IMPORTANT A number of these have been rented to families without children and some have been exchanged for higher priced uprights, grands and inner-players. They have all been put in first class condition; many are almost new. The city trade is constantly snapping up such instruments, rather than await the time to purchase new pianos at much higher prices, for later we will take them in exchange and allow nearly the full price paid.

We will give you a whole year to test the piano selected. You can exchange it without cost if displeased. Does this not appeal to you?

REMEMBER SHERMAN-CLAY & CO. is talking to you—that the rigid adherence to fair dealing methods and a constant aim to please, has made us recognised as The Safe Firm through which to buy—that we have never resorted to fake schemes or guessing contests to expand our trade. Our price is one and the same to all and always has been—it protects the inexperienced piano buyer for it must represent the quality.

Forty years in the Piano business has enabled us to choose lines of pianos that stand for excellence in valuations. We have a collection appealing to varied tastes and the pocket books of the masses.

THE STEINWAY, treasured the world over, is Sherman-Clay only. It is the piano used as a comparison by other dealers, and our lower priced pianos have all been selected with same high regard for the best for the money.

The first five pianos purchased thru our representative Mr. C. F. Bailey at the Allen Hotel until Tuesday the 21st, will be delivered to Tillamook homes, all freight and drayage prepaid.

Those interested please call up HOTEL ALLEN and leave telephone number. If you cannot phone call or write.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Only Two Jury Cases—Port Cases to be Tried the 10th December.

BARTNICK GOES FREE.

Henry McKinley Denied New Trial and Case Goes to the Supreme Court—Jury Disagree in Peddling Case.

The November term of the Circuit Court convened on Monday, with Judge Percy R. Kelly on the bench. On Saturday the judge disposed of a number of notions and demurrers.

The grand jury was drawn, composed of F. D. Small, A. Christenson, D. W. Rhodes, J. L. Burke, John M. Weiss and J. H. Holgate. The judge appointed D. W. Rhodes foreman.

The grand jury was discharged on Thursday morning and the jury met in the afternoon. Strange as it may seem, there were only two jury cases during the term.

The grand jury brought in "not a true bill" against Frank Bartnick, who was held on a charge of rape, and Frederick Balmer, charged with setting out fire. Both parties were discharged.

The grand jury brought in "true bills" against Chris Hansen, charged with wrongfully injuring personal property, and on another indictment for assault, and on being arraigned pleaded not guilty, and the cases continued.

McKinley Case.

State of Oregon, plaintiff, vs. Henry McKinley, defendant. Rape. Attorney Nolan appeared for the defendant, and asked for a private consultation of the court, the district attorney and himself. This was opposed by District Attorney McNary, and Judge Kelly stated that as it was a public case it should be heard in open court, and therefore, would not consent to a private consultation. Attorney Nolan then argued a motion for a new trial, stating that Judge Galloway had told him that this defendant should not be punished and wanted the case continued and resubmitted before the next April grand jury and taken up by the same judge. District Attorney McNary opposed a new trial on the ground that the defendant had been indicted by a grand jury and found guilty by the trial jury. He opposed that kind of judgment. Attorney Nolan then argued on account of the expense it was to the taxpayers to have the case thrashed out all over again. He showed that Judge Galloway had no right to grant a motion for a new trial, and as far as the judge saying that this defendant should not be punished, he had not mentioned the matter to him. If the defendant was entitled to any leniency they should make a showing before the executive and not in that court. Judge Kelly overruled the motion for a new trial because more than 60 days had lapsed since judgment was entered, and the case will go to the Supreme Court on an appeal taken by the defendant. The motion for extension of time in which to file bill of exceptions was overruled.

The Port Cases.

The State of Oregon, upon the relation of S. V. Anderson and Lillian Anderson, plaintiffs, vs. The Port of Tillamook, a pretended Quasi Municipal Corporation. H. T. Botts, A. G. Beals, D. Fitzpatrick, James Walton, Jr., and M. F. Leach, defendants. Injunction. A motion was filed to have the case continued by Attorney Olson on account of Attorney Duniway being called to a case in the U. S. Supreme Court at Washington, D. C.

The attorney thought it was only fair to Mr. Duniway's clients in this and the other case, that he should be present. Attorney Botts objected to a continuance as it was of much importance to the community to try the case now, for if the Port was not legally incorporated steps would be taken to remedy the same. He stated that Mr. Duniway had plenty of time to get back case before the court, and as there was nothing to show that he had been detained by the Supreme Court, they were entitled to a hearing at this term of court. District Attorney McNary opposed a continuance for it had been expressly stipulated between him and Mr. Duniway that this case should be tried at this term of court, and sooner if possible, and he had made arrangements with the Supreme Court to have the case advanced so that a final decision could be had in the new year. Judge Kelly overruled the motion for a continuance on the ground that there was nothing to show in the motion that Mr. Duniway was detained by the Supreme Court from appearing at this term of court, but he hoped that the attorneys could come to some understanding whereby it could be so arranged that the case could be set when Mr. Duniway could be present. As Judge Kelly did not care to have the case go to trial in the absence of Attorney Duniway, it was agreed between the court and the attorneys to try the case about the 10th December, when Judge Kelly will come in for that purpose.

W. H. Leach and Eva M. Leach, plaintiffs, vs. The Port of Tillamook, a pretended Quasi Municipal Corporation. H. T. Botts, A. G. Beals, D. Fitzpatrick, James Walton, Jr., and M. F. Leach, defendants. Injunction. The same order was made in this case as in the previous case, as to the dismissal of the motion for a continuance.

HIGH CLASS ENTERTAINMENTS.

A Lyceum Course for the City.

Our city is to have a course of entertainments of chautauqua. This is the kind for Tillamook and possible only by the opening of the new railroad, thanks to horse and the enterprise progressive citizens.

The Menely Lyceum at Chicago, has been one of the finest attractions consist of:

First.—The Ricketts Company, including Chester Letts, impersonator and reader.

Second.—Miss Belle King of the most eloquent woman American platform.

Third.—James R. Barlow, comedian, chalk talker, cory and clay molder.

Fourth.—The Menely Lyceum, Raymond McFord, impersonator and reader.

The first of these, the Concert Company, with the Ricketts, impersonator and reader, are booked for Saturday and Sunday, November 23th. Tickets on sale at the drug store, the High School, etc.

The Brethren Church has been asked as the place for holding the largest auditorium in the city.

These chautauqua entertainments have become an important joyable feature every day every progressive city and any size. They constitute a combination of the popular that amuse and at the same time, that makes a thoroughly enjoyable entertainment that instructs and educates.

Our people will be glad to and our city credit by so doing hereafter we may have the best chautauqua attraction very best and is in demand and yet the prices have been kept down with not of making money, putting the course without joyment of the largest patronage.

Tickets for adults will be any one of the attractions for four. Children under will be 25c, for anyone of the four.

Many people suffer years from dizziness, gestation, severe headache or nervous troubles of kind or another. These ascribe to "biliousness" anything under the sun, the eyes, when, in cases, the trouble is traceable to uncorrected strain, which the wear proper lenses would tirely remove.
