

Advantages of a Checking Account

In the regular course of business the depositor receives checks on many banks.

It is not necessary for him to present these checks for payment at the banks on which drawn, but he may deposit them here, and this bank collects them for him without charge, and credits them to his account.

Checks on out-of-town banks may be deposited in the same way, and no charge is made by us for this collection.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, $80,500.

Tillamook County Bank.

IV. Collecting Checks.

over the Merchants' Counter on 2nd Ave. E.

Attorney Frank Holmes and wife and children, of Salem, spent the holidays at the home of Circuit Judge Webster Holmes in this city.

"Sure Milk," the new cow feed guaranteed to produce more milk for the money than any other feed on the market. Call and see it. Tillamook Feed Co.

Dawson Bros. will meet all trains with bus, and will handle passengers and baggage to all parts of the city. Call or phone at the Livery barn on 2nd Ave East.

I want to rent a good dairy ranch in Tillamook county, close to cheese factory, with or without stock, give full particulars in first letter. W. H. Stewart, N. Kenova, Ohio, R. 1, Box 56.

John Harter was in for a few days attending to business, and left Tuesday morning for Portland. He expects to spend a few months in California before returning to Tillamook.

Joseph Blattler, who resides on Henry Rodgers' place at Long Prairie, had the misfortune to chop off one of his toes on Friday and Dr. Boals was called to attend the injured foot.

There was an enjoyable Christmas dance given at the home of Jesse Earl Christmas night. A large crowd was in attendance and an oyster supper served, the dance continuing till morning.

R. J. Koch, of Linton, Ore., is visiting at the home of his son, Druggist Koch. Mrs. Koch's mother, Mrs. John Dick, and two sisters, Misses Ruvenna and Salena Dick, are also in from Portland.

The Oregon Fisheries Co. is making arrangements to can clams, which will give plenty of work for clam diggers as well as the starting of another industry. The Oregon Fisheries Co. cannery is located on Tillamook Bay.

Married, on Christmas day, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Olsen in this city, Edward Womelsdorf and Miss Eva Olson, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. J. Weber, pastor of the M. E. Church.

It is expected that the new saw mill of the Wheeler Lumber Company at Wheeler will be ready for operation in a few weeks, but it may be the 1st March before the mill is running full blast, when a large number of men will be employed.

The heavy sea on Wednesday was the cause of the train being delayed that evening, the Garibaldi beach being swept with huge waves that caused the railroad trouble again at Elmore Park. A large quantity of the drift wood along the beach was washed away.

Otto Wathers was in the city last week and he is one of those who believe that it was wrong to reduce the court's budget for road work next year. He lives on the Sandlake road and knows what bad roads are by the number of springs he breaks on his wagon.

J. T. Garriah and family, of Tillamook, have returned to Hillsboro to make their home. They like it over there, but get a homesick feeling for Hillsboro. Tom says it never gets very hot or cold along the Tillamook coast.—Hillsboro Independent.

The Woman's Relief Corps will meet in I. O. O. F. hall, Saturday afternoon. One candidate, Mrs. Reba Johnson was initiated. Next meeting will be held Jan. 10, when installation of officers will take place, followed by a banquet for all members and their families.

A recent copy of Hoard's Dairyman contains a picture of the home and dairy barn of Wm. Schulmerich, near Hillsboro, who was one of the judges on exhibits at the Yamhill county school fair. The joke, however, was that the caption under the half-tone read, "A prosperous dairy ranch in Tillamook county, Oregon."—McMinnville News Reporter.

George W. Phelps filed a complaint with the State Railroad Commission against the P. R. & N. Co. alleging that it has violated the law by not providing a suitable station at Garibaldi, which has two large stores, and is the transfer point for persons wishing to go to Bayocean. It is charged that the present station is not adequate, being a building 14x20 feet.

This week's Pacific Northwest is issued as a supplement to the Tillamook Headlight to day for the purpose of helping boost all parts of Oregon. One page is devoted to Tillamook County, prepared by the editor of this newspaper. The way to help boost Oregon, and Tillamook in particular, is to send this issue to your friends in the Middle West and the East.

The last meeting of the Kill Kare Club for the year 1913 was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Haberlach, when a very enjoyable afternoon was spent. After the usual reading and study hour the hostess provided an interesting amusement. The guests of the hostess were Mrs. Chester Holden and Mrs. Borge. Following refreshments the club adjourned until after the holidays, when it will meet with Mrs. John Lamar on Thursday, Jan 8.

Installations and Presentations at Masonic Temple.

