

Advantages of a Checking Account

III. Acquaintance at Bank.

Not the least of the advantages of having a checking account at this bank is the acquaintance which it promotes between the depositor and our officers.

This acquaintance enables our officers to get in touch with the interests of the depositor, and to lend all the co-operation consistent with conservative banking.

Our officers gladly welcome the opportunity to extend the facilities of the bank to new depositors.

At a meeting of the City Council on Tuesday the following business was transacted: Rejected an ordinance increasing the number of saloons; adopted a resolution as to the cost of the sewer system and paving; passed an ordinance prohibiting minors frequenting saloons; reduced the license of picture shows from $80 to $50; and renewed the license of the five saloon keepers. The city council also appropriated $100 towards the Stillwell Park. A number of citizens were present on account of the street and sewer assessments, but as a slight error had crept into the notice, this matter had to be done over and the 30th the date set to hear objections.

We are sorry to announce the death of George Eichinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eichinger, which occurred on Sunday morning at their residence. It was only a few weeks since that he made a trip to California and other places for the benefit of his health, as he was troubled with tuberculosis. He became worse while at Spokane and his father went there and brought him home last week. The funeral took place on Monday, the religious services being conducted by the Rev. H. W. Kuhlman, at the M.E. Church, and the interment was in the Oddfellows cemetery. Deceased was born at Norway, Kan., on the 2nd October, 1883, and was aged 29 years, 2 months and 13 days at the First National Bank, Tillamook, Oregon.
