CONVENTIONS NEXT WEEK IN CITY.

Oregon Butter and Cheese Maker's Association.

CLUB GIVES BANQUET.

Oregon Dairymen's Association Hold Annual Meeting.

The annual conventions of the Oregon Butter and Cheese Maker's Association and the Oregon Dairymen's Association will be held in this city next week. The former will hold is convention on Monday and Tuesday at the Tillamook Commercial Club room, commencing at 8 o'clock on Monday evening, and latter on Wednesday and Thursday at the same place. This is the first time that these associations have visited this part of Oregon. It is expected that considerable interest will be taken in the conventious, not only by the visitors, but by those connected with the dairying business of this county. Both associations will have excellent programs and fine speakers.

Prizes will be awarded for the highest butter and cheese scorers, amounting to $250, and in the cheese scoring, no doubt, most of the prizes will be carried off by the local makers. This will be in what is known as the Snuffer building.

Secretary's Invitation.

Secretary Kent sent out the follow ing circular letter to the butter and cheese makers and dairymen, to be present :

Eugane, Oregon, October 15, 1913. Dear Sir:

The Oregon Butter & Cheese Mak er's and the Oregon Dairymen's As er s and the Oregon Dairymen's As sociation will meet in joint annual convention in Tillamook City, Octo-ber 27-30, 1913. The first two days of the convention will be devoted more particularly to problems of manufacture and the last two days to matters connected with milk pro duction

Owing to the lateness of fixing the dates for this convention it is cial Club on Tuesday evening at for a submarine boat which will carry Mr. Schmelzer of the Red Clover fac-impossible to announce the details the Hotel Tillamook. This will be you under the channel, thereby saving tory will have cheese entered for scoryou can be sure that it will be worth your while to attend. A pro rata fund of $251.00 will be distrib-uted among the exhibitors of hutter the management will spare _____ and cheese scoring above 90 points similar to the pro rata distribution of last year. Other premiums will Le announced later.

If you have never been in Tillamook you should by all means plan to attend this convention. If you have been there you will surely want to go with "the bunch" at this time. Just as soon as you get this letter begin making arrange-ments to be present The Tilla mookers are planning a royal re-ception for us, and as this is the first time either association has met in the "Cheese City" there should be a big attendance from "the outside."

We want to make this convention largely a sort of experiment meeting. Leaders will be assigned to various topics, but we want the actual experience of many people So go prepared to give to your fellow dairymen the things you be laid for 100.
