

TILLAMOOK JOTTINGS

The Killkare Klub met on the 30th u. l. with Mrs. D. L. Strode, when the usual routine of business was observed. All especially enjoyed the study hour which proved more interesting than formerly. Refreshments were served after which the Klub adjourned to meet with Mrs. F. D. Small in two weeks.

It is reported that there will be a change in the P. R. & N's. time schedule within a few weeks, when a saving of about two hours will be made on the run between this city and Portland. The incoming and the outgoing trains will leave at 8 a. m. The train will arrive in this city about two o'clock. The new time card will be issued about the 24th.

P. J. Worrall, of Kansas City, came in from Portland on Saturday with F. R. Beals, who has the new hotel proposition in hand. Mr. Worrall will invest $17,000 in the hotel and $16,000 has been subscribed besides, making $33,000. A company will be incorporated as soon as possible, and Mr. Worrall will manage the hotel. He left for Portland on Monday and Mr. Beals this morning to make final arrangements.

Some surprise was caused in this city on Wednesday morning when it became known that the Warren Construction Company, which has the contract for the hard surface pavement, was making preparations to use the rock at the Red Clover factory. The county undertook to use this rock on roads, and established a crusher there, but had to discontinue using it on account of its poor quality. Road Supervisor Alderman says it is no good for roads, as it pulverizes and blows away, and as an illustration of this he has a piece of road at the Holden place.

The deep sea fishing excursion in the Henrietta on Thursday, when about thirty passengers were on board including three veterans of the Civil War, proved an interesting affair in the way of Decoration Day. The three veterans were C. N. Drew, George Wilt and Con Desmond. Flowers had been taken along and during the afternoon these were strewn on the water's in memory of those who had lost their lives at sea. An enormous quantity of deep sea fish were caught, some of the fish being so large that it caused some difficulty in getting them on board on account of their weight.

George Hyland, one of the silver-tongued orators who accompanied the Portland business men to this city, and who gave an eloquent address at the Club rooms, was in the city again on Saturday. He was on his way to Bayocean when the Reception Committee obtained some idea from him as to the second business men's trip to this county. Mr. Hyland informed the committee that the party would be a more representative and influential lot of business men than the first. The Reception Committee, as the Portlanders were desirous of visiting this city, extended an invitation through Mr. Hyland to do so.

The County Court has purchased a new Avery 45-horse power truck for gravel and road hauling on the county roads. It was expected to try out the new machine down on the Willamette river today, and later a bunker will probably be erected for loading. The new truck cost $4,700. It will haul 3 1/2 to 4 yards of gravel, more than twice as much yardage as the ordinary rock wagon, and will transport it three times as fast as it could be done with a team. The purchase will mean faster improvement of the roads at much less cost, and the county court is of the opinion that it will be only a short time before the road work in hauling will mostly be done by means of these auto trucks.—Telephone-Register.

While bound down the Columbia river Monday night from Portland for Bandon and other Coast ports, the gasoline schooner Tillamook, Captain Antenson, of the Elmore fleet, was struck by a rock borne in tow of the tug Samson, and damaged so seriously that her voyage was abandoned. The Tillamook left Portland Monday and the accident occurred at 10:45 p. m. the west part between Waterford and Westport light. The bulwarks and superstructure was seriously damaged but the vessel was not injured below the water line to an extent that prevented her continuing to Astoria. Fortunately, the damage to the schooner was all above the guard and her hull is uninjured, but it is estimated the repairs will entail an expenditure of nearly $5000.

Hans Remer, a boy 14 years of age, left his home on Wednesday afternoon, and his whereabouts are unknown. He had some trouble at school. His parents are anxious to know where the boy has gone and anyone who can give information to them should do so. A reward is offered.

There was a good attendance at the mid day lunch of the Tillamook Commercial Club on Wednesday. Carl Knudson spoke in behalf of a Carnegie library, and Everett Payne gave his impressions of Tillamook City as a splendid place for investments. L. Samuel, of the Oregon Life, was a visitor to the club and his remarks were somewhat devoted to beautifying the city with flowers, and he suggested the dahlia as being an appropriate flower for Tillamook to cultivate. He also stated that his company had placed Tillamook City on its list as a most desirable place to loan money for either street, sewer, school or other bonds. Agent Gaylord made the announcement that a special train would leave Portland every Saturday at noon and would return Sunday evenings.

Base Ball on Sunday.

