This is a Sale with a Reason and a Purpose.

We have recently become a member of the International Mills Syndicate and in order to meet our contracts with them, to take our portion of their New, Clean Merchandise at Factory Prices, we are compelled to sacrifice our entire stock.

We must reduce our stock and raise the cash. Therefore, the whole stock goes on sale, not one single item will be reserved. The entire stock will be sacrificed. We care nothing for profit now. All must go. A representative of the International Mills Syndicate will be in charge and not for one minute will he allow buying enthusiasm to lag. Read on.

MIRACLES

Of under-pricing are the rule in this great sale; true to the iron-clad policy of this store, every promise made in our advertising has been religiously kept, every claim made good and people, who, judging this sale by others they had seen came to scoff, stayed to buy liberally. The steadily increasing crowds since the beginning of this great event are indisputable evidence that we are keeping faith with the people. If you are wise you will follow the crowds.
