The Tillamook Headlight,

Editorial Snap Shots.

The band boys are going to "Tango" Saturday night. We gather that it will draw the crowd.

Getting grouchy, Bro. Effenberger? We hope that it is not a chronic case, Bro., and that it won't be necessary to call in the family physician.

It is the little leaks that help make taxation come high, and as Governor West is using the taxpayers' money to keep himself before the lime light in his so-called moral crusade, the taxpayers have to foot the bills.

Two small boys were having a little recreation in a fistic encounter the other day, when a person remarked, "Send for Governor West and Miss Hobbs, call out the militia and proclaim martial law, the mayor and the city cop are not enforcing the law."

Have you decided yet how to beautify your home this spring with a few pounds of paint and some pretty flowers? Everybody can do something to beautify the city the coming summer in making it clean and attractive, for this is the cheese city of the Northwest.

California is a great State, for it even captured the laurels from Tillamook in rain fall, with over eight inches in 24 hours. We still hold the pennant for the largest annual rainfall. Tillamookers in California last week must have felt happy when they saw the rain pattering down at a Tillamook gait.

Whoop up the free trade wagon, Bro. Trombley. Say, Bro., what about Democratic-Kangaroo cheese? And how would you like Kangaroo printers to come in and compete with your business the same as the Kangaroo cheese is allowed to come in and compete and undersell the cheese manufactured by the dairymen of Tillamook?

For the information of Bro. Trombley and other Democratic, free trade spell binders, there is a slum of 1c. per pound in the average price last year as a result of the new tariff law, with every indication that there will be another and more serious slum before many months. Whoop her us, Bro. Trombley, it is the free trade policy of the Democratic party which allows Kangaroo cheese from the British Colonies to "knock" the bottom out of the home product.

The way to settle the Mexican problem is to annex that country to the United States, and if we had any voice in the matter it wouldn't be only a few weeks before the blood-shed and murder and the guerilla warfare would cease and civilization would flourish. If President Wilson is so weak-kneed that he won't do anything, it is time for the people of this country to say that the rebellion in Mexico must cease and that the United States is going to "knock the job" of governing that country in the future.

The discussion on the subject of raising and dunning loganberries will, no doubt, result in something being done to make this a business success in this county, but it must also be remembered that a fruit cannery is a successful business.

not confined to one fruit, which lasts for only a few weeks. As this is one trouble that confronts the fruit canning business in this county, it is just as well to take into consideration that whenever a cannery is established in the county the availability of providing other kinds of fruit and vegetables to keep the cannery running.

What a funny world this is. A few years ago Ernest Beelitz was sentenced to a term in jail, and it was on the recommendation of the snap shot man that the governor paroled him. Now the snap shot man is a wicked, bad fellow for throwing a little intelligent light on the assessment of Beelitz's farm. Well, that don't trouble us in the least. The columns of the Herald are always open to anyone who want to "roast" the snap shot man and Bro. Trombley shows the nasty spirit of Christianity there is in him in allowing it, for hardly a week passes but what the snap shot man is roasted. It was that kind of journalism that killed off every one of Bro. Trombley's predecessors, and the snap shot man is still smiling and on the fighting line.

There are those who believe the Southern Pacific should, in giving cheap summer rates to Tillamook, give the same rates to people living in this county. The Tillamook Commercial Club took exception to the railroad raising the rate to this city the coming summer, and entered a protest. It is, no doubt, a perplexing problem with railroads in making summer rates not to interfere with the regular rates, but it seems to us that if cheap summer rates are granted to people to visit our part of the State, Tillamookers ought to be given cheap summer rates to visit Portland and other parts of the State. We can hardly blame people for scalping and resorting to other methods to procure cheaper travel if the railroad gives them an opportunity to do so. For instance, the summer rate last year was $1.00. This did not benefit people living here. Well, what did they do? They either paid full fare to Portland or bought or borrowed a return cheap rate ticket to Portland. When returning they bought a cheap rate return ticket at Portland, and on reaching home they had a return ticket they could either use themselves, loan it to their friends or dispose of it to someone, notwithstanding that the ticket was not transferable and that it is violating a State law for other persons to use these tickets. The raising of the summer rates from Portland to Tillamook City will not eliminate this unsatisfactory practice of people at this end resorting to and obtaining as cheap rates as other people. The solution of the whole thing and the unlawful practice is to give Tillamook people the same summer rates as those enjoyed by people who come here. What we don't like and want to protest against is the other fellow getting cheap summer rates, while we in this neck of the woods are deprived of them. We like to see visitors come here to spend their summer outings, and the railroad is to be commended for placing the rates at an exceedingly low figure, but we want to say in closing that it is just as much pleasure for people living here to visit Portland as it is for people living there to visit Tillamook. So it is our impression that the railroad should treat both alike.

