School Notes.

On Monday the girls held a meeting and organized a Girls' Athletic Association, and elected the following officers: Estella Goyno, president; Flora Phillips, vice-president; Harriet Gaylord, sec.; and Pauline Beals, treasurer. They have secured the portion of the old school building that was the assembly room in which they intend to install a basket-ball court. It is hoped by the rest of the school that they will be successful in their new enterprise.

The boys have been intending to act similarly, but on account of football practice and "troubles" they have neglected basket ball, and let the girls get ahead of them, but nevertheless—"watch the boys play basket ball this winter."

Mrs. A. C. Hall, of San Francisco, has arrived and taken charge of the Commercial course and physical geography.

Professor Baker announced Wednesday morning that societies would be reorganized, and probably the first program will be given about October 18th. Although it has not been decided exactly how they will be organized, it is very probable that the old names, "Ciceronians" and "Emersonians" will be taken, and the old members remain in the same society that they were in before. A new constitution will probably be drawn up.

On Thursday morning school took up at 8:30 so as to let the football team out at about 3:00 p.m. for the purpose of getting more time for practicing. This plan was tried last spring for the benefit of the baseball team, and it proved to be a very good system.

It is hoped that the number of tardinesses will not be increased, for if it is the old system of 9:00 to 3:40 will have to be resumed.

The football team is practicing diligently and seems determined to be in good condition for any games. Oscar Aachim has come back to school, which will add a good amount of weight to the team. A game will probably be arranged between the High School team and a Tillamook team to be played on Election Day, and an effort is being made to secure a game with some outside school team to be played here on Thanksgiving Day.

The Seniors held a meeting Wednesday noon and decided to give a shadow social in about a week for the purpose of raising a little money to pay a small debt incurred last year. It is also expected that the Boys' Athletic Association will give some kind of an entertainment on Halloween night to secure money, as they owe quite a sum for last year's baseball career. If the school could have proper support these socials and entertainments would be unnecessary.

The enrollment of the entire school grammar, intermediate and primary grades included up to Friday, October 4th, is 327. Last year at the end of the third week the entire enrollment was about 300, making this year's membership a ten per cent gain over last year's. The per cent of attendance is very good, being 98.8 for the first two weeks.

Phares M. Stiverson, of Cloverdale, has enrolled in the Sophomore class.

A slight mistake was made in the report of the Junior meeting that appeared in last week's "notes." The reason for the mistake was that the reporter consulted Perry De Lille, and he having been elected as Sergeant at Arms, was either ashamed or too bashful to say so. The officers elected were: Estella Goyno, president; Nellie Blanchard, vice-president; Irma Doerge, secretary; Leslie Harrison, treasurer; and Perry De Lille, sergeant-at-arms.

Uncle Sam's latest draught the Wyoming, is ready for active service. The Democratic Congress that is willing to provide but one battleship a year ends next March and is not likely to be duplicated.

Celebrations of the fiftieth anniversary of president Lincoln's emancipation proclamation are a reminder that the Republican party was progressive at the start and destined never to be anything else.

Democratic policies are not new, says Prof. Wilson. The country knows it well and has rejected them for sixteen years. The last time they were tried the people paid an enormous penalty for the mistake.

Congressman Longworth says that he will support the Republican ticket as always, but wants it understood that as a Republican he is progressive. Why, of course. The whole story of Republicanism is one of progress guided by common sense and courage.

A Democratic paper remarks that thus far the Republicans have not claimed all the credit of the bumper crops. Good times help to make cheerful, enterprising farmers. Good government creates good times. There is considerable to be said about the Republican party in connection with bumper crops.

In an interview for the New York Evening World President Taft warned the public that the Roosevelt plan of federal incorporation and control of the trusts would result in the most monstrous monopoly of power which, in the grasp of an unscrupulous man, could be used to perpetuate his authority and make him a dictator. In a statement issued by Chairman Hilles the same day the president is said to be sure of his re-election, although he admits that the Republicans will have a reduced majority.

Farmers in this county are divided into two distinct classes—the prosperous and the unprosperous. The prosperous farmer never depends upon one crop to bring him a revenue, but plants a variety. He also has good live stock and he grows every vegetable and all the fruit his family consumes and raises his own chickens. The unprosperous farmer plants only one thing and depends absolutely upon that to furnish him with money to pay his expenses. He never thinks of such a thing as wasting his time on a garden. Chickens are too great a nuisance and hogs too much trouble for him to raise. He is constantly crying "hard times" and complaining that "Luck" is against him.

TELEPHONING TO THE COUNTRY

THE City and the Country are bound together by the telephone line.

The farmer and his family use the rural telephone constantly, calling up each other and the market town on all sorts of matters and for all sorts of supplies and information.

City people also find the rural telephone of great advantage. A traveler from his room in the hotel talks with farm folk miles away. Without the telephone he could not reach them.

The farmer himself may travel far and still talk home over the Long Distance Line of the Bell System.

Carl C. Kratzstein, Mgr. J. G. Tanner Drug Store, Santa Cruz, Calif., writes: "We have sold Foley & Company's medicines for the past 20 years and have yet to hear our first complaint, or of a dissatisfied customer. Their remedies are pure, made as represented, and contain no injurious substances. On the contrary, our experience shows us that the Company's aim has always been to make health giving and health maintaining remedies."

John Health, Michigan Bar, Calif., writes: "I was afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for nearly 20 years. Had a very bad spell some time ago and was unable to work without help. I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once. I take pleasure in recommending Foley Kidney Pills."—At Lamar's Drug Store.

Mrs. I. C. Hastler, Grand Island, Neb., had something she wishes to say about Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. "My three children had a very severe attack of whooping cough and suffered greatly. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and I did them more good than anything I gave them. I am glad to recommend it."—At Lamar's Drug Store.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup here is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.
