"I called at the Tillamook County Bank to-day and introduced myself to the cashier. When I told him I wanted to know more about a savings account I found him very ready to explain it all to me.

"Its a very simple matter and I had supposed it would mean a great amount of trouble and red tape.

"It was so easy I took a dollar out of my pocket (I will not miss it) and opened an account right there. They took my signature and address and gave me my bank book.

"I felt backward when I went in but when I came out it seemed to me I actually had an interest in that Bank."

KING & SMITH CO.

Coming as the official representative of the Oregon Development League, J. J. Sayer, field secretary, left Portland Tuesday for a trip through the Oregon coast country that will take him from the Columbia River to the California line. Mr. Sayer will reach Tillamook about Thursday, August 3. The League wants to get in closer touch with extreme Western Oregon to learn its needs and possibilities. Mr. Sayer will learn conditions as regards opportunities for settlers, facilities for transportation, etc. He hopes to meet with the various commercial clubs along the way and find out how the state league can co-operate with them more fully for the benefit of each section.

This week one may see, when walking past the Hardware Store of King & Smith, one of, not only the most original as to idea, but one of the prettiest pieces of window decorating ever seen in this city or any other. I. C. Smith of the firm of King & Smith, has managed to display a complete forest scene which is as beautiful as if made by Nature herself. With the aid of moss and rocks from the river and forest and with water from the city, Mr. Smith has made a most beautiful little lake in his window, fed by water running over a bluff of rocks covered with moss. On the lake is a small ship and in the lake may be seen numerous small fish, taken from the river. A small tent is stretched on the bank of the lake and everything needed for the camp may be seen in the window.

The Tillamook Editor-Boosters' Association will leave on Friday of next week on a junketing trip to boost the north part of the county. The editors will be gone several days, and the boosters will study the needs of the Nehalem country, as that part of the county has a great future before it, where large manufacturing establishments will be established, which will sustain several prosperous towns, to say nothing of the beautiful beaches and splendid attractions for summer visitors in that part of the county. The distinguished boosters are to be royally entertained by the progressive and aggressive citizens of Nehalem, and the trip will give the pencil pushers an opportunity to get in closer touch with the people and to boost for all public improvements which will help develop that long bottled up section of Tillamook. "Rah! Rah! Rah! For Nehalem. Watch her grow, and see her grow. Nehalem!"

An Important Question.

Which do we need on the farm in Tillamook County, the big heavy draft horse that requires so much feed and cannot be moved over a walk without injury, or do we want a horse that will weigh from 1100 to 1250 with vim, vigor and vitality; can do all the work; and if we do not live more than 15 to 25 miles from town; can start after the chores are done in the morning and get back in time to do our chores at night and have plenty of time in town to do our business.
