

Tillamook

Headlight.

Vol. XXV. No. 52.

TILLAMOOK, OREGON, JUNE 26, 1913.

Advantages of a Checking Account

II. Checks as Receipts.

Before cashing a check, payee must sign his name on back in acknowledgment of receipt of the money.

All checks which depositor issues are returned to him after being cashed by the bank.

These checks constitute a valid receipt for the moneys paid, and safeguard the depositor against claims for duplicate payments.

Checking accounts are always welcome at this bank, subject only to reasonable restriction as to minimum average balances.

OLDEST BANK IN THE COUNTY
TILLAMOOK COUNTY BANK
 CAPITAL $30,000.00
 STATE SUPERVISION
 TILLAMOOK CITY, ORE.

TILLAMOOK JOTTINGS

See Dr. Monk for novelties in place cards.
 See Big Mack for your sewer connections.
 Busy Bees—Bee Supplies. King & Smith Co.
 E. E. Koch left Saturday morning for Portland.
 Stylish City Photographs at the Tillamook Studio.
 Prof. L. L. Baker went to Portland on Tuesday.
 Miss Hattie Walker returned from Portland on Saturday.
 Editor Effenberger was in the city on Tuesday on business.
 For Fine Photographs at popular prices.—Tillamook Studio.
 Call up the Mutual Phone for a date at the Tillamook Studio.
 Glasses fitted. Any kind, any style Guaranteed. Dr. Wendt.
 Mrs. U. G. Jackson is visiting relatives and friends in Eugene this week.
 Follow the crowd on the Fourth—They are going to celebrate at Bar View.
 There will be a basket picnic and baseball game at Blaine on the Fourth.
 Superintendent Buel is in Salem attending the State Board of Examiners.
 Bicycles and bicycle sundries, supplies and repairs.—King & Smith Co.
 Live chickens wanted at the Tillamook Meat Company's Market, 12c. per pound.
 Gold bond trading stamps with all your cash purchases.—King & Smith Co.
 The most beautiful spot to spend the Fourth is at Bar View. Follow the crowd.
 Dr. Jack Olson has opened dental parlors over F. R. Beals' office. Both phones.
 Phone Joe Lilly for wood sawing. Country work solicited. Phone 1313 Pacific States.
 E. T. Haltom will leave for Portland Friday morning on a brief business trip.
 Max Herman returned Monday from Portland where he has been visiting friends.
 For sale,—90 Angora goats, $2 each. Inquire of R. F. Fowler, Beaver, Oregon.
 A person at Blaine sent 40 moles to County Clerk Holden by parcel post on Tuesday.
 If our work does not suit you tell us; if it does tell your friends. City Transfer Company.
 Tents, tent flies, camp stoves, camp chairs, everything for camp.—King & Smith Co.
 Bring your chickens to the Tillamook Meat Company's Market. We pay 12c. per pound.

Wall paper.—King & Smith Co.
 For Sale, young pigs.—Apply to D. B. Marshall, Pleasant Valley, or Alex. Watt, Tillamook.
 Druggist E. E. Koch was married in Portland last evening to Miss Dick, of that city.
 The Tillamook Band will furnish the music at the dance pavilion at Bar View on the Fourth.
 Mrs. H. C. Hanson took the examination last week for life diploma under the new law.
 Regular Dances at Bar View—Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoons.
 Amateurs! Better pay a small charge and get good results from your kodaks.—Tillamook Studio.
 Father Van Clarenbeck is in Portland in connection with building the New Catholic Church in this city.
 Found, a gold ring. Person describing the same can recover it by calling at Cook's rooming house.
 Jack Williams met with an accident today, a bottle of carbolic acid spilling on his face and injuring his eye.
 Clearance Sale.—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit.—Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 Lost,—two ladies' hand bags, containing about $10 and valuable papers. Leave same at the Headlight office.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Whitehouse and family having leased their residence will leave for California next month.
 Free, an elegant bevel edged stag handle hand mirror, containing your photo with our folders.—Tillamook Studio.
 R. F. Zachman vs J. R. Harter is a suit filed in the circuit court to recover $132.54, balance of account for plumbing.
 At the G. A. R. encampment at Newberg last week it was decided to hold the next encampment at Tillamook City.
 Alabastine your walls right over the old paper if paper is not torn. Makes a first class job and a pretty room.—King & Smith Co.
 Grand Master Mason Spencer will come to Tillamook with a large delegation to lay the corner stone of the new Masonic Temple.
 A Children's Day program will be rendered next Sunday at the German Reformed Church, at 10:30 a.m., to which all are invited.
 The opening dance of the season at Saltair will be held on Saturday night and the music will be furnished by the Bay City orchestra.
 The ladies of the Christian church will give a strawberry festival and program Friday evening, June 27th, in the dining room of the new church. Price 25c. Every one welcome.

