TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT, MAY 4, 1911.

It Is a Fact

That insurance agents, saving and loan association agents, and such like, induce many people to take out policies that they do not want. Hundreds of dollars have been wasted in this way in Tillamook. We know many instances of policies being taken out and after the payment of one or two premiums are let drop with a total loss of the money put into them.

Savings and loan association agents promise big profits that are not realized. Their system has proven unsatisfactory to several Tillamookers, Stock offered for sale cheap on which an enormous profit is promised is a good thing to steer clear of.

Bank your money where it will be safe until needed with

THE OLD RELIABLE.

CAPITAL $30.000.00 STATE SUPERVISION TILLAMOOK CITY. ORE.

Embert Marolf Is Dead.

st

th nsq ag w pt nb a e tit

ci ir

5 h

10 0 0

n d

If we don't preach the truth we do not want you to accept it. If we do trip of the Elmore. Another old and respected resident of Tillamook County passed you ought to hear it. The truth is away on Wednesday morning, when what I want. Do you want it? If Embert Marolf was called to his so come. R. Y. BLALOCK, pastor.

so come and hear what we say.

Church of Christ.

rest. He had been a resident of this county since May, 1884. The cause of his death was apoplexy and he was 90 years of age. He We are in the field to serve the was born on the 24th of October, community, not to live off thecomun-1821, in Bern, Switzerland, He was married in Tillamook on Feb. 24, 1849, to Ann A. Marolf, who died any case of need to be ministered July, 1899. Six children serive him, one daughter and five sons, viz : Fred and Annie Marolf, of Tigardville, Oregon; Alex and Alfred Marolf, of St. Helena, Calf.; and Godfrid and Albert Marolf, of Tillamook County, and 23 grand children. The remains will be buried on Friday in the Oddfellows Icemetery.

Circuit Court Adjourns.

Circuit Court adjourned Friday after nearly two weeks of pounding on the large number of cases which were up for settlement.

In the case of Nancy Olson vs. Normon Olson for divorce the plaintiff was granted a divorce and the custody of the children.

In the case of Pearl Phelps vs Geo. W. Phelps et. al. the plaintiff was granted a divorce; also $750 as alimony and $150 for attorney fees.

The case of Samantha Mills et al decided as yet.

Butler, the court reporter, left on down, Councilmen Vantress, McNair an inch and an eighth in diameter, the morning stage for the valley.

Presbyterian Church.

worship, 11 p.m., sermon "The Great came up, and the petition to vacate barwards, lured on by wind and names."-New York Tribune.

Mr. T. Irving Potter and Mr. A.

A. Russell are expected on the next

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Holmes were visitors on Sunday last.

Mr. James Feeney, of the Tillamook Iron and Brass Foundry, called Wednesday, to arrange for a new set of castings for the dredge. Mr. Odermatt, although considerably delayed by the recent wet ity. Any suggestion from anybody spell, reports steady advancement for the betterment of our town, or in the Telephone Department.

The storm of Wednesday last ento, if reported, will be cheerfully veighled a wee bit of excitment into considered. Next Lord's day we the ordinary run of things and want to help you. If you will come caused a few thumping hearts to ry if you do," writes an American on at 10 a.m., the Bible and nothing but work overtime. In order to better his first visit to that city, "not bethe Bible will be considered in the mark the heads of Sturgeon and cause of the usual objections, but on Bible school-just to help you. At Ship channels, a pile driver and its 11 a.m. and 8 o'clock p.m. the min- crew had been sent out to place a ister will speak on "The Fruit few beacons along the course of cording to the desire for notice on of the Spirit - Longsuffering" each waterway. Everything had the part of the family of the late laand "The Redeemer Present But been satisfactory accomplished and mented. Every possible title is men-Unknown," respectively-just to they had started back, when the tioned, and the name of every memhelp you. The young people in storm suddenly broke upon them. ber of the family goes to make up the C. E. meet at 7 p.m. Everything 'Twas's ripping sou'wester, gaining notice. A death announcement black will be done in sermon and song in confidence and speed with every and prayer-just to help you. Come passing minute. They battled against it for some time, but when it was found that the action of the wind and waves more than counterbalanced the pulling power of the and Councilmen Wilt and Short- They parted however, after doing and severe illness, of their dearly beridge for it. Some other matters the work for the greater part of loved son, Arthur, in the twenty-sixth Bible hour, 10 p.m.; morning pertaining to street improvements three hours, and the driver started year of his age.'

waves. Everything was against its

CAMELS OF THE ARABS.

