THE SCHOOL MEETING.

"Held Up" While a Few Persons Did Some "Insidious" Lobbying.

There was a good attendance at the school meeting on Monday, the largest in a number of years. This was brought about because it was claimed that the past year's school had not been as successful as it might have been, and on that account it was thought best to make a change in the directors, women who have children attending the school being leaders in that movement. The meeting was called for one o'clock, and when it was nearly two o'clock Director King said the meeting would not take place for another 15 minutes, giving, as his reason, that some people had been misinformed about the time. There was some objection to waiting as it kept business men away from their business. It was plainly seen afterwards that this move was resorted to give a few citizens time to talk over who they would agree upon for director. While this conflagration was going on in the hall the meeting was "held up" on that account, or as President Wilson would have put it, "Held up by insidious lobbying."

Eventually the meeting was called to order and the minutes and the clerk's report were read, when Director Botts made a statement in regard to reports about the board employing teachers who belonged to the Christian Church. He stated that this had nothing to do with selecting teacher, nor would it have in future. He said he did not know that the principal, who had been employed, was a member of the Christian Church, until after he had been employed.

Another strange feature which caused some surprise was electing the clerk before the director. Burr Beal, jr., was nominated, who declined, when E. J. Clausen was nominated and elected by acclamation.

An informal vote was taken for nominations for director, with the following result: Mrs. A. C. Everson, 34; T. H. Goyno, 14; G. R. Edmunds, 11; B. E. King, 11; P. W. Todd, 4; Mrs. Whitehouse, 2; J. R. Harter, 2; H. Woolfe, 1.

Mrs. Whitehouse made an announcement that she was not a candidate. She said she had been asked by several gentlemen to run for the office and she appreciated the honor they had conferred upon her. She said she was in favor of Mrs. Everson for school director, who was well fitted for the position. This showed the sentiment of the meeting, for it was applauded. Mrs. Whitehouse then stated that as mothers they wanted better and more efficient teachers in the school to teach their children. They were all excellent young ladies who were teaching, and she loved them, but she thought it was highly important that the school should have well trained teachers.

When the vote was taken it resulted in Mrs. Everson obtaining 50 votes, T. H. Goyno, 15; B. E. King, 11 and G. R. Edmunds, 3.

T. Coates made a plea for some money for the children's park, when it was decided to give $100 from the school funds.

Mrs. Everson's Statement.

Mrs. Everson, who was not given an opportunity to thank the patrons and express her views on the school situation, sent the following letter to the editor:

To the voters of Tillamook:

It would have been a pleasure to express my appreciation of your good will at the recent election, but the meeting being so long delayed it seemed unwise to take further time. As I am a stranger to many of you it was certainly a most gracious act on your part and it is hoped that you will feel assured that an earnest effort will be made to merit the confidence you have indicated.

Because of many questions that are being asked concerning the new member of the School Board, it seems to best answer them in a public manner.

Having always been interested in school work it is my desire to be a factor in maintaining a strictly up to date school system in Tillamook. With the splendid resources which this city enjoys there is no reason why our schools may not be among the very best in the state. In order to do this it is necessary to employ the best qualified persons for our superintendent and corps of teachers. So far as I am concerned efficiency alone shall be the requisite, no influence outside of the welfare of the school shall have any weight whatever. I have no prejudices, no attachments, am absolutely a free lance to do my whole duty as it shall appear to me.

I do not believe in making our public schools an eleemosynary institution. No greater mistake has ever been made than that of giving unqualified persons positions simply because they wanted them. None of us have children to sacrifice to experimental teaching. From the first grade to the last each day of school life should mean much accomplished, and only an efficient teacher can bring this result.

We have institutions for the training of those who have chosen teaching as a profession and it is no kindness to the untrained to be allowed to teach before they have had this preparation. If inexperienced persons could but realize they would thank rather than blame those who urge them to get the best possible training before beginning the work. Teaching is so much easier, criticism so much less, that it should not be difficult to convince young people as to the wisdom of such preparation.

There are certain parts of the work of the Board of Directors for which a woman has a peculiar fitness, and I shall feel it an obligation to meet all the demands made upon me in carefully attending to the requirements of the office to which I have been elected.

NATIONAL GUARD COMES TO TILLAMOOK.

Big Time in Tillamook City During Their Visit.

On Saturday word was received in this city that Tillamook City had been selected as the place for holding the annual encampment of the Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard. The regiment will arrive here on the 8th July in three trains, and will remain seven days. A meeting of the Executive Board of the Tillamook Commercial Club was held on Monday evening for the purpose of taking into consideration General W. E. Finzer's letter, which was as follows:

Portland, June 13th, 1913.
The President, Commercial Club, Tillamook, Oregon.

Dear Sir:—It has been decided to hold the encampment at Tillamook on the site near the railroad depot, owned by the Railroad Company, provided the city water is piped on to the track in such a manner as to be available for the troops and in accordance with plans to be furnished from this office. Also, provided the grass is cut and hauled from the camp ground before the arrival of the Regiment and Ambulance Company.

If the above arrangements can be made, it is requested the information be given this office at the earliest possible date.

Very respectfully,
W. E. FINZER,
Adjutant General.

This will be one of the biggest events in the history of Tillamook City, for with 700 soldiers and probably 400 or 500 visitors from outside points, to say nothing of those from the surrounding country, the population will be doubled for about seven days and it is going to take some hustling to feed and board that number of persons.