Wall paper.—King & Smith Co.
 Clearance Sale.—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit.—Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 Irvin Carter, of Galt, Cal., is looking after business interests in Rockaway and this city. He will be here several weeks.
 For Sale.—One Registered Holstein Bull. Three years old in August. An extra good Bull, price $100.—H. S. Lilly, Gales Creek, Ore.
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 Wanted, a position at general house work. Would not object to washing and ironing. Apply to Miss Katie Burke, on the Trask river.
 "Everybody is doing it." "Doing What?" "Getting ready to celebrate at Bar View." A most delightful time for everybody. Follow the crowd.
 The grass is being mowed on the railroad land, in preparation for the encampment of the Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard, east of the depot.
 The monthly meeting of the Tillamook Commercial Club will be held next Monday evening, when it is desired that there be a good turnout of members.
 Rev. Herbert White arrived in this city Saturday evening to take up his work as pastor of the U. B. Church. He left Wednesday for a few days in Portland.
 Dawson Bros. will meet all trains with bus, and will handle passengers and baggage to all parts of the city. Call or phone at the Livery barn on 2nd Ave East.
 Buy a Ford car because they run 20 miles on a gallon of gasoline. When you get them your troubles are over. See Ed. Hadley, the local agent for the Ford auto.
 Linseed oil is cheaper now than it has been for a long time. Buy it by the barrel and paint that house and barn that you have neglected in the past.—King & Smith Co.
 The big ten round boxing match at Bar View on the Fourth between Kid Ritchie, of San Francisco, and Sandy Robison, for a purse of $250, will be an interesting event.
 G. W. Ridenower was arrested on Saturday by Sheriff Crenshaw on a charge of non-support of his family in Portland. A deputy came in on Sunday and took him out on Monday.
 A kindly word to newcomers will cost you nothing and is a mighty fine advertisement for your town and community. Are you saying the word?—News-Times, Forest Grove.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred West, of Cold Water, Mich., who are on a nine months' tour of the Pacific Coast, came in Friday on the Sue H. Elmore to visit Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bales.
 Burr Tatro left the first of the week for Tillamook to look over the field preparatory to opening a law office. Burr recently was admitted to the bar at the state bar examination.—Record.
 Lieutenants Endicott and Anderson, of the Oregon National Guard, are in the city to arrange for laying out the ground and other matters for the encampment of the Third Regiment in this city from July 8 to 14.
 Allen Page is now the agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Company in this city, also the collector. Machines are sold on easy payments. Patronize your home merchant when you want a sewing machine.
 After an unusual amount of wet weather the past two weeks it turned fine on Wednesday, with prospects of remaining so. The wet weather was good for the grass, causing a heavy growth, which will insure another bumper hay crop.
 I. Arnold Leech, the freight agent at the depot, and bride arrived in this city Tuesday evening from Drain, where they were married Sunday. They will make their home here. The Headlight extends best wishes for their future happiness.
 The Ladies' Committee of the Tillamook Commercial Club give a whist party and strawberry social this (Thursday) evening with probable other features. The committee expects to have something extra in a week or so.
 The graduates of the Tillamook high school who also completed the normal training course and received one year state certificates are: Flora Edgar, Gertrude Schiappi, Ruth M. Berger, Blanche Lucas and Helen M. Beals.

