Marshal Myers arrested a man by the name of Don Long, who was wanted for pilfering. A detective came in and interviewed him, but did not file any complaint against him, consequently the marshal could not hold him, but kept close tag on him. At noon on Wednesday the man suddenly took his departure. He had stolen two razors from a railroad car, which the marshal had seen him hide away.

Iretta M. Bignell vs. Louis J. Bignell is a divorce suit filed in the Circuit Court. These parties were married at Houlton, Ore., on the 20th March, 1901, and the grounds upon which the divorce is sought is on account of a series of cruel inhuman treatment and of personal indignities upon the plaintiff. These parties resided at Rockaway, where the plaintiff alleges her husband drove her from his home and she was compelled to seek refuge with her parents.

On Friday Sheriff Crenshaw and Game Warden Leach went hunting and killed two buck deer between Foley Creek and the ocean. While the sheriff was out endeavoring to arrest another deer he thought they had shot, Ed. was greatly surprised, as he was preparing the deer to carry home, that a wild cat should appear on the scene, attracted, no doubt, by the smell of blood. He lost no time in procuring his gun, but while he was doing so the wild cat made a sudden exodus.