Various Ways the Desert Nomads Use the Animals' Milk.

Nearly 90,000 camels are used in the vilayet of Bagdad as beasts of burden, and with donkeys they form the only means of carrying goods to inland points. For a common burden camel $30 is a fair price, though the trotters, or swift messenger camels, are worth more. A young camel can sometimes be had about Bagdad for as little as $3 or $4.

Besides its use for riding and carrying purposes, the Mesopotamian Arabs depend on the camel for milk. Shoes are made from its tough, calloused hide, and in times of famine its brittle, strong tasting flesh is eaten. Condensed milk, made by boiling fresh camel milk until evaporation leaves only a hard, chalky substance, prized among the desert nomads. By rubbing this substance between the hands it reduces to powder, and when mixed with warm water it makes a refreshing drink, highly esteemed among the desert folk. "Mercesy." as it is called, will keep in good condition for two years. When made from buttermilk it tastes sour and is prized among Arabs who have eaten much of sweet dates. Fresh, warm camel milk is also the food of many valuable horses owned by desert sheiks.

Camel calves are weaned in their eleventh or twelfth month. When a camel caravan is on the march the very young camels are often tied upon the backs of the mother animal, since they cannot endure the fatigue of a long march. Valuable dogs and Arab desert hounds, called "slugeys," also ride in the same way .- Chicago Record-Herald.

VIENNA DEATH NOTICES.

They Read Like an Extract From a Family History.

"Don't die in Vienna. You'll be account of the death notices in the papers. They appear flanked by all sorts of ads. and range in size acbordered and covering half a page of the paper is nothing unusual. Here is a sample:

"'Bruno Weiss, purveyor of lubricating oil to his imperial and royal majesty, and his wife, Amalie-born Horsitzky-in their own and in the names At a meeting of the city council on two boats in advance, it was of their children-Hans, Otto, Minna. deemed advisable to anchor the Laura and Hilde-and their sons-inmage presiding and with all the driver in Bayocean Channel, and law. Milltary Surgeon Dr. Lois Krocouncilmen present, an ordinance leave her there. With the ever in binsky and Architect Oskar Jellinek: their daughters-in-law, Louise, born Lederman, and Marie, born Anspacker, as also in the names of their grandchildren'-here follows a long string of names-'and their mother and motherin-law, Frau Ernestine Winkler, relict of Commercial Councilor Anton Winkler, announce to their friends the entrance into eternal rest, after a long

"This is correct except as to the

FIRST AID IN FAINTING.

Lower the Head to Let the Blood Back to the Brain.

Fainting is a loss of consciousness due to the diminution of blood supply to the brain. It occurs most frequently in weak, sensitive women, but may occur also to men as well. It usually occurs in crowds or in crowded halls, theaters and churches, where the atmosphere is close and the air foul.

Fainting usually lasts only a few minutes, and the person recovers immediately when taken out into the fresh air, but there are cases in which it lasts much longer, sometimes for an hour or more. The first aid treatment of fainting is usually very simple. Take the person out into the fresh air and lay him flat on the back, with the head lower than the feet.

This can be done by grasping the feet and holding the body so that the head hangs down, or take an ordinary straight back chair, turn it over so that the back forms an angle with the floor and place the person on the back of the chair with the head hanging down. This position with the head hanging down favors the flow of the blood back to the brain.

All tight clothing about the neck and waist should be loosened. Smelling salts or aromatic spirits of ammonia applied to the nostrils and cold water sprinkled on the face, chest and hands help to restore consciousness .- National Magazine.