Wall paper.—King & Smith Co.
 Clearance Sale.—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit.—Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 A writer is worried about a possible invasion of this country by an army of 150,000. Where would they get the transports, and what would they do when 20,000,000 men of fighting age rushed to give them a spank and good ducking?
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 The bonds for the improvement of Tillamook bar have been received by the Port of Bay City and duly signed, which is the final proceeding as the money will be available as soon as these bonds are returned. The money will then be placed at the disposal of the government.
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 Ed. Leach is to be retained as assistant fish and game warden for this county. The Master Fish Warden refusing to accept his resignation. Mr. Leach has made a good, conscientious deputy and we are glad that he has been retained.
 Clearance Sale—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 The monthly meeting of the Shakespeare Club was held on Friday at the home of Mrs. John Groat, which was profusely decorated with beautiful roses for the occasion. Mrs. Henry Crenshaw won the prize for the best rhyme on roses. The hostess served a dainty lunch, which was greatly enjoyed.
 Married, on Saturday evening, Albert E. Bisbee and Miss Eva Wolfe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. L. Shrode at the Christian Church. The happy couple left on Sunday to spend a three weeks' honeymoon in California, when they will return and made their home in this city.
 As there are many side walks in the city which are dangerous to pedestrians and liable to involve the city in expensive damage suits, these must be fixed as speedily as possible. Property owners whose side walks are out of repair will be served with notices to place red lights on the dangerous walks at night, and failing to do this can be fined $10 to $25 for every night they fail to do so.
 Tillamook won the baseball game this week with the Brooklyn Grays, of Portland, by score of ten to four. Turck pitched good game for the home team, while Borne did the catching. Husky for the Grays was pounded from the mound in the third inning and retired in favor of Powers. Reben did catching for the Grays. Next Sunday two games one at 10 o'clock a.m., and the other at 1:30 p.m., will be played with the crack team of the Honeyman Hardware Co., of Portland. Everybody come.
 W. O. Kilbourne and wife, accompanied by P. Anderson, formerly of Elma and Malone, Chehalis County, Wash., came to this city Saturday and will make their future home in Tillamook. The Kilbournes and Mr. Anderson have purchased several lots in Stillwell Park Addition and are now having lumber hauled to their lots preparatory to building two bungalows immediately. Mr. Kilbourne is a contractor and has just completed thirty-seven houses in the town of Malone, Wash. He will engage in putting up a number of cottages in this city which are so badly needed at this time.
 William C. O'Hara died Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Brown, 231 Shaver street, Portland. He came to Oregon in 1857 by the Isthmus of Panama route. He was born in Sligo, Ireland, in 1832. His business kept him in Portland until 1883, when he took up farming in Tillamook. He returned four years ago and since then had made his home with his daughter. He leaves four daughters and two sons—Mrs. W. Johnson, Mrs. H. H. Brown, Mrs. C. M. Martin, Mrs. C. F. Groce and Will O'Hara, all of Portland, and Bat O'Hara, of Tillamook.