Controversy Must Cease.

The controversy between James Walton and the directors of the school board must cease as far as the Headlight is concerned, since it has assumed a personal fight between Mr. Walton and Attorney H. T. Botts. There is little or no interest taken in the matter as far as the patrons of the school are concerned, but when a controversy cannot be carried on in a gentlemanly manner and without insinuations of "lies," etc., it is time to shut down on it in the newspapers. However, because there appears to be some "bad blood" between these gentlemen, it is no place to air this through the Press.—Ed.

The most that Gov. Woodrow Wilson can expect to get out of it will be a sort of traveling scholarship in politics.

DEATHS OF GEO. TRASK AND MRS. W. N. VAUGHN.

Brother and Sister Pass Away Within 21 Hours--Both Early Settlers of Tillamook.

We have to announce the deaths this week of two of the early settlers of Tillamook County—George Trask and Mrs. W. N. Vaughn, brother and sister—which occurred within 21 hours of one another. The death of George Trask took place Wednesday morning at 2 a. m., at the home of Mrs. Martiny and that of Mrs. Vaughn on Wednesday night at 11 p. m. at the home of William Bodyfelt, after being there on a three weeks' visit.

George Trask was born at Clatsop Plains, Oregon, on June 12th, 1851, and came to Tillamook with his family. He moved to Southern Oregon, near Myrtle Creek, where he married and had a wife and four children living, whom he left about 20 years ago, when he returned to Tillamook. He has been in poor health for years, but it is only the past three weeks that he became worse. The services will be held at the Grange Hall, this (Thursday) afternoon, and the interment in the Bay View Cemetery.

Mrs. W. N. Vaughn was also born at Clatsop Plains, Ore., and came to Tillamook County when she was 10 years of age with her parents, and lived on a donation claim. At the age of 15 years she was married to W. N. Vaughn, and raised 16 children, all of whom grew to manhood and womanhood. She resided at Bay View with her husband until his death, which occurred on April 28, 1907, and since then with Amos Vaughn, on the home place, that being her home since she was married. Her remains will be buried on Saturday at the Bay View cemetery, the funeral leaving this city at 11 a. m., and the service will be conducted by Rev. D. L. Shroder.

Mr. Vaughn married Harriet Trask, who was born on the Clatsop plains, Clatsop county, December 22, 1843, being the first child born of white parents in that locality. Her father, Elbridge Trask, was born in Maine, and came to the coast with the American Fur Company about 1840. He subsequently settled in Tillamook county, spending his last years here. He was a man of prominence, and the Trask river was named in his honor. Of the union of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn sixteen children, five sons and ten daughters, were born, twelve of whom are living, namely: Mrs. Ida Martiny, Delia Vaughn, dead; Mrs. Alice Woodward, Mrs. Nora Bodyfelt, Tillamook; Mrs. Anna Jacoby, Bay City; Mrs. Clara Carey, La Follett; Mrs. D. Vaughn, and Guy Vaughn, Kelch; William and Harriet Page, both dead; George V. Vaughn, Bay City; Mrs. Lena Goodspeed, Fairview; and Mrs. Myrtle Holden, Fairview.

TILLAMOOK DEFEATS CORNELIUS

Tillamook baseball fans enjoyed one of the best games of base ball last Sunday at the Stillwell Park that was ever played in Tillamook. Luck seemed to be against the home team during the first part of the game and by the end of the seventh inning, when the score read eight to two for Cornelius, nearly half of the fans had left the grandstand in disgust. Tillamook made one run in the second and another in the sixth, but the visitors had made two in the third and five in the sixth when every one went up in the air.

Again in the seventh Hanley's bunch tried in vain to cross the plate, but to no avail, while another error registered the visitors their eighth score. Things looked different in the eighth. Tillamook had registered three runs. At this juncture the fans began to realize that the game was neither lost nor won and that the ninth would tell the story. Some who had started away turned back and were glad they did for the Club boys made such a rally as Tillamook fans had never before seen on their home diamond.

Every one made first but Anderson who fanned a couple of safe hits bringing in the winning tally with one out and two men on bases. Kin, the High Schoy pitcher, who caught a hard fly close to the ground, turned a double somersault and held the ball, was easily the star of the game. The batteries were: Cornelius, Nellis, Berhman; Tillamook, Parker, Armburman.

TILLAMOOK HIGH SCHOOL CLOSES

Eleven Promising Citizens Graduate.