THE SILVER DOLLAR.

Many Changes In Its Design Since It Was First Issued.

The silver dollar has undergone a great many changes since it was put in circulation in 1794. On the face of the first dollar there was stamped the head of a young woman turned to the right and with hair flowing, as if she was in a gale of wind. But in 1796 congress came to her relief and ordered her hair to be tied up with a bit of ribbon. The fifteen stars which appeared on the first dollar were after this reduced to the original thirteen in recognition of the number of states.

In 1836 the design was again changed, and the dollar bore the figure of a woman dressed in a flowing garment. The designer forgot, however, to put in the thirteen stars, and the coin was soon called in, the new design having the woman surrounded by stars. Her air was defiant and stiff looking, and in 1838 dollars were issued which were more artistic in treatment. The first dollars bearing the motto, "In God We Trust," were coined in April, 1864, and in 1873 the era of the trade dollar began, lasting just five years. The Liberty dollar made its appearance in 1878. Miss Anna W. Williams, a public school teacher of Philadelphia, sat for the portrait .- St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Sure of a Raise.

An enterprising woman who rents several apartments in a new building and sublets them furnished, room by room, has profited at the rate of several hundred dollars a year by woman's propensity for telling everything she knows. To each applicant for a room she named an exorbitant price to start with.

"Now, understand, this is a concesed as strictly confidential. If you tell a soul in the house that I have made a reduction in your favor I shall have to charge the original price." Within two weeks rents had gone UD. "Mrs. Smith tells me," said the astute landlady to each gossiping tenant. "that you told her you pay only $6 for your room instead of $7." And as po one was in a position to plead not guilty the additional rental was exacted .- New York Times.

CHILDREN OF UAP.

Don't Have to Worry About They Food, Clothes or Shelter.

In describing Uap, one of the Care. line islands, Dr. W. H. Furness says that children become more or less public property on that Island as soon as they are able to run about from house to house.

They cannot without extraordinary exertion fall off the island, and, like little guinea pigs, can find food any. Their clothing grows by every where. roadside, and any shelter or no shelter is good enough for the night. They cannot starve. There are no wild beasts or snakes to harm them. What matters it if they sleep under the high, star powdered ceiling of their foster mother's nursery or curl up on mais beneath their father's thatch? There is no implication here that parents are not fond of their children. On the contrary, they love them so much that they see their own children in all children. It is the ease of life and its surroundings which have atrophied the emotion of parental love. When a father has merely to say to his wife and chlidren. "Go out and shake your breakfast off the trees." or, "Go to the thicket and gather your clothes," to him the struggle for eristence is meaningless, and without a struggle the prizes of life are held in light esteem.

Somebody's children are always about the houses and to the fore h all excitements, and never did I see them roughly handled or harshly treat

MASTERING A TEMPER.

The Method by Which Marion Craw. ford Controlled His Anger.

Mrs. Hugh Fraser, sister of the late F. Marion Crawford, tells some interesting stories of him in her book. "A Diplomatist's Wife In Many Lands, It was at the Villa Negroni, Rome, that Crawford was born, an event which so delighted his father that, as Mm. Fraser says, "my father was beside himself with joy and showered pres-ents on all of us to make us understand and share it."

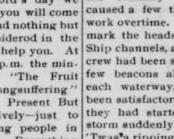

When young Francis was about ten years old it dawned upon him that he had a violent and uncontrollable temper, and with the simplicity which marked all his character he decided to get it in hand.

"One member of the family constantly irritated him to the verge of frenzy, and he invented a form of self discipline which very few children would have thought of imposing on themselves. My mother entered his room one day and found him walking round and round it, carrying on his back : heavy wooden shutter which he had lifted off its hinges at the window. "'My dear child,' she exclaimed, 'what are you doing?'

"'Getting over a rage,' he replied doggedly, continuing the exercise 'When I am so angry that I want to kill somebody I come in here and carry the shutter three times round the room before I answer them. It is the only way.""

