The Blasphemous Catechism.

The Socialist Sunday School as it exists in England and America is a deliberate, coldly planned, cleverly conceived device to capture the young and mould their minds for the doctrines of spoliation, irreligion and social anarchy.

Antagonistic to Christian principles, as are all of the text books used by Socialists in their educational work among children, none can approach in blasphemy and violence "The Little Catechism" published by Geringer of Chicago.

First published expressly for the American Bohemian socialistic and anarchistic schools, it now has a wide circulation in the homes of all classes of socialists, American as well as foreign born, having been translated into English and other languages for that purpose.

The questions and answers reproduced here represent but a small portion of the book, much of the matter being too vile to reprint.

What is offered the reader demonstrates how the socialists are moulding the minds of the young.

By means of cunning misrepresentation and perversion of facts children are made to take a wrong outlook upon life. Says the London Standard: "Their mental balance is upset; they are incited to rebel against sanctified wrongs and to develop a feeling of bitter hatred against fellow citizens from whom they have suffered no harm."

"In this way, by sowing the poisonous seed of prejudice and class hatred in the virgin soil of youthful minds, it is hoped later on to reap the harvest of the revolution. In other words, the socialist Sunday School as it exists in England and America is a deliberate, coldly planned, cleverly conceived device to capture the young for the doctrines of spoliation and social anarchy."

The catechism of blasphemy follows:

Question. What is God?

Answer. God is a word used to designate an imaginary being which people of themselves have devised.

Q. Is it true that God has never been revealed?

A. As there is no God he could not reveal himself.

Q. What is heaven?

A. Heaven is an imaginary place which churches have devised as a charn to entice their believers.

Q. How did man originate?

A. Just as did all animals; by evolution from their lower kind.

Q. Has man an immortal soul as Christianity teaches?

A. Man has no soul; it is only an imagination.

Q. Who is Jesus Christ?

A. Jesus Christ was the son of a Jewish girl called Mary.

Q. Is he the Son of God?

A. There is no God and there fore there can be no God's son.

Q. What do we know of the birth of Christ?

A. The answer is so foul we will not print it.

Q. Did Christ rise from the dead as Christianity teaches?

A. The report about Christ rising from the dead is a fable.

Q. Is it true that after Christ's death the apostles received the Holy Ghost?

A. It is not; the apostles had imbibed too freely of wine, and their dazed heads imagined all sorts of queer things.

Q. Did Christ ascend into heaven?

A. He did not; what the church teaches is a nonsensical fable, because there is no heaven, and there can be no place to ascend to.

Q. Will Christ come again to the earth?

A. He will not, because no dead person can ever come back.

Q. Will Christ return on judgment day?

A. There will be no judgment day; that is all a fable, so that preachers could scare people and hold them in their grasp. Man has no soul, neither had Christ any soul. All these things have been invented by the churches.

Q. What is the Holy Spirit?

A. The Holy Spirit is an imagination existing only in the minds of crazy religious people.

Q. Is Christianity desirable?

A. Christianity is not advantageous to us, but is harmful because it makes of us spiritual cripples. By its teachings of bliss after death it deceives the people. Christianity is the greatest obstacle to the progress of mankind, therefore it is the duty of every citizen to help wipe out Christianity. All churches are impudent humbugs.

Q. Is there communion of saints?

A. No, because there is no God, no saints, no soul, and therefore our prayers are wholly useless and only a waste of time, which should be spent in more sensible things.

Q. What is our duty when we have learned that there is no God?

A. We should teach this knowledge to others.

Q. Do we owe a duty to God?

A. There is no God, and therefore we owe Him no duty.

Q. Should we take the name of God in vain?

A. Yes; because the name of God has no meaning.

Q. Does Christianity stand for right?

A. No; it stands for and supports all that is wrong.

Q. Should we pray?

A. We should not. By prayer we only waste time, as there is no God. If we are given to prayer we gradually become imbeciles.

Q. But preachers say that prayer helps us, what of that?

A. That is a contemptible humbug.

Conductor S. L. Miller, Norfolk, Neb., on Honesteel Division of C. & N. W. Ry. Co., recommends Foley Kidney Pills and says: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills with very satisfactory results and endorse their use for any one afflicted with kidney trouble. They are all right."

When Burton Holmes recently gave his celebrated travelogue on "Panama" at Orchestra Hall, Chicago, he was seriously interrupted by continual coughing of the audience. No one annoys willingly and if people with coughs, colds, hoarseness and tickling in throat would use Foley's Honey & Tar Compound, they could quickly cure their coughs and colds and avoid this annoyance.

Rev. James A. Lewis, Milaca, Minn., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a needed and welcome guest in our home for a number of years. I highly recommend it to my fellow as being a medicine worthy of trial in cases of colds, coughs and croup." Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and we are confident you will find it effectual and continue to use it as occasion requires for years to come, as many others have done. ### W. C. T. U. Notes.

We believe in the coming of His Kingdom whose service is perfect freedom, because His laws, written in our members as well as in nature and in grace, are perfect, converting the soul.

We believe in the Golden Rule, and that each man's habits of life should be an example safe and beneficial for every other man to follow.

We believe that God created both man and woman in His own image, and therefore we believe in one standard of purity for both men and women, and in the equal right of all to hold opinions and to express the same with equal freedom.

We believe in a living wage; in courts of conciliation and arbitration; in justice as opposed to greed of gain; in "peace on earth and good will to men."

We therefore formulate, and ourselves adopt the following pledge, asking our sisters and brothers of a common cause with us, in working its reasonable and helpful precepts into the practice of every day life:

I hereby solemnly promise God, helping me, to abstain from all distilled, fermented and malt liquors, including wine, beer and cider, and to employ all proper means to discourage the use of and the traffic in the same.

To conform and enforce the rationale of this pledge, we declare our purpose to educate the young; to reform, so far as possible, by religious, ethical and scientific means the drinking classes; to seek the transforming power of Divine grace for ourselves and all for whom we work, that they and we may willfully transcend no law of pure and wholesome living; and finally we pledge ourselves to labor and to pray that all these principles, founded upon the gospel of Christ, may be worked out into the Customs of Society and the Laws of the Land.

We believe in the coming of His Kingdom whose service is perfect freedom.

The trysting hour, noontide each day. It is always noontide somewhere. And across the awakening continents, from shore to shore, somewhere.

Our prayers are rising evermore. Our Motto—For God and Home and Native Land. While the World's W. C. T. U. has for its motto,—For God and Home and every Land.

In this there are over fifty countries organized and the total membership of the organization numbers several million. Our own state of Oregon has nearly if not now, over four thousand members. New York heads the list with nearly 32,000. Surely with such a force of determined earnest workers the strongholds of evil must weaken and as been seen, is reckoning with this host, its righteous antagonist.

This column will contain from week to week items of information and news of general interest along our lines of work and progress.