The "Deestrick Skule" Play. The ladies of the Presbyterian Guild are to be congratulated on the grand success of their farce play "Deestrick Skule" as given last week at the Guild House. It was just as advertised, a laugh and fun from beginning to end. Everyone went home pleased. It cleared about $80 which will be paid on the Guild House. Every character was well acted, and acted, the old games well played, the old time dresses and costumes of all well taken, the local puns and "hits" all clean and funny without being offensive, the "bad" girls and boys put on the dance block, the fights, etc., especially the afternoon "speaking exercises were true to school life 50 years ago, the singing of the old songs, especially "Ben Bolt" and "Auld Lang Syne" touched the hearts of the older ones. The old gray "Hosier School Master" some guessed to be our genial friend, Judge Cal Worrall, who was the manager and director energy, interest and ability much of the success of the play was due. Several nearby towns have asked that the play be given there. In this connection the following card is self explanatory: The ladies of the Guild desire to thus publicly express their high appreciation and thanks to each one of the ladies and gentlemen who so kindly and ably assisted to make a success of our play, "Deestrick Skule." Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Schroder, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Bales, Mr. and Mrs. D. MacKenzie, Mesdames C. N. Drew, U. G. Jackson, L. E. Messer, Fred Poorman, N. J. Hill, Messrs Walter Baker, Dr. J. Olson, E. E. Koch, W. H. Hoskins, Ward Barrett, Fred Christenson and C. R. Worrall as director and manager.

Monthly of the Tillamook Commercial Club. The monthly meeting of the Tillamook Commercial Club was held on Monday evening with a good attendance of representative citizens and business men. The president, Fred C. Baker, in calling the meeting to order, called attention to the fact that the Southern Pacific had intimated that the company would increase their summer rates to Tillamook City from $4.00 to $5.00, a letter from General Passenger Agent John M. Scott being read to that effect. The general trend of the discussion was that the Southern Pacific should give the same rates to Tillamookers as those visiting this county in the summer. The president of the club was instructed to write Mr. Scott and protest against the increase.

The first subject for discussion was "Loganberries." This was assigned to Charles Kunze, but on account of sickness he was unable to attend. Several joined in the discussion, and it was pointed out how prolific the berries grew in this county, but nothing was advanced to enlighten those present how the industry could be made a financial success.

"Rural credit was ably handled by R. G. Dwight. He pointed out the need of cheap money for the farmer and as an illustration of this the enormous idle and unproductive land in Tillamook county and the small increase in the amount of milk produced. He contended that if the farmers could borrow money at 5 per cent a large amount of land would be cleared and made productive. Some of the speakers advocated bonding, some thought the banks should lend a hand, while others advocated forming a company and purchasing donkey engines and loaning them at certain rates. The question was raised that if cheap money could be obtained for farmers, why not cheap money for others. It was pointed out that it would take an act of the State Legislature to authorize a bonding system to borrow money to clear land. Owing to a diversity of opinion on this point the president appointed a committee consisting of W. G. Dwight, Carl Haberlach, M. J. Gersoni and Will Spalding to devise some plan and submit the same at the next meeting of the club.

The G. A. R. Encampment, which will take place in this city in June was taken up, and C. E. Reynolds and Frank Severance were present in behalf of the local post. Both asked the assistance of the club, as it was too big an affair for the post to take hold of alone, as there would be about 200 persons in the city for four or five days. They thought that it would require about $1000 for expenses in decorating the city and preparing for some attractions for the visitors.