Women and Tea In Japan.

No Japanese society woman has com pleted her education unless she can te just what grade of tea is being served to her-Uji, Mikado or a hundred ers-and at least be able to distinguish by taste at least a dozen "blends" in a brand that has that many or more. Such accomplishments are partly 1 matter of inheritance and environment. for Japan is a country where tea his been raised and used for centuries. With tea plantations five centuries oid and tea plants 200 years of age there is no need for tea commissions to fix customs standards. As for the bouse hold standards, the Japanese house wife decides them herself.

and let us help you.

City Council Meeting.

Monday evening, with Mayor Talwas passed giving the Mutual Tel- creasing volume of water, however ephone Co. a franchise and repeal- and the rapidly augmenting velocing the previous one. The ordi- ity of the wind it was soon made vs Clay Danials et al has not been nance to change the model saloon evident that the whole thing rested ordinance, so that saloon keepers on the two cables that held her.

Judge Wm. Galloway and A. M. [could keep screens up was voted] These were brand new ropes, each and Hathaway voting against it and should have stood the strain.

ommission"; Christian Endeavor, 7:15 p.m.; evening worship, 8 p.m., Sermon "The Overwhelming Conditions of life." Strangers are cordially welcome.

S. G. FINNEY, Pastor.

the reach of robbers.

valuable deposited with us.

ventist house, Pastor Blalock will preach. Every body cordially inwhether induced by violent exercise vited to attend. We hold out ser-vices in the afternoon so they will is excellent. This liniment is also the landing, a small hole was not conflict with the services of highly esteemed for the relief it af-ober denominations in the services of fords in cases of rheumatism. Sold other denominations in the city, by Lamar's Drug Store,

DEAD EASY.

An ordinary safe is "dead easy" for yeggmen and safe crackers.

OURS IS BURGLAR PROOF.

And as further precaution, WE CARRY BURGLAR

AND HOLD UP INSURANCE.

put your money and valuables where they are out of the facilities we have to safe guard the money and

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF

TILLAMOOK

Only U.S. Government Examined Bank in the County.

LAMAR'S VARIETY STORE

"DROP IN AND LOOK AROUND."

Rest Room for Ladies.

Located two Doors west of Lamar's Drug Store.

Don't worry and loose your sleep when you can

We invite the opportunity to explain more fully the alleys on the north side of First Street, the property owners were recovery, as the seas were running informed that they would have to as high as they ever had in the take the initiative in the matter.

Now is the time to get rid of your Baptist Church. Next Sunday, 3 p.m., at the Ad-For soreness of the muscles annuals of the bay, and the Launch of repairs, Mr. O'Donnell, however, although professing to be no seaman, dauntlessly attempted the herculean task. With an engine that was continually bucking and a crew of gritty landsman, he finally succeeded in reaching the scow. added to the perils of their return trip. Things looked rather dubions more than once, but the fates were with them and they arrived in port about 7.00 p.m. thoroughly drench but inwardly rejoicing, at the prospect of standing again on good old terra firma.

8

It Startled The World.

when the astounding claims were first made for Bucklen's Arnica Salve, but forty years of wonderful cures have proved them true, and and walt, emblems of patience and of it, do you?" everywhere it is now known as the best salve on earth for Burns, Boils, Scolds, Sores and Piles. Only 25c of hope, the last element in their triple at Chas. I. Clough's.

J. M. Howell, a popular druggist of Greensburg, Ky., says, "We use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our own household and known it is excellent." For sale by Lamar's Drug, Store.

Ballding, Third and Washington PORTLAND, ORS

He Was Just Thinking.

"Mary," said a man to his spouse, who was gifted with a rapidly moving Bayocean was badly in need of tongue, "did you ever hear the story of the precious gems?"

"No," she replied. "What is it?" "It's a fairy legend that my grandmother told me when I was a boy," the husband continued. "It was about a woman from whose lips fell a diamond or a ruby at every word she spoke.

"Well?" said his wife as he pause. "That's all there is of it, my dear." he replied. "But I was just thinking if such things happened nowadays 1 could make my fortune as a jeweler."

