BILLY STEPHENS,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER, COR. 1st and 1st AVENUE E

If you drink because of a craving for stimulants--if you've reached the stage where nothing will satisfy excepting rough, high-proof, strong whiskey--our story is not for you. But if it's mellowness, age and flavor you're looking for--you'll like Cyrus Noble.

Because it's pure--because it's palatable--because you don't have to dilute it with water to be able to swallow it. It costs no more than any other good whiskey.

High School Notes.

The shadow social given by the Senior Class in the old school building on the evening of Friday, October 23, was well attended, considering the fact that the weather was very bad. The upper classmen proved to be very able entertainers, having a few new and interesting games before the shadows were auctioned off to the boys by Professor Baker, who also acted as chaperon during the evening. A limit of one dollar was set upon the baskets, so that no purses were drained very heavily, but each shadow was bid upon to its limit, and enough money was taken in to pay all debts.

The number of candidates for the football team is increasing rapidly, and from all appearances it will be quite a problem to decide who will make good and play in the game with Hillsboro, one of which will be at Tillamook on November 2nd and another at Hillsboro on Thanksgiving Day. This trip to Hillsboro will be an enjoyable one and each boy of course will be anxious to go. But of course, Leslie Harrison will be more anxious to return to Tillamook to a certain little maid whom he holds in very high esteem.

Owing to the large number of tardinesses which have occurred since school has convened at 8:30 in the morning the old system of starting school at 9:00 has been resumed. This will work quite a hardship on the football squad as some of the members can only practice a few minutes each evening after school on account of evening work. This lack of practice could have been avoided, probably if it had not been that several of the football boys were among those tardy.

Some hostility is being aroused among the athletes and other loyal spirited students because of the fact that several of the students are wearing T.H.S. monograms and class symbols upon their sweaters without having earned them. This would lead those who see these letters upon the sweaters of the students, and do not understand the circumstances, would infer that these students are the ones who make things lively about school. Of course it is well that these people have enough High School spirit to let it be known that they are T.H.S. students, but nevertheless they should at least get permission to wear letters from those who have earned them. Some of the athletes are rather indignant over the matter, and have almost decided to make a raid on the unjustly decorated sweaters and remove the letters. This would probably not be advisable, as it would beyond a doubt cause a division in the school, which would be very disagreeable as it was last year, when the students divided because of various reasons. It is hoped that this will end disastrously.

The Ciceronian Literary Society will give their first program which is the first program of the year, on Friday, October 26th. There are about fifteen members on the program, and undoubtedly will be very interesting. Mr. Alfred Boquist, C.L.S. President, is doing his best work to have every part as near perfect as possible. A prize will be given the winning society at the end of the year.

On last Sunday several students were found in the old school house having a good time in general. No names will be mentioned, as the guilty ones seem to repent the act. Preparations are being made for a play to be given by the Athletic Association, on Thursday night, October 31st, in the High School Auditorium. It will be a comedy in four acts, entitled "Uncle Rube." It is filled with a good laugh from start to finish. Good musical members will be given between acts, therefore, no long delays.

A practice game of football will probably be played on Saturday, October 26th, between the High School teams, at Stillwell Park for the benefit of determining those who are most capable of filling a position during the games with Hillsboro High School.

VOTE FOR HIM. Mrs. I. C. Hastler, Grand Island Nebr., had something she wishes to say about Foley's Honey and Tar compound. I am glad to recommend it."—At Lamar's Drug Store.

WHY

Congressman W. C. Hawley Should be Re-elected to Congress.

Because Mr. Hawley has had "No interests to serve but the Public Interests."

Because in point of ability, experience any qualifications for the position of congressman no opposing candidate can compare favorably with Mr. Hawley.

Because to large abilities and efficiency is added Mr. Hawley's reputation for honesty, moral manhood and a character without blemish.

Because he was born in Oregon, knows her needs and has secured millions of dollars for public improvements in the First District.

Because he does not spend recesses between sessions of Congress in idleness but travels thousands of miles annually over his district conferring with his constituents and learning their needs and opinions that he may the better serve and represent them.

Because it has been proven that Mr. Hawley is able, efficient and successful and has large plans for the people which he can complete in another term.

Because he has reached an influential position in Congress after years of hard work on the committees on Agriculture and Labor and his future labors would bring greater results for Oregon than any new man could hope to secure until after several terms in Congress.

Because without distinction of party affiliation, wealth or position, Mr. Hawley has served all the people to the full extent of his abilities.

Because as a public servant he has so labored for progressive legislation beneficial to the people, the State and Nation that Presidents Taft and Roosevelt, his associates in the House, and his constituents generally have praised Mr. Hawley in terms similar to those of Governor West who made the following statement after a visit to the National Capitol:—"In intellect, oratorical ability and devotion to the interests of the people, Hawley stands head and shoulders above the great majority of the members of the National House of Representatives."

Millage Tax Bill Repeals Legislative Appropriations.

The Argument printed in the Voters Pamphlet over the signature of H. J. Parkinson and others attacking the Millage Bill for the support of the Agricultural College and the University of Oregon, contains a mis-statement of facts so vital as to demand immediate correction. Although the Millage Bill clearly and specifically repeals the appropriations aggregating $503,000 made by the last Legislature, for buildings, equipment, etc. at the University, it is asserted in the argument against the Bill that "friends of the University are trying to kill the referendum on the $503,000 appropriated by the 1911 Legislature for the University of Oregon. If they succeed, the tax payers will have over $1,282,000 to dig up for the schools in 1913."