The following is the schedule of drills and exercises for the annual encampment of the Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard, which takes place near Tillamook July 8-14, according to general orders issued by Adjutant-General Finzer:

July 8—Movement by train to, and making of camp.

July 9—Forenoon: Fifteen minutes calisthenics, immediately after reveille; 7:30 to 9 o'clock, company drill; 9:30 to 11 o'clock, battalion drill; 11:30 o'clock, inspection of camp. Afternoon: 1:30 o'clock, tactical ride, all mounted officers; tactical walk, all dismounted officers; 6 o'clock, parade and retreat; guard mount immediately after retreat.

July 10—Forenoon: Fifteen minutes calisthenics immediately after reveille; 7:30 to 9 o'clock, company drill; 9:30 to 11 o'clock, battalion drill; 11:30 o'clock, inspection of camp. Afternoon: 1:30 o'clock, tactical ride, all mounted officers; tactical walk, all dismounted officers; 6 o'clock, parade and retreat; guard mount immediately after retreat.

July 11—Forenoon: Fifteen minutes calisthenics, immediately after reveille; 7:30 to 9 o'clock, battalion drill; 9:30 to 11 o'clock, regimental exercise; 11:30 o'clock, inspection of camp. Afternoon: 1:30 o'clock, tactical ride, all mounted officers; tactical walk, all dismounted officers; 5 o'clock, parade and retreat; guard mount immediately after retreat.

July 12—Forenoon: Fifteen minutes calisthenics, immediately after reveille; 7:30 to 9 o'clock, battalion drill; 9:30 to 11 o'clock, regimental exercise; 11:30 o'clock, inspection of camp. Afternoon: 1:30 o'clock, tactical riding, all mounted officers; tactical walking, all dismounted officers; 6 o'clock, parade and retreat; guard mount immediately after retreat.

July 13—Regimental review inspection and muster.

July 14—Break camp and return to station.

All officers except regimental staff officers will be present with their organizations at all drills and inspections.

Company drills will be under supervision of battalion commanders, who will be present during company drills. Battalion drills will be supervised by regimental commander.

Subjects for the tactical rides and walks and practical talks will be decided upon and promulgated in ample time for all officers to prepare themselves. A close study of the field service regulations 1910, infantry drill regulations 1911 and problems in minor tactics is enjoined upon all officers.

Graduating Exercises.

The annual commencement exercises of the Tillamook High School was held on Friday evening in the new Christian Church, which was packed with a large congregation. The members of the graduating class were: Helen M. Beals, Ruth M. Burge, John Ebinger, Flora O. Edgar, Paul Edgar, Wilma Gesler, Blanche Lucas, Gertrude N. Schlappi and Benly Stam.

A vocal quartette by Mrs. R. U. Moore, Miss Helen Beals, Verle Stanley and John Ebinger was well rendered.

The salutatory was admirably delivered by Miss Gertrude Schlappi, which brought forth a round of applause. Mrs. R. U. Moore then rendered a solo, which was followed by an address by Rev. E. H. Hicks, of Roseburg, who made a most interesting speech. Mr. E. E. Koch rendered a violin solo in a most pleasing and efficient manner, and Miss Flora Edgar delivered the valedictory. Following this was a vocal solo by John Ebinger.

School Director W. C. King then presented the diplomas to the High school graduates and the eighth grade class.

There was a large amount of pretty flowers, each of the graduates receiving many beautiful bouquets.

The Alumni of the Tillamook High School held their annual meeting in the High School building, Saturday evening, June 14th, at which time the class of '13 was initiated. The evening was spent in renewing old acquaintances and relating incidents of school life.

At ten o'clock the party repaired to the Palm Cafe where an excellent banquet was served. The following members were present: Mary White, Frances Wiley, '04; Edgar Munson, R. U. Moore, '05; Howard Drew, '06; John Aschm, '08; Cloyd Dawson, Clarence Stanley, Robert Stillwell, Bernice Lucas, Eliza Dawson, Lillian Anderson, '10; Helena Schlappi, Elsie Lamb, Violet Stillwell, Gladys Beals, '11; Horace Sappington, Clent King, Ruth Holmes, Albert Ginn, Eva Wheeler, Daisie Goodspeed, '12; Helen Beals, John Ebinger, Gertrude Schlappi, Ruth Burge, Benly Stam, Wilma Gesler, Blanche Lucas, '13.

Death of Joseph Effenberger.

Nehalem, Ore., June 15.—(Special)—Joseph Effenberger, 61 and long a resident of Tillamook County, died here Saturday after an illness of several months.

He was born in Hessen, Germany, in 1852, coming to the United States in 1878 with his wife and two children. They settled in Nebraska, later moving to Oregon and locating, engaging in the lumbering business. He was a leading factor in social and political circles of the county, taking an active part in its general upbuilding and development.

He was twice elected Justice of the Peace and held the office until his death.

His widow who survives him, was formerly Miss Mary Tobl. Eight children—three daughters and five sons—also survive. They are: Mrs. Emma Steele, of Seaside; Mrs. C. J. Perogy, of Nehalem; Mrs. H. M. Roschmer, of Fresno, Cal.; and Hugo F. Wm. H. Otto E., Oscar A. and Allie J. Effenberger, all of Nehalem.

Interment will be held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the local cemetery.

If all of the political parties shall succeed in perfecting their harmony schemes the country will soon be back where it was before Col Roosevelt cut the basting strings.