Love of Trees.

We find our most soothing companionship in trees among which we have lived, some of which we ourselves may have planted. We lean against them, and they never betray our trust, they shield us from the sun and from the rain, their spring welcome is a new birth which never loses its freshness. they lay their beautiful robes at our feet in autumn; in winter they stand truth, for they hide nothing, not even the little leaf buds which hint to us

symbolism .- Dr. O. W. Holmes

Above the Vulgar Gaze.

Until 1870 it was against the law and sacred custom for any subject to look at the emperor of Japan. His political advisers and attendants saw only his back. When he first left the palace the shutters of all the houses had to be drawn, and no one was per mitted in the streets. Even today, when the emperor has the privilege of driving through the streets like one of his subjects, it is not considered guite proper to cast a glauce at him.

Experience.

"Experience is the best teacher." quoted the wise guy. "Yes, but her charges are mighty high." added the simple mug.-Phila delphia Record.

Naturally.

"I beard he was in bad odor with ber family. Is that true?" "Draw your own conclusions. It wa a centless marriage."-Baltimore American.

Health lies in labor, and there is no earthly royal road to it but through toll.-Wendell Phillips.

The Retort Courteous.

James Russell Lowell was once a guest at a banquet in London where he was expected to reply to a toast. The speaker who preceded Mr. Lowell said many contemptuous things about the people of the United States, avowing and repeating again and again that they were all braggarts. As American minister at the court of St. James Lowell could hardly overlook this speech, so as he rose he said smilingly: "I heartily agree with the gentleman who has just spoken. Americans do brag a great deal, and I don't know where they got the hab-

Big Mouthfuls.

"Yes," whispered the man who knows everybody, "the big chap over there at the third table is a great gormand. He's a mountain in the financial world, you know.

"H'm!" commented the quiet observ-"Instead of a mountain he looks to me like a great gorge."-Chicago News.

Boiling Alive

The last instance of boiling to death took place in Persia in 1890. The offender was guilty of stealing state revenues and was put into a large caldron of cold water, which was slowly heated to the boiling point. His bones were distributed as a warning among

"Nobody wants to play bridge with Mrs. Bean. She talks all the time." "I suppose she's quiet when she's "Quiet! She talks twice as much."-

Silence la Safety.

how often a man an' his wife disagrees as long as he don't let her know it. Harper's Basar.

The Cock Lane Ghost.

St. John's, Clerkenwell, is a mean structure architecturally, but possessed two interesting historical associations. one romantic and the other ludicross. It is the beadquarters of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, part of the choir of whose ancient priory can still be seen in the early English crypt. This crypt was the haunt of the "Cort lane ghost." which excited all Lopdon in February, 1762, and attracted Johnson, Goldsmith and Horace Walpole. The "ghost" proved, as Dr. Johnson surmised, to be the mischlerous little daughter of a parish clerk-Westminster Gazette.

A Regular Attendant. As the new minister of the village was on his way to evening service he met a rising young man of the place whom he was anxious to have become a member of his church.

"Good evening, my young friend." he said solemnly. "Do you ever st tend a place of worship?"

"Yes, indeed, sir, regularly every Sunday night," replied the young fe-low with a smile. "I'm on my way to see her now."-Metropolitan Magazine

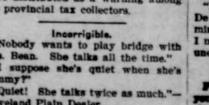

His Complete Triumph. "Uncle Rastus, I thought they had sent you to jail again on the charge.

"No, suh; I's vindicated dis time De jedge couldn't quite make up mind, an' he turned me loose an' sald I mustn't do it again."-Chicago Trib

An Uphill Job.

Figg-Don't you wish you could live your life over again? Fogg-Well, I chould say not! I've got a twenty year endowment policy maturing the month.-Boston Transcript.

When you have chosen your point in the by it and do not weakly try if with the w the provincial tax collectors.

dummy? Cleveland Plain Dealer.

After forty years o' married life I've made up the mind it don't matter