Money Offered for Loans and Investment in City Property.

Am making arrangements with the Western Loans and Savings Company, of Salt Lake City, Utah, who have been doing business in Washington and Oregon for some years and is one of the concerns doing business that is highly spoken of by C. A. Babcock, of the Comptroller's Department. Read the following letter:

Office of Secretary of State, Salem, March 14, 1912.

Mr. P. W. Madden, President, Western Loans & Savings Co., Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Sir: Recently this department gave out a statement defining the public to use care in buying the investment contracts of building and loan associations operating in Oregon. The statement mentioned the fact that there are only four corporations of this character authorized to transact a state-wide savings and loan business in Oregon. A great many requests for the names of the four corporations immediately followed the publication of this statement, and in reply to all such inquiries I have mentioned the fact that the Western Loans and Savings Company have complied with all the laws of this state governing the building and loan business.

Your company has been operating in Oregon for a number of years, and during my connection with this office I do not recollect that there ever has been any complaint regarding the manner in which the company treats its stockholders.

This, I think, speaks well for your company.

With best wishes I am, Respectfully,

C. D. BABCOCK, Corporation.

Burge-Tinnerstet.

A pretty Christmas wedding took place on Christmas night at seven o'clock, when Miss Clara Alice Tinnerstet was given in marriage to Mr. Gordon E. Burge, both of Tillamook City. Little Miss Gladys Haberlach followed with the ring in a cut glass dish. Mrs. E. W. Christensen played the wedding march.

The bride looked pretty in a satin messaline dress, with overdress of beaded chiffon, trimmed with pearl trimmings.

After the wedding ceremony the happy young people received the congratulations of all present, and received many pretty and useful wedding presents. Then all repaired to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Carl Haberlach, where a bounteous wedding dinner was served.

The groom is the son of deceased Mrs. Geo. W. Burge, now of Tillamook, but formerly of Nelpyaka. He is at present the cheese maker and manager of the Long Prairie Creamery. The bride has resided in Tillamook for some years and is at present engaged in teaching the primary pupils in the Tillamook City schools.
