

The Way to Save Have a Savings Account With the Old Reliable.

9--Extracts from a Diary.

"I thought sure I had lost my bank book recently. I called up the cashier and asked him what I could do so the finder could not draw my money. He told me there was no danger of that. Even if a dishonest person should find my bank book he cannot withdraw the money without a written order from me. They have my signature on file so no one can forge my name.

"I found the book later, and when I got my pay envelope to-day I deposited ten dollars first thing. I'll not spend that ten foolishly.

"I think I can bank fifteen next month. Of course I'm not spending as much as I used to, but this bank book sure looks good to me."

We noticed for the first time in Tillamook County one of the Major Weitzel colts (bred and raised in this county), driven on our streets last Saturday. She was raised and owned by Adolph Erickson, living about 1 1/2 miles N.E. of town. She lacks about six days of being 13 months old. Mr. Erickson said he harnessed her up and hitched her with a pony out in the yard without any bother, all alone, and drove her to town in a top buggy. She is certainly something for Mr. Erickson to be proud of. He said he would not take $200 for her. She is a perfect built colt of large size and kind disposition. Weighing after being driven to town 746 lbs. without the harness. Think of the opportunity we have again to raise some of this class of horses this year.

R. L. Osbourn, a young man, who it seems has a good head for working skin games on people, secured $27.25 from the Tillamook County Bank on a forged check. The check was made out in such a manner that it appeared to be sent to him from Portland and then to make himself doubly sure of not being caught he had Arthur Evans give an indorsement of identification which threw the liability onto Mr. Evans. As soon as the check was cashed, young Osbourn secured a saddle horse from

The savings idea is just as worthy, just as necessary to business success to-day as it was in 1740, but the methods have advanced during that time.

We now have the most modern savings convenience invented and respectfully invite the people of Tillamook County to call and see them.

In brief, let us tell you that it is a small HOME SAVINGS BANK which registers, or indicates, at all times, THE EXACT AMOUNT OF MONEY which has been placed in it.

The amount of money is plainly shown at all times, the amount of each kind of coin—Nickles, dimes, quarters and so on.

The thing that stimulates saving is to see the amount grow, to see it every day, right before your eyes. With one of our new banks this feature is the big thing and these banks have proven very popular wherever they have been placed.

GET ONE THE FIRST TIME YOU ARE IN TOWN, especially if you have children, for you know the adage, "as the twig is bent, so is the tree inclined," and the children will take unusual interest in these banks because THEY ARE SOMETHING NEW AND UNIQUE.

THEY ARE to be had FREE for we loan them to anyone who starts an account of $1 or more.

Dawson Bros. which he rode as far as Trask House, where he took the stage to Yamhill. From there it is supposed that he went to Salem and from thence to California. The father of Osbourn has settled for the check and is doing his best to have him dealt with according to law. The young man was in this county caring for his father's farm which was lately purchased from Dwight Edmunds.

A sad misfortune befell the gasoline launch Richard, Monday morning at 8:00 o'clock. She belonged to the Potter Realty Co., of Bayocean, and was used for passenger service on the bay. While laying at the Bayocean dock, with no one aboard except Captain Richardson, of the launch, the engine, which had been oiled, exploded. Capt. Richardson was badly burned about the hands and face with the burning gasoline, which flew all over the boat, but managed to crawl from the boat on to the dock, from which place he was taken to the Sanitarium for treatment. The fire in the Richard caught so quickly that it was only a few seconds until she was all aflame. Everything was burned except a part of the stern. The Richard was 60 feet in length, with 10 foot beam and 4 1/2 foot draught. She was fitted with a 60 H.P. Lamb engine and was valued at $6000.00.

Edgar Munson and Lyle Smith of this city, had what might have been a great deal more serious accident than it was, Monday while they were driving Mr. Munson's horse up the Miami River. As they were driving around a turn in the road at the Buckle's place near the Miami school house, the horse, which was traveling at a lively pace ran into a long distance telephone wire which was hanging low enough to catch the horse across the eyes, which made the animal burge, throwing Mr. Munson and Mr. Smith over the rig. Mr. Smith was thrown from the back of the buggy and fell to the ground with the buggy top, which broke his fall so that he was practically uninjured. However, Mr. Munson, who was thrown from the side of the vehicle, was dragged about 20 yards and was quite badly bruised. At the time of the accident, Mr. Munson, who is Chief Forester for the Whitney Co. Ltd., in this county, was looking over their interests in the Miami valley. After he freed himself from the buggy the horse ran two miles and a half, being caught at Frank Crane's place. During haying a hook had dragged the wire down and this was the cause of the accident.

No part of Tillamook County will derive greater benefit by reason of the construction of the railroad than the Nehalem country. This region, with its magnificent resources, was one of the greatest factors in influencing E. E. Lytle's indefatigable efforts in securing us a railroad.

With the railroad once in operation, development of that heretofore isolated and backward country will be phenomenal. Simultaneous with the development there must come into existence, in the Nehalem Valley, a shipping point, a distributing-point, a commercial center. F. R. Beals, anticipating these conditions, began a search of the Nehalem country three years ago and settled upon Mohler, named after the great railroad magnate, as the most logical location. That he made a wise selection is evidenced by the fact that the Railroad Company is now providing shipping facilities for this point and that intelligent, far-sighted men are investing there.

Don't let the opportunity slip by to get in on the ground floor and then say, in years to come, I lived in this country before the completion of the railroad, when Mohler was first founded, lived here when the McDermott tract was first opened up and could have invested, but, alas, doubting Thomas that I was, I stood back and let the other fellow make the money.