The days of the present school year will come to a close on Friday evening when the Senior Class of 1912 will make its way to the platform of the Presbyterian church for Commencement exercises. Eleven graduates are expected to finish their High School work this year and it will undoubtedly be not only the largest class which has ever graduated from the school, but also the best looking class. The past month has been a busy one for all the students in the school, but more especially for the members of the Senior class, who have had not only the usual receptions but also one extra.

First the faculty entertained the class about a month ago at the home of Prof. L. L. Baker. This was one of the nicest affairs of the season and it was the first, the class had a most enjoyable time. Then came the reception at the home of W. E. Noyes on Trask River. This time the class was entertained by Miss Edna Noyes, who was at one time a member of the class, but who had to leave school on account of poor health. A most enjoyable time was spent at this home, and after the lunch of ice cream, cake and fruits, the impression that their is no place like the farm for a good time.

But Friday, May 31st was the day of the biggest and best entertainment, the senior reception by the Junior class at the Commercial Club rooms. This affair was the grand climax and put the class in prime condition for Sunday, when they were to attend Baccalaureate services at the Presbyterian church. Jope talked his best, but the senior class left the sanctuary with the impression that it was the best sermon that they had ever heard.

This week has been spent in exams, and the plans on that Friday night will be the biggest night that the High School has ever seen. The senior class as they graduate from the High School will try to live up to their motto: "To be doers, not dreamers."

The graduating exercises will take place Friday evening at the Presbyterian Church. The graduates are: Eva Wheeler, Ruth Holmes, Barbara Hathaway, Daisy Goodspeed, William Anderson, Horace Sappington, Floyd Eberman, Reed Bain, E. E. Ginn and Myron Blanchard. The valedictory address will be made by Myron Blanchard and the class will be addressed by Deputy State Superintendent C. E. Carlson and the presentation of diplomas by School Director H. T. Botts. Following is the program:

ANOTHER EXCURSION TO TILLAMOOK JUNE 25-27.

From Oregonian: Respective to the enthusiasm attending the recent successful excursion of Portland business men to Tillamook and surrounding country, a second excursion is planned for June 25-27 inclusive. The proposed pilgrimage will be in the nature of a beach excursion and will lack some of the industrial features that marked the first excursion. The party will be limited to 75, including women, railroad officials and newspaper men.

A special train of best available equipment will be provided, and it is estimated that the expense of the trip will be about $20 a person. Those whose names were on the "waiting" list of the first excursion will be the first to be accommodated. Reservations should be made through the publicity department of the Portland Commercial Club. Each reservation must be accompanied by the requisite $20.

Leaving Portland at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, June 25, the train will proceed direct to Garibaldi Beach, arriving at 2:30 P. M. The only stops en route will be made at scenic points. After witnessing a drill by the life-saving crew at Garibaldi Beach, the excursionists will be taken to Bayocean launches.

Early Wednesday morning, the excursionists will leave Bayocean in launches for Tillamook, spending the forenoon in an inspection of the dairy country and cheese factories surrounding that city. At noon a formal lunch will be served at the Tillamook Commercial Club. In the early afternoon, the party will return to Garibaldi and be treated to a trip over the bar with some deep-sea fishing on the yacht Bayocean. Wednesday night a banquet will be served at Bayocean.

Thursday morning, at an early hour, the excursionist will leave Bayocean for Wheeler, whence they will be conveyed in launches to Nehalem. Thence in vehicles they will be driven to the homes of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Reed at Neakahnne Beach, where they will partake of a picnic lunch. After making the ascent of the Neakahnne Mountain in the afternoon, the excursionists at 5 P. M. will return to their train and start for Portland, arriving in this city at 10:00 o'clock Thursday night.

Each age of our lives has its joys. Old people should be happy, and they will be if Chamberlain's Tablets are taken to strengthen the digestion and keep the bowels regular. These tablets are mild and gentle in their action and especially suitable for people of middle age and older. For sale by all dealers.

Gov. Woodrow Wilson is making no speeches in his own state. If this silence be madness yet there's method in it.

Postmaster General Hitchcock asserts again that revised parcel post regulations will facilitate mail administration, increase postal revenue, stimulate general trade and pave the way for other postal reforms. These results look good to the great army of consumers.

Senator Stone professes to be surprised at the quarrel between the several actions of the Republican party. If the senator will wait until the date of the Baltimore convention he may find something to worry about that will really be worth while.
