Editorial Snap Shots.

Boost for a deep channel from the city to the bay. That is the most important question that confronts this city.

The Oregonian sounded the right note when it called for economy in state, county, city and district affairs.

A large number of strangers come to the city daily, and there is every indication that business will be brisk this summer.

What is the matter, anyway, with the Progressive party in this county? Peradventure their political god has gone on a journey to a foreign country and does not know that a frost has overtaken his followers.

Tillamook county has enjoyed a splendid winter with beautiful Spring weather at the present time. But what a contrast to the severe winter in the East. Take everything into consideration and it is hard to beat Tillamook weather.

The taxpayers who voted for Oregon's new fangled, dual system of legislation and the other systems that helped to increase taxation, should be the last to complain about high taxation. Take your own medicine, gentlemen, without knocking.

More brick buildings for Tillamook City are being figured on. For the past five years the city has made considerable progress, and there is no doubt but what it will push to the front the same way the next five years and double in population.

One taxpayer claims that he is entitled to 3 per cent. rebate, as the present tax law is unconstitutional. That is enough to jar county officials who prepared the rolls. Will someone inform Governor West that the county officials are violating the law and get him to call out the militia, declare martial law and arrest every tax collector in the state, for if it is right and proper to arrest saloon keepers for violating the law, county officials who do likewise should be arrested also. Here is another splendid opportunity for the governor to play spectacular politics. It was Attorney L. M. Travis, of Eugene, who informed Tax Collector B. L. Beals that he was violating the law, who contended that Judge McGinn had decided that the law is unconstitutional. So the way to obtain the 3 per cent. should the lower court be affirmed, is to enter a protest when taxpayers pay their taxes.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that we see Circuit Judge L. T. Harris, of Eugene, is a candidate on the Republican ticket for supreme judge, for he is one of the best circuit judges in Oregon. We can say with a great deal of truth there is not a man in Oregon more qualified for the position he aspires to than Judge Harris. He is a good student and capable jurist, in fact, he works harder on cases coming before him than the attorneys, and he has gained the confidence of the people for his fairness and upright manner in administering justice since he presided in the circuit court. We hope the people will support Judge Harris, for he is a clean, upright gentleman, and his presence on the Supreme Bench would add honor and ability to that court. It may be well to mention that Eugene is to be congratulated in having R. A. Booth for U.S. Senator and Lawrence T. Harris for Supreme Judge, both of whom we admire for the fine records they have made as state legislators and circuit judge.

The dairy industry is receiving a serious jolt since the new tariff law went into effect, with a great slump in the price of butter, for the Pacific Coast is now the dumping ground for Kangaroo butter, which means a great financial loss to those engaged in dairying in the United States. California used to enjoy a thriving business in early spring in butter and cheese, but as a result of the new tariff butter is selling for 22c. per pound in that state, with every indication that it will go lower, as great quantities of butter are coming from Australia and New Zealand. This is what the Pacific Dairy Review says:

In former years California enjoyed an extensive early spring trade in butter and eggs in British Columbia, but further prospects for this outlet for our butter are apparently "done for" under the aggressive methods that Australia and New Zealand are employing to push their butter in the coast markets. Thus a cablegram brings the news that the steamer Niagara is on the way from the antipodes to Vancouver with 1,122,800 pounds of butter in her cargo.

Those who contended that the new tariff law would not cut much figure can now see that it knocked the bottom out of the butter market, with every indication that it will do the same thing with the cheese market.

Bro. Effenberger undertook to read the riot act and breathed vengeance upon political candidates who would not promise to give the Nehalemites what new roads and bridges they demand. Hold your wool, Bro., and do not go off half cocked. In the first place, pre-election promises savor of boss rule, and as road district No. 1 is receiving one third of the road fund we do not see that anyone can complain if the money will not do all the improvements demanded. The same conditions exist in the other two road districts where people are demanding roads and cannot obtain them for lack of funds. Let us give one or two illustrations. The Bayocean people are paying taxes to the amount of about $7,000 annually and is without a road, and the Sandlake people have been waiting patiently for years for a new road. Everybody knows that many important improvements have been made in the north part of the county, and we are sorry there was not more money available. But even in that respect, Bro. Effenberger ought to know that taxation is at the high water mark and that the taxpayers have just cause to complain.

There is more or less complaint, not only in this county, but in other counties, on account of high taxation, and it is not at all surprising, for there is not the same economy used in public affairs as in private. Yet the taxpayers are to blame for this, for they have taken up with most every ism that came along, with taxation increasing every year. In recent years there was the Oregon system agitation, Statement No. 1 ruction, anti-assembly agitation, and the sovereign rule of the people advocates, and notwithstanding that it was predicted that these fads would be a political salvation to the people of Oregon, they have not panned out that way. Increase in taxation is the best proof of this, with a large increase of expensive commissions and extravagant expenditures of State funds. There is not much hope of relief for the taxpayers as long as they take up this or that ism, only do drop it to take up with some few fad. The Oregonian had a pointed editorial on this subject that is worth repeating:

The state is tired of sky-rocket government and is ready to get down again to a bread-and-butter basis of straightforward, every-day administration. We have had entirely too much vaudeville, too much pirouetting over the surface and around the corners of real problems; too much fruitless beating of the reform basedrum; too much thunder and too little light. It is time to keep lady stenographers at their typewriters, and to quit attacking windmills with brass drums.

The state wants a rest. It wants more. It wants real efficiency and rigid economy in public affairs. It wants fewer appropriations for useless boards and superfluous commissions. It wants no more ventures into hazardous $450,000 irrigation and other enterprises. It wants less peep-hole government and more orderly and outright enforcement of law. It wants less uproar about the capture and punishment of an occasional bootlegger and a more serious conception and execution of public duty by the highest state officials. It wants fewer altercations between its Governor and the Legislature. It wants less frequent pursuit of the will-of-the-wisps of innovation and revolution and a more sober appreciation of the responsibilities and duties of public administration. It wants less espionage by "inspectors" of this, that and the other thing, for state, county, city, school district and township, and it wants more freedom to work and put by something for a rainy day, and also for next taxpaying time.

Isn't it about time the reign of the demagogue and the era of hysteria were over?

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured.
 There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. Is it not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle. "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." For sale by all dealers.

Chamberlain's Tablets for Constipation.
 For constipation, Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent. Easy to take, mild and gentle in effect. Give them a trial. For sale by all dealers.

The Forty Year Test.
 An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by all dealers.

Plain Truth That's Worth Money.
 Using Foley's Honey and Tar for a cough or cold may save you both sickness and money. F. F. Monahan, Menomonic, Wis., says: "I am exposed to all kinds of weather and I find Foley's Honey and Tar Compound always fixes me up in good shape when I catch cold or have a bad cough. I recommend it gladly. Relieve substitutes. For sale by all druggists."