The State and County Fairs was the next subject for discussion, all of the members of the Fair Board being present. J. H. Dunstan set the ball rolling, offering some valuable suggestions, followed by L. M. Kramer, of Cloverdale, and W. Spalding. It was stated that the board had decided to give $100.00 in prizes for a baby show, and that Bro. Blalock, who managed the fair last year, would have an exhibit in that department. It seemed to be the sense of the meeting that the club lend the Fair Board all the assistance possible in making the County Fair a success. The remainder of the evening was devoted to music by the military band, after which the Entertainment Committee served refreshments, one feature of which was logan berry pie, kindly given by Charles Kunze, who was to have spoken on logan berries.

HON. CALVIN R. WORRALL, Lawyer and General Business Counselor.

He has decided to make his home with us and has opened an office in Tillamook Block, adjoining the Commercial Club rooms, where he invites all to call and get acquainted. Mr. Worrall is also an expert accountant and will handle book-keeping, auditing books, collecting accounts, etc. In his capacity as general counselor, his large experience in the business world and his ability to make him a valuable and expert accountant and corporation lawyer, also in systematizing, advertising and enlarging any business, or in selling or buying a business; he has had charge as attorney, secretary and manager, also publicity and auditing for business firms, banks, wealthy men and corporations. As a lawyer he will give special attention to examining and passing on real estate titles, as well as the titles and values of any business or property for sale or trade.

Mr. Worrall is of mature years and wide experience in the law and business world, after a collegiate education, he graduated in 1876 with class honors from the law department of Indiana University; he has certificates to practice law in the highest courts in Indiana, Iowa, California and Oregon. He spent many years in the law in Indiana, where he had a well earned reputation as a lawyer. Politician and business man of large affairs; some 6 years ago he promoted a Bank and Trust Co., in New Mexico, and was its president and manager for two years, until his removal to California and later to Oregon.

Asked his reasons for locating in Tillamook, he stated that he recognized the wonderful future of this county and state, that he was tired of the shams, hypocrisy, immorality, graft and commercialism, the dollar above the man, of the large cities, that he loved the home ties of smaller towns.

Knowing that Mr. Worrall had been honored in office and otherwise, we asked him if he expected to seek political office or other honors here, his reply was "I come amongst you as a plain citizen, not to dictate or try to run things, not to assume to leadership in any lines, but to follow and to assist the older citizens here in developing the resources of your county and by word and action to aid others, who have been here longer, in building up and advertising your city and county. I do not claim superiority in any way, I have lived long enough to recognize that I am but a small atom on earth, I hope by my energy and whatever of ability, education and experience I may have to merit the esteem and patronage of the citizens of your county, that I may be enabled to live and be of use to others to assist in every way in my humble manner, in making Tillamook County larger in population and wealth, and its citizenship better in its business, home, school and church life."

As a lawyer Mr. Worrall specializes in a general advisory way, ever keeping in mind that old legal maxim "the best advice to a client is to keep out of court, but once in court to win." Contracts, the settling of estates, wills, deeds, guardianship, etc., will be given my best and most conscientious attention, always remembering charges as will not be a burden upon anyone, rich or poor, and a square deal to all.

Mr. Worrall is a 32 Degree Mason, a member of the Grand Lodge of Elks and was formerly a Past Chancellor K. of P. Lodge and the I. O. O. F. and Red Men. Amongst Mr. Worrall's many references we are permitted to quote from the following leading men of the nation:

Ex-President Taft: "He is a lawyer and business man of large experience."

Vice-President Marshall: "He is a man of excellent business ability and sterling character."

Ex-Governor of Indiana: "Any trust assigned him will be honestly and capably executed."

President and Cashier, 1st National Bank of Bloomington Ind.: "He did business with us 20 years, his reputation as a lawyer, a leading citizen and lawyer of ability, whom the public may safely trust."

Tom Taggart, leading wealthy citizen of Ind.: "After living in Indiana 25 years, he leaves with the respect and confidence of everyone who knew him."