Wall paper.—King & Smith Co.
 Clearance Sale.—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit.—Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 A writer is worried about a possible invasion of this country by an army of 150,000. Where would they get the transports, and what would they do when 20,000,000 men of fighting age rushed to give them a spank and good ducking?
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 The bonds for the improvement of Tillamook bar have been received by the Port of Bay City and duly signed, which is the final proceeding as the money will be available as soon as these bonds are returned. The money will then be placed at the disposal of the government.
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 Ed. Leach is to be retained as assistant fish and game warden for this county. The Master Fish Warden refusing to accept his resignation. Mr. Leach has made a good, conscientious deputy and we are glad that he has been retained.
 Clearance Sale—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 The monthly meeting of the Shakespeare Club was held on Friday at the home of Mrs. John Groat, which was profusely decorated with beautiful roses for the occasion. Mrs. Henry Crenshaw won the prize for the best rhyme on roses. The hostess served a dainty lunch, which was greatly enjoyed.
 Married, on Saturday evening, Albert E. Bisbee and Miss Eva Wolfe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. L. Shrode at the Christian Church. The happy couple left on Sunday to spend a three weeks' honeymoon in California, when they will return and made their home in this city.
 As there are many side walks in the city which are dangerous to pedestrians and liable to involve the city in expensive damage suits, these must be fixed as speedily as possible. Property owners whose side walks are out of repair will be served with notices to place red lights on the dangerous walks at night, and failing to do this can be fined $10 to $25 for every night they fail to do so.
 Tillamook won the baseball game this week with the Brooklyn Grays, of Portland, by score of ten to four. Turck pitched good game for the home team, while Borne did the catching. Husky for the Grays was pounded from the mound in the third inning and retired in favor of Powers. Reben did catching for the Grays. Next Sunday two games one at 10 o'clock a.m., and the other at 1:30 p.m., will be played with the crack team of the Honeyman Hardware Co., of Portland. Everybody come.
 W. O. Kilbourne and wife, accompanied by P. Anderson, formerly of Elma and Malone, Chehalis County, Wash., came to this city Saturday and will make their future home in Tillamook. The Kilbournes and Mr. Anderson have purchased several lots in Stillwell Park Addition and are now having lumber hauled to their lots preparatory to building two bungalows immediately. Mr. Kilbourne is a contractor and has just completed thirty-seven houses in the town of Malone, Wash. He will engage in putting up a number of cottages in this city which are so badly needed at this time.
 William C. O'Hara died Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Brown, 231 Shaver street, Portland. He came to Oregon in 1857 by the Isthmus of Panama route. He was born in Sligo, Ireland, in 1832. His business kept him in Portland until 1883, when he took up farming in Tillamook. He returned four years ago and since then had made his home with his daughter. He leaves four daughters and two sons—Mrs. W. Johnson, Mrs. H. H. Brown, Mrs. C. M. Martin, Mrs. C. F. Groce and Will O'Hara, all of Portland, and Bat O'Hara, of Tillamook.

Wall paper.—King & Smith Co.
 Clearance Sale.—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit.—Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 A writer is worried about a possible invasion of this country by an army of 150,000. Where would they get the transports, and what would they do when 20,000,000 men of fighting age rushed to give them a spank and good ducking?
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 The bonds for the improvement of Tillamook bar have been received by the Port of Bay City and duly signed, which is the final proceeding as the money will be available as soon as these bonds are returned. The money will then be placed at the disposal of the government.
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 Ed. Leach is to be retained as assistant fish and game warden for this county. The Master Fish Warden refusing to accept his resignation. Mr. Leach has made a good, conscientious deputy and we are glad that he has been retained.
 Clearance Sale—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 The monthly meeting of the Shakespeare Club was held on Friday at the home of Mrs. John Groat, which was profusely decorated with beautiful roses for the occasion. Mrs. Henry Crenshaw won the prize for the best rhyme on roses. The hostess served a dainty lunch, which was greatly enjoyed.
 Married, on Saturday evening, Albert E. Bisbee and Miss Eva Wolfe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. L. Shrode at the Christian Church. The happy couple left on Sunday to spend a three weeks' honeymoon in California, when they will return and made their home in this city.
 As there are many side walks in the city which are dangerous to pedestrians and liable to involve the city in expensive damage suits, these must be fixed as speedily as possible. Property owners whose side walks are out of repair will be served with notices to place red lights on the dangerous walks at night, and failing to do this can be fined $10 to $25 for every night they fail to do so.
 Tillamook won the baseball game this week with the Brooklyn Grays, of Portland, by score of ten to four. Turck pitched good game for the home team, while Borne did the catching. Husky for the Grays was pounded from the mound in the third inning and retired in favor of Powers. Reben did catching for the Grays. Next Sunday two games one at 10 o'clock a.m., and the other at 1:30 p.m., will be played with the crack team of the Honeyman Hardware Co., of Portland. Everybody come.
 W. O. Kilbourne and wife, accompanied by P. Anderson, formerly of Elma and Malone, Chehalis County, Wash., came to this city Saturday and will make their future home in Tillamook. The Kilbournes and Mr. Anderson have purchased several lots in Stillwell Park Addition and are now having lumber hauled to their lots preparatory to building two bungalows immediately. Mr. Kilbourne is a contractor and has just completed thirty-seven houses in the town of Malone, Wash. He will engage in putting up a number of cottages in this city which are so badly needed at this time.
 William C. O'Hara died Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Brown, 231 Shaver street, Portland. He came to Oregon in 1857 by the Isthmus of Panama route. He was born in Sligo, Ireland, in 1832. His business kept him in Portland until 1883, when he took up farming in Tillamook. He returned four years ago and since then had made his home with his daughter. He leaves four daughters and two sons—Mrs. W. Johnson, Mrs. H. H. Brown, Mrs. C. M. Martin, Mrs. C. F. Groce and Will O'Hara, all of Portland, and Bat O'Hara, of Tillamook.

