

Bro. Waymire Has the Floor.

BRO. BAKER: As I am in our home county once more and have picked up the Headlight, I want to say a few things to relieve my mind. Am sorry our city has a law suit on hand. It is not a good advertisement, as such things are all expense and no profit. I also note you think $10,000 could be used to good advantage this year advertising. Let me suggest the best mode of advertising that I know of. Instead of printing and distributing large amounts of descriptive literature, let every body get busy and beautify his own home, make it nice, and then the summer visitor will scatter the news for you free of charge. What's the use to tell on paper the great resources of our county and every thing out of repair, unpainted? You may get men to come in but they won't stop. What use is it to tell the world in books and papers how prosperous and happy we are and when they come to see us, find us in numerous law suits, cursing our county officials and flourishing a tax receipt you think is a bit large? The only trouble I see is you have the best thing in the Pacific Northwest and quite a number of you don't know it. You ought to hold a grand mass meeting and forgive each other all hard speeches, shake hands over all interference and put a large sum of money in improvements and beautifying your own homes. You will have benefit of it, and the visitors will tell the story free and in a style that bring men of capital among you seeking one of these beauty spots for a home. Take the cash spent for law suits, liquors and tobaccos and you will have quite a sum to start with, and if you leave these out you will be friendly, sober and clean and you will find these the best advertisements obtainable, besides you will enjoy it when you get use to it.

John Longcor Gets Government Reward.

John J. Longcor received a check for $200 Friday morning, the reward for the arrest and conviction of Ross, the man who robbed the Bay City postoffice about two years ago. This is the largest reward the postoffice department pays for the apprehension of robbers and comes as recognition of the good work Mr. Longcor did in finally running down the man who did the job. Longcor worked for a year on the case and finally found a clue which led to the Tillamook shoemaker. Not only did he cause the arrest of the man, but he recovered the stamps taken from the office and much evidence and papers. It will be remembered that the booty was found secreted under an old barn in the outskirts of Tillamook, where it had laid since the robbery. Koss was sent to McNeil's Island about nine months ago.—Bay City Examiner.

Straight at it.

There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold. There is no reason so far as we can see why you should not do so. This preparation by its remarkable cures has gained a world wide reputation, and people everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. For sale by all dealers.

The Wilson administration has inaugurated the open-door policy toward newspaper men and the public in general. Secretary Tamm, for the president, announced that hereafter newspaper men might enter his room at any time without formality, and similar rules are in force in all the departments.

If Speaker Clark thinks that Mr. Bryan made a mistake at the Baltimore convention the grievance is not one that can be carried to the White House for aid and sympathy.

Apparently the conviction of the McNamara's and the dynamite conspirators has not changed the minds of some of the leaders of the "movement."

The following choice thoughts from a labor attorney and "Mother" Jones show how thoroughly this idea has permeated the ranks of unionism as exemplified by its officialdom. And the cowardly trucking of politicians to the "labor vote," and the maudlin sentimentality which has existed toward anything called the "workingman" is responsible for it and all the horrors that have followed and will follow until "labor" is placed back on an equality with all other citizens before the law. Treason and anarchy should be suppressed. A rifle or a bomb is no argument, and murder is murder—whether committed by a man with money or a "wage slave." We quote:
Paint Creek Junction, W. Va., March 12—Whether it is murder if a man kills another in war was the issue offered by the defense to the military court which is trying "Mother" Jones, the noted woman labor leader, and 49 miners here on a charge of conspiracy to commit murder.

Defense Attorney F. M. Matheny asks: "Was the battle of Gettysburg murder?" He claims that if the miners were killed, it was a war, and should not be characterized as murder. Three proclamations issued by Governor Glasscock calling the great industrial struggle in the Paint Creek district "war," have been introduced as evidence. These declared the district under martial law.
"Whatever violence the miners may have resorted to," says Matheny, "was aimed at a system and not at individuals. Whatever happened were acts of war and cannot be judged by ordinary rules of law and morality."

To Tell Oleo from Butter.

Every housekeeper should know how to detect oleomargarine from butter.

Draw the blade of a knife across the suspected butter. If it is margarine the place where the knife was pressed will look white, and the track of the blade will be marked with little beads of water. When the test is made with genuine butter the white look does not appear, but the butter holds its color. Another test is to drop a piece of the suspected butter into a well heated frying pan. If it is spurious it will sputter, because of the water in it; if it is genuine it will melt and bubble or boil, but not sputter.

In the House of Commons, Col. Seeley, the war minister, made the important announcement that the British Army had evolved the best aeroplane airship in the world, one that can be flown at the high speed of ninety miles an hour or slowed down to forty miles an hour. He said they would have 148 of these ships in a year, and that they had definitely rejected the big, rigid airships of the German type.

The Ways and Means Committee of the House has begun the final consideration of the tariff changes which it will recommend to the extra session. Among the early decisions were free raw cotton goods, sharp reductions in the cheaper grades of woolen goods, free lumber, free sugar, high rates on tobacco and other luxuries such as silks, free wood pulp and print paper, iron and steel the same substantially, raw wool reduced 56 per cent or at the rate of 20 per cent ad valorem.

From the office of J. P. Morgan & Co., New York, after a conference of the banking interests in the six-power loan offer to China, the announcement was made that "detracting to the policy now declared" by the Wilson administration they would withdraw from the negotiations. It was said they had so notified European bankers concerned. The statement tells how the group of American bankers was formed on the express request of the State Department and that the move was not made primarily for profit.

Look to Your Plumbing.

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.

TELEPHONING TO THE COUNTRY

THE City and the Country are bound together by the telephone line. The farmer and his family use the rural telephone constantly calling up each other and the market town on all sorts of matters and for all sorts of supplies and information. City people also find the rural telephone of the great advantage. A traveler from his room in the hotel talks with the farm folk miles away. Without the telephone he could not reach them. The farmer himself may travel far and still talk home over the Long Distance Lines of the Bell System.
