The Private Secretary.

The Dramatic Club are presenting a comedy this week, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, March 26, 27 and 28th., at the Star Theatre, that is worth the time and attention of the theatre loving people, and the fun is fast and often. All the members are appearing to good advantage in this play, and the many comments assure packed houses. The numerous requests to see this play caused the club to offer it for three nights so that every one may have a chance to witness something that is good in the comedy line. For as a fun maker the play "The Private Secretary" is very hard to beat. Remember it will be for three nights, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. So do not fail to see this play, its good.

A. E. Evans Married.

A wedding that will be of interest to the social world of Portland took place in Marshfield last evening when Miss Sadie E. Morrow and A. E. Evans were married. The young couple arrived on the Breakwater from Portland on Thursday. Miss Morrow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morrow, of Portland. She has been active in the social life of the Rose City for the past three years, being an active member of the Chauticler Club there. She is an accomplished musician and has traveled extensively.

Mr. Evans has been at Marshfield for the past three months. He is a musician of ability and a member of the Coos Bay Concert Band. Prior to coming to Marshfield he resided at Portland. He is a half brother of H. E. Morton, a prominent jeweler in Brandon.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Gregg of the First Christian church, Ben Levy was bridesman and Zelma Morton the bridesmaid. Only a few close friends of the couple were present at the ceremony.—Coos Bay Times.

Encampment Committees.

At the meeting of the committee having in charge the arrangements for the G. A. R. Encampment, on Saturday evening, at the Commercial Club, with Chairman Frank Severance presiding, the matter of naming committees was disposed of. It was the desire of the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. that the Tillamook Commercial Club assist them in making the arrangements, especially that pertaining to the reception and entertainment of the visitors. The president of the club appointed a representative committee of club members and their wives which was accepted at the meeting on Saturday. The W. R. C. appointed a committee to work with the club reception and entertainment committee. The secretary, Mrs. Rhea Anthes, desires us to publish the committees, which are as follows:

House Warming by Masons.

On Friday evening, March 20th., Masons from all over the county gathered at the new Masonic Hall in this city and there enjoyed themselves listening to a fine musical program, and a season of social intercourse. A fine luncheon was also served.

Deputy Grand Master W. C. Bristol delivered the address of the evening. His ideas were based upon the thought that primarily we are selfish; we should overcome this defect through self control, ever endeavoring to have consideration for the other fellow. He said that many of us were prone to desire laws passed for the other fellow to obey, while we, as a rule, desired our own sweet way. More unselfishness would require fewer laws.

Grand Secretary Jas. F. Robinson, and Senior Grand Deacon Weston G. Shellenberger both gave short addresses.

The musical program consisted of a violin solo by E. E. Koch; cornet solo by Warren Glaze; vocal solo by Mrs. D. A. MacKenzie; vocal solo by M. J. Gersoni; guitar duet by Messers Eberhardt and Thomas; piano duet by Mrs. Koch and Miss Alice Todd; vocal solo by A. H. Gaylord; a "Special" vocal by Warren Glaze.

There were about thirty Masons and Stars from Bay City and nearly that many from the south end of the county. Shortly after their arrival the grand lodge officers were taken for an automobile ride about the country which they greatly enjoyed. The visitors left on the Saturday morning train.

Call for Warrants.
All county road warrants outstanding will be paid upon presentation. Interest ceases March 24th, 1914.
