

A Certain Silver Sixpence. Beau Brummel had a very odd way of accounting for the sad change which took place in his affairs at this time.

Origin of the "Three R's." The famous toast to "the three R's"—reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic—was made by Sir William Curtis, lord mayor of London, in the year 1795 and for many years one of the wardens of the river.

A Record Hailstorm. One of the worst hailstorms ever known in the United States occurred Sept. 5, 1898, in Nodaway county, Missouri.

A View of Jefferson Davis. Very straight and tall, thin, with a clear cut, clean shaven, distinguished face, with a look half military man, half student, with a demeanor to all of perfect if somewhat chilling courtesy.

Conquered. "No," snapped the hard featured woman, opening the kitchen door about six inches, "and, to be perfectly plain with you—"

Didn't Tire Him. He had taken pains when he applied for work to assure the farmer that he never got tired.

Liquid Ones. They were waiting for dinner, and the virtuoso, who was to play afterward at the musicale, was willing away the time at the piano.

A Happy Ending. "Has your new novel a happy ending?" "Very." The judge awards my hero a $50,000 a year alimony in the closing chapter.—Detroit Free Press.

Sins of Omission. Tommy—Pop, what are the sins of omission? Tommy's Pop—The sins of omission, my son, are those we forget to commit.—Philadelphia Record.

The more one judges the less one sees.—Baltic.

His Tribute to His Wife. The following obituary notice was published in a German paper: "Today red, tomorrow dead. So it was with my wife, who only seven days ago was springing over bush and table, and was buried yesterday."

Not the Silent Partner. "I want to telegraph $25 to Chicago," said a man to the clerk in a Boston telegraph office recently. "The name, please," asked the receiving teller, a good looking young woman behind the counter, whose age might have been twenty-five.

The Giraffe as it Feeds. The singular shape of the giraffe is adapted to its habits of life. It feeds on the young branches and top shoots of the trees, and its long fore legs and neck enable it to browse at a far greater height than any other animal.

Splinters in the Fingers. When you get a splinter in your finger it is sometimes possible to get it by pressing the point of a needle under it, but unless you have left fingers or a pair of tweezers you may not be able to pull it out even then.

Love and the Drama. A periodical devoted to the drama pleads for plays based on some emotion other than love. The difficulty in producing such plays is that every play must have a hero, and in making a hero the playwright as well as his audience almost inevitably adopts the view expressed 2,000 years ago by a scribbler on one of the dead walls of Pompeii.

Lucky Bessie. Having need of some small change, the mistress of the house stepped to the top of the back stairs. "Bessie," she called to the maid below, "have you any coppers down there?"

Of No Utility. Regardless of the fact that an editor almost always has on his trousers, some people can't get over the idea that a pen-knife is a nice present for him.—Ohio State Journal.

In Luck. Caller—How much for a marriage license? Town Clerk—One dollar. Caller—I've only got 50 cents. Town Clerk—You're lucky.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Helping Hand. Visitor—Are your children doing anything for you in this year last illness? Old Man—Yes; they're keeping up my life insurance.—Puck.

Thought Concentration. Professor Elmer Gates performs a very interesting experiment by immersing his hands and arms to the elbows in separate vessels filled with water just to the point of overflowing. By withdrawing his thought absolutely from one hand and concentrating it on the other he so expands the blood vessels in the latter by sending an extra supply of blood to it that the water in the vessel in which it is overflowing quite perceptibly.

Jamaica's Booby Eggs. Trade in booby eggs is one of the sights of Kingston, Jamaica. Long ago the British seamen gave the name "booby" to several of the species of gannets, because these fowls are regarded as stupid.

The Part of Wisdom. Everybody in Middle Bay knew that Mrs. Captain Liscomb was talking about making a visit to her married daughter in Cincinnati. She had been talking about it for two years, but age and the natural timidity of a woman unused to travel had postponed the great event from month to month until the neighbors began to wonder whether it would ever come to pass.

Bulldogging a Steer. Perhaps there is no contest that is a greater tax on human endurance than that demanded by "bulldogging" a steer, and the "bulldogger" must go it alone. The pony is as great a factor as the man, for when once the lasso rests over the horns of the range animal all depends on the rapid way in which the mustang wheels so that the trailing rope will trip the steer.

Begging the Question. The phrase "begging the question," or in Latin "petitio principii," signifies the treating of a proposition as a fully demonstrated fact when it is actually only a premise or statement brought forward and not yet proved.

Foiled. "A man tried to pick my pockets in the street yesterday, but my wife prevented him." "Did she grapple with him or just scream?" "Neither. She wasn't there." "Then how could she prevent him?" "She had been through my pockets first."

A Help to Promptness. ANXIOUS VOICE Over the Phone—Doctor, please hurry over to our house. One of the family has suddenly been stricken with a fainting fit. Is there anything you want ready when you get here, so that there will be no time lost? Doctor—Yes—er—your may have my fee ready.—Lippincott's.

Easy Enough. "Maw, I've come across a word that I can't pronounce." "Spell it, dear." "G. e. o. m. o. r. p. h. y."

Bungled It. Old Maid—You eat very little. Mr. Smith (flattered and wishing to be complimentary)—Ah, to sit next you is to lose one's appetite.—London Watch Dog.

BITULITHIC IN 1912 INCREASES. Development of Improved Paving Industry Revealed in Year's Figures. There had been adopted in the year 1901, only 16,400 yards of Bitulithic pavement and only seven cities in the United States recommended its use at that time. In the year following the demand had shown a great increase and in 1911 there were 90 cities whose record showed laid, and under contract, over 4,000,000 yards of Bitulithic pavement. The year 1912 shows an increase of 48 per cent over the year 1911.
