be under new management in future, as Roy Trout, Ross Shreve and Harry Kerr have taken these in hand. They propose to run decent dances, and cut out the drinking, smoking and vulgarity, and quit at midnight. If these young men can eliminate the bad features which have characterized some of these dances, they will not only be doing a public good, but those who like to attend these dances will appreciate having a respectable place and company to associate with. The next dance is Saturday night.

The basket ball game which was played Wednesday night at the Opera House between the Commercial Club team and the Mt. Angel Cubs was one of great interest. The final score was 17 to 13 in favor of the Cubs, although the game should have been the Commercial lad's game, had it not been for the referee being a Mt. Angel student and a little partial. The next two games will undoubtedly be played either the 2nd and 3rd, or the 3rd and 4th. Because of the lack of interest shown by the Commercial Club members the team is talking of playing under the name of the Tillamook Outlaws.

"Arizona," Friday and Saturday, Jan. 6, at the Opera House. The Dramatic Club will be at its best in this play and Mr. McCowell is confident the members will win the admiration of their many friends. It stands foremost of all American plays, dealing entirely with the actions of Western people, and depicting a life in the West of which we see very little here. This will be absolutely a guaranteed performance. New and complete scenery has been painted for it, and everything points forward to a great success. Hear Jim Hiner sing "Adios Amor," the great Mexican song, sung only in the play. You will make no mistake in seeing this. It will require the full strength of the Club to present it. Reserved seats are limited, so it will be well to secure your seats early. They are now on sale at Lamar's Drug Store. This will be a hummer of a play. Mention it to your friends.