No effort is being made to secure the passage of these referred Bills, and even should they receive a favorable vote they would be automatically repealed by the passage of the Millage Bill so there can be no double appropriation. Investigation shows that instead of increasing the rate the Millage Bill actually effects a saving on the average appropriations for the last ten years. This bill, being a measure regulating taxation, must of necessity be submitted under the initiative. Yours truly, W. K. NEWELL, Chairman of Commission Appointed by the Governor.

REMEMBER. South Bend (Ind.) Tribune.

WOODROW WILSON, Democratic Candidate for President.

being summoned before the bar of the American people as a witness for and in behalf of the Republican party, was examined and testified as follows:

Question: Did you or did you not, in your History of the American People, refer to the years 1893 to 1896, when the Democratic party was in power, as "THOSE FATAL YEARS OF DEPRESSION?"

Answer: I did.

Question: Did you or did you not describe the terrible conditions in those years in the following language, upon pages 235 and 236 of Volume 5: "A great poverty and depression had come upon the western mining regions and upon the agricultural regions of the west and south," and "Men of the poorer sort were idle everywhere and filled with a sort of despair. All of the larger cities and manufacturing towns teemed with unemployed workmen, who were WITH THE MOST DIFFICULTY KEPT FROM STARVATION by the systematic efforts of organized charity?"

Answer: I did.

Question: Did you or did you not, after describing this distress in detail and relating that millions of American gold went across the sea to pay foreign creditors, use these words, on page 263: "NOT UNTIL THE YEAR 1897, WHEN THE REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION CAME IN, DID THE CRISIS SEEM TO BE PAST?"

Answer: I did.

The Republican party asks no better witness against a change from sixteen years of Republican prosperity to four years more of Democratic distress than Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic candidate for president.

MUST VOTE FOR TAFT

Roosevelt, Who Cannot Be Elected Says That Wilson's Election Means Nation-Wide Disaster.

Col. Roosevelt, the Third Term candidate, cannot possibly be elected. There is no way in which he can carry enough states to give him 266 electoral votes.

But by dividing the Republican party, Col. Roosevelt can aid in electing Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic candidate. Should Wilson be elected? Roosevelt says that Wilson's election would plunge this country into nation-wide disaster. Here are Roosevelt's own words written in the Outlook of July, 27, 1912:

"If Dr. Wilson were elected, he would either have to repudiate the promises made about the tariff in the Democratic platform or else bring every industry in the country to a crash which would make all panics in our past history seem like child's play in comparison. In short, were Dr. Wilson elected on this platform, he would be obliged at the very outset of his administration to face the alternatives of dishonesty or disaster, the alternatives of refusing to carry out the expressed pledges of the platform, or else of causing such disaster to every worker in the country as would mean nation-wide ruin."

As Roosevelt cannot be elected, and as Roosevelt says that Wilson's election would mean disaster it is a logical conclusion that the vote of the country must be given to President Taft.

TALKING ABOUT STRAWS.

The Billings (Mont.) Daily Gazette, which has been a strong Roosevelt paper until recently, has come over to Taft, the editor giving his reasons for the change in a double-column article, declaring that he sees no hope for the success of the Third Term party, and is convinced that the cause of real reform can be best promoted by continuing the Republican party in power. The article particularly emphasizes the danger of bringing about adverse business conditions through a change in administration, and points out the steady advance which has been made under Republican policies. It is a most significant editorial, and as the Gazette is the most important paper in Montana, its influence upon the election can hardly be measured. It is only another one of the innumerable signs that the Third Term party has collapsed, that the country realizes the fight is between the Republican party and the Democratic party, and that no possible benefit could be derived from a change.

HADLEY IS FOR TAFT

Roosevelt's Former Manager Comes Out Square for the President.

Gov. Hadley, of Missouri, who was one of Roosevelt's managers at the Republican national convention, and who had charge of the contest made by Roosevelt delegates, has declined to follow the Third Term candidate out of the Republican party, and has declared that he will support President Taft. In a speech at Jefferson City, Mo., he said:

"I hope that these many high-minded but, I believe, mistaken men, who have thought there was a greater interest to be subserved by joining in the organization of the new party and the nomination of another State elector, will yet see that by such acts they are simply doing that which tends to insure Democratic success. And I hope that they will come back to the party which has stood for decency; that has stood for sane and effective progress in the conduct of public affairs."

After appealing to Republicans to support the Republican nominee, Gov. Hadley pointed out in his speech that the Democrats were pledged to the same kind of tariff legislation as they gave to the country after the Democratic victory of 1892. He said that no Republican could associate himself with those whose efforts tend to insure Democratic success.

FORAKER SUPPORTS TAFT

Says All Other Candidates Seek to Destroy Republican Party.

By his physician's orders, former Senator Foraker has been compelled to decline the invitation to make speeches this campaign. Of course, as a loyal Republican, he is supporting Taft. For quite a while the former senator was in Maine for his health, and while there he was a keen observer of the political situation. He declares that the result in Maine was emphatically a victory for the policy of protection. Upon his return home he gave a highly interesting statement to the Cincinnati "Commercial Tribune," from which the following is excerpted:

"It is the duty of every Republican who wants to support the Republican party and Republican principles to remember that there is no way to support the party and its principles except by supporting President Taft. "Nobody else pretends to represent the Republican party. Every other candidate for the presidency is the open and avowed enemy of the Republican party. All alike are seeking the defeat and destruction."