Wall paper.—King & Smith Co.
 Clearance Sale.—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit.—Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 A writer is worried about a possible invasion of this country by an army of 150,000. Where would they get the transports, and what would they do when 20,000,000 men of fighting age rushed to give them a spank and good ducking?
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 The bonds for the improvement of Tillamook bar have been received by the Port of Bay City and duly signed, which is the final proceeding as the money will be available as soon as these bonds are returned. The money will then be placed at the disposal of the government.
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 Ed. Leach is to be retained as assistant fish and game warden for this county. The Master Fish Warden refusing to accept his resignation. Mr. Leach has made a good, conscientious deputy and we are glad that he has been retained.
 Clearance Sale—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 The monthly meeting of the Shakespeare Club was held on Friday at the home of Mrs. John Groat, which was profusely decorated with beautiful roses for the occasion. Mrs. Henry Crenshaw won the prize for the best rhyme on roses. The hostess served a dainty lunch, which was greatly enjoyed.
 Married, on Saturday evening, Albert E. Bisbee and Miss Eva Wolfe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. L. Shrode at the Christian Church. The happy couple left on Sunday to spend a three weeks' honeymoon in California, when they will return and made their home in this city.
 As there are many side walks in the city which are dangerous to pedestrians and liable to involve the city in expensive damage suits, these must be fixed as speedily as possible. Property owners whose side walks are out of repair will be served with notices to place red lights on the dangerous walks at night, and failing to do this can be fined $10 to $25 for every night they fail to do so.
 Tillamook won the baseball game this week with the Brooklyn Grays, of Portland, by score of ten to four. Turck pitched good game for the home team, while Borne did the catching. Husky for the Grays was pounded from the mound in the third inning and retired in favor of Powers. Reben did catching for the Grays. Next Sunday two games one at 10 o'clock a.m., and the other at 1:30 p.m., will be played with the crack team of the Honeyman Hardware Co., of Portland. Everybody come.
 W. O. Kilbourne and wife, accompanied by P. Anderson, formerly of Elma and Malone, Chehalis County, Wash., came to this city Saturday and will make their future home in Tillamook. The Kilbournes and Mr. Anderson have purchased several lots in Stillwell Park Addition and are now having lumber hauled to their lots preparatory to building two bungalows immediately. Mr. Kilbourne is a contractor and has just completed thirty-seven houses in the town of Malone, Wash. He will engage in putting up a number of cottages in this city which are so badly needed at this time.
 William C. O'Hara died Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Brown, 231 Shaver street, Portland. He came to Oregon in 1857 by the Isthmus of Panama route. He was born in Sligo, Ireland, in 1832. His business kept him in Portland until 1883, when he took up farming in Tillamook. He returned four years ago and since then had made his home with his daughter. He leaves four daughters and two sons—Mrs. W. Johnson, Mrs. H. H. Brown, Mrs. C. M. Martin, Mrs. C. F. Groce and Will O'Hara, all of Portland, and Bat O'Hara, of Tillamook.