On Saturday evening there was a joint installation in the new Masonic Temple of the Blue Lodge, Royal Arch Masons and Eastern Star Lodges, there being a large attendance of members and friends. One pleasing feature was the presentation, by Attorney C. W. Talmage, of a life size portrait of Dr. Johnson to Blue Lodge and Chapter, who was a prominent resident of this city and took great interest in the lodge. In making the presentation Mr. Talmage spoke in high praise of Dr. Johnson. Frank Severance in accepting the portrait, testified to the perfect likeness of the picture who thanked the donor. Mr. Talmage was awarded a vote of thanks for the portrait. Another pleasant feature connected with the joint installation was the presentation, by Attorney H. T. Botts, in behalf of the Eastern Star, of a past worthy matron's pin to Mrs. Lula Crenshaw, the retiring Worthy Matron, for the lively interest and zeal she had taken in the Chapter.

The installations were as follows: Blue Lodge—R. T. Boals, W.M.; E. D. Severance S.W.; C. I. Clough, J.W.; Thos. Coates, treas.; C. E. Trombley, sec.; Elbert E. Ginn, S.D.; E. J. Reedy, S.D.; E. J. Schilling, S.S.; R. N. Henkle, J. S.; M. V. Stillwell, tyler. The installing officers were H. T. Botts and Frank Severance.

Johnson Chapter of Royal Arch Masons—C. W. Talmage, high priest; Geo. R. Edmunds, king; E. D. Severance, scribe; Carl Haberlach, sec.; C. I. Clough, treas. H. T. Botts and Frank Severance were the installing officers.

Silver Wave of the Eastern Star—Zoe I. Smith, W.M.; Carl Haberlach, W.P.; Zola M. Shrode, A.M.; A. H. Gaylord, sec.; E. J. Clausen, treas.; Lola Reedy, conductress; Theresa Gaylord, associate conductress; Harriett Sarchet, chaplain; Lula Crenshaw, Adah; Jessie Plank, Ruth; Blanche McNair, Esther; Ethel Gaylord, Martha; Clara Boals, Electa; Levina Coates, warden; Ira C. Smith, sentinel. The installing officers were Mesdames Amanda Haberlach and C. I. Clough, who were highly complimented. This being one of the most interesting initiations in the history of the Chapter for Mr. Haberlach had memorized her part of the work.

After the ceremonies a banquet was served in the new banquet hall and a goodly number remained to participate in that feature of the evening's enjoyment, which also proved a success.

Work wanted on ranch by two men. Address Alfred Maroff, Ramsey Hotel, Tillamook, Ore.

It is the aim of this bank to give the best banking service possible--and we do it.

It is also our aim to have the best equipment such as Modern Fire Proof Banking Room, Fire Proof Vault, Burglar Proof Safe, Modern Safe Deposit Boxes--and we have them.

First National Bank, Tillamook, Oregon.

Asahel Bush's Will.

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 30.—In his own handwriting, on two sheets of foolscap paper and one letterhead of the bank founded by him, the will of the late Asahel Bush, pioneer banker and editor, disposing of an estate valued at $2,000,000, was filed for probate today.

Asahel N. Bush, a son, who is in active charge of the Ladd & Bush Bank of this city, is to get almost two-thirds of the estate, Miss Sally Bush, a daughter, having a one-third interest and the homestead in this city. Estella Bush Thayer, another daughter, is to get $2500 annually, and a fund of $5000 annually is provided for the maintenance of Miss Eugenia Bush an invalid. It is reported that Mrs. Thayer was provided for additionally in separate gifts made after the will was drawn.

The will was executed July 20, 1880, and a codicil, relating to the annuity for maintenance of Miss Eugenia Bush, was added November 13, 1905. S. A. Sanford and Claud Gatch witnessed the signing of the will, and Claud Gatch and J.

Baumgartner the signing of the codicil.

"The Girl From the Golden West."

Will be repeated. The numerous requests to members of the Dramatic Club, by a number of people unable to see the play when last presented, has caused the club to again repeat the performance. It will be offered at the Star Theatre 2 nights, Friday and Saturday, January 9th and 10th. In order to give everyone a chance to see this play this time, they may reserve their seats one week in advance at the box office, no extra charge will be attached. The office will be open every day from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. and tickets bought in advance will be held until ten minutes before the curtain time. The prices will be the same, "25 and 35." A number of specialties will be presented in the play, and new pictures between the acts. Remember there are no waits. A continuous show. Don't fail to see it this time. Star Theatre. Doors open at 7:30. Curtain at 8:15.

Coal, Cement, Lime, Brick, Shingles, Drain Tile, Plaster, Roof Paint.

LAMB-SCHRADER COMPANY.

DOCKS: WAREHOUSE. FRONT STREET, BETWEEN 2nd & 3rd AVENUE WEST.

1914

IS - UPON - US !

For past patronage we are thankful.

For a continuance of your favors we shall appreciate and strive to merit.

A New Year's Gift for any and all that have use for Low Prices.

At yours, Anxious to Please,

A. A. PENNINGTON,

TILLAMOOK, OREGON.

AMAR'S VARIETY STORE,
TILLAMOOK, OREGON.
Drop in and Look Around."