Fresbyterian Church.

Church of Christ.

On account of the minister being out of town, the services next Lord's day morning will be conducted by the officers of the church. After the Bible school, there will be at sermon, followed by the Lord's Supper. The young people of the C. E. will have charge of the evening services. They will present a splendid program. Benley "Stam" will deliver the main address. Special music. A helpful time for everybody.

Training Class.

On the two preceding Monday evenings some of the Christian people have met and decided to take up the work of teacher training. The text book adopted is entitled "Training the Teacher," published by S.S. Times Co., consisting of four divisions. The first division is a study of the Bible, consisting of 20 lessons. The second, third and fourth divisions take up the pupil, teacher and school in order. The text book is the best one available for a union class. A large attendance was present last Monday evening and most of them ordered text books. This class is for teachers, prospective teachers and all desiring to get better acquainted with the old book. Remember the first 20 lessons are on the Bible. Having been elected as teacher of the class for the first part of the book I want to invite all persons who desire to do so to join the class. Come now and get started at the first. The class will meet Monday evening in the small room of the M. E. Church.