Wall paper.—King & Smith Co.
 Clearance Sale.—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit.—Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 A writer is worried about a possible invasion of this country by an army of 150,000. Where would they get the transports, and what would they do when 20,000,000 men of fighting age rushed to give them a spank and good ducking?
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 The bonds for the improvement of Tillamook bar have been received by the Port of Bay City and duly signed, which is the final proceeding as the money will be available as soon as these bonds are returned. The money will then be placed at the disposal of the government.
 Special for the coming week—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 Ed. Leach is to be retained as assistant fish and game warden for this county. The Master Fish Warden refusing to accept his resignation. Mr. Leach has made a good, conscientious deputy and we are glad that he has been retained.
 Clearance Sale—Men's Suits from $18 to $25. Your choice of any suit. Morris Schnal, the Popular Price Clothier.
 The monthly meeting of the Shakespeare Club was held on Friday at the home of Mrs. John Groat, which was profusely decorated with beautiful roses for the occasion. Mrs. Henry Crenshaw won the prize for the best rhyme on roses. The hostess served a dainty lunch, which was greatly enjoyed.
 Married, on Saturday evening, Albert E. Bisbee and Miss Eva Wolfe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. L. Shrode at the Christian Church. The happy couple left on Sunday to spend a three weeks' honeymoon in California, when they will return and made their home in this city.
 As there are many side walks in the city which are dangerous to pedestrians and liable to involve the city in expensive damage suits, these must be fixed as speedily as possible. Property owners whose side walks are out of repair will be served with notices to place red lights on the dangerous walks at night, and failing to do this can be fined $10 to $25 for every night they fail to do so.
 Tillamook won the baseball game this week with the Brooklyn Grays, of Portland, by score of ten to four. Turck pitched good game for the home team, while Borne did the catching. Husky for the Grays was pounded from the mound in the third inning and retired in favor of Powers. Reben did catching for the Grays. Next Sunday two games one at 10 o'clock a.m., and the other at 1:30 p.m., will be played with the crack team of the Honeyman Hardware Co., of Portland. Everybody come.
 W. O. Kilbourne and wife, accompanied by P. Anderson, formerly of Elma and Malone, Chehalis County, Wash., came to this city Saturday and will make their future home in Tillamook. The Kilbournes and Mr. Anderson have purchased several lots in Stillwell Park Addition and are now having lumber hauled to their lots preparatory to building two bungalows immediately. Mr. Kilbourne is a contractor and has just completed thirty-seven houses in the town of Malone, Wash. He will engage in putting up a number of cottages in this city which are so badly needed at this time.
 William C. O'Hara died Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Brown, 231 Shaver street, Portland. He came to Oregon in 1857 by the Isthmus of Panama route. He was born in Sligo, Ireland, in 1832. His business kept him in Portland until 1883, when he took up farming in Tillamook. He returned four years ago and since then had made his home with his daughter. He leaves four daughters and two sons—Mrs. W. Johnson, Mrs. H. H. Brown, Mrs. C. M. Martin, Mrs. C. F. Groce and Will O'Hara, all of Portland, and Bat O'Hara, of Tillamook.

BIG FOURTH JULY CELEBRATION
 AT BAR VIEW.
BASEBALL GAME.
 All Kinds of Water Sport and Foot Races, with Special Prizes.
BIG TEN ROUND BOXING MATCH for a PRIZE OF $250.00.
 Between Kid Ritchie, of San Francisco, and Sandy Robison, of Barview.
BIG DANCE
 In Open Air Pavilion. Music for the day will be furnished by the Tillamook Band.
Mammoth Bonfire at Night and Fire Works.
 Clam Bake and many other attractive features.
 Barview is the best and most enjoyable place to spend the Fourth.
 Follow the Crowd—They are going to Barview.

LAMAR'S VARIETY STORE,
TILLAMOOK, OREGON.
 "Drop in and Look Around."