Tillamook Headlight.

Editorial Snap Shots.

Swat the fly and swat the numerous State commissions.

Registration will close on the last day of this month, or just seven days more left for those who want to do so and take part in the primary nominating election. You had better hurry.

Simply from a civilization standpoint we believe that the United States should, to put a stop to the repeated revolutions in the South American republics, exercise a protectorate over them.

The Tillamook Headlight will celebrate its 25th anniversary in its new building, for it was on June 8, 1888, that the pioneer newspaper of Tillamook county made its debut. We shall extend an invitation to the other newspapers of the county to celebrate that event.

And down goes the price of cheese as a result of free trade.
 As the Democratic tariff law was passed to reduce the price of everything raised on farms, no one should feel surprised, for this is not the first time that the Democratic party did that.
 Cheese is quoted at 13c. in California.

Judge Webster Holmes gave the prize fight law a knock out blow last week, and having defined the law point, it is now up to his honor to decide the physical side of the question with Bro. Shrode, champion boxer and prize fighter of the Tillamook Commercial Club, with Attorneys Johnson and Gersoni as backers.

Our Democratic friend and free trade standpatter, Bro.
 Trombley, appears to be awfully touchy. That is not surprising, for he must know that free trade is an injustice to every lumberman, fisherman and dairyman in this county. Say, Bro., when you used to call us a Republican standpatter we never got grouchy or peaved.

It's too bad that Uncle Sam, after spending an enormous amount of money to build the canal, that Johnny Bull should dictate to this country how it should run it. What a gall. The funny part of it is there are so many Democratic "standpatters" who coincide with the idea of depriving American vessels of free tolls.

Since the new tariff law went into effect the import of foodstuffs increased twenty per cent.
 One thing is noticeable, however, the Meat Trust is using the new free trade tariff law to fill its coffers and at the same time make the consumer pay exorbitant prices for meat, for they are shipping meat from their plants in foreign countries.

The Spectator wanted to know what was the matter with Tillamook. We would like to know what is the matter with some of Portland's crooked business men who go into the different counties and impose on people and county officials? If it is grafters that the Spectator is after, then it should first clean up the concocters of graft in Portland, and then it would not be inquiring as to what is the matter with Tillamook.

As a number of names on the Republican ticket will have to be rotated it will require 377 changes to be made in the ballots, which means a long tedious job to print them. In some counties, where there are more than three times as many voting precincts as in Tillamook, it is going to take some rustling to print the ballot. For instance, it will require 13 different forms of ballot for every precinct in this county for the Republican ballot, and more than that number in other counties.

And still another newspaper was born to Nehalem last week, Sam Cotton giving birth to the Nehalem Times. It is well to mention that Mr. Cotton was wet nurse to the Bay City Examiner, but it did not thrive very well because of so much "hot air" in the infant's food stuff. It is to be hoped that the Times will not die of infant parpalsy after the election is over, for we have a vague idea that the new infant was born for the purpose of sucking the office seekers.

Gus C. Moser paid Tillamook a visit this week, who is a candidate for governor on the Republican ticket. Mr. Moser is a wide-a-wake business man with plenty of push and energy and good common horse sense to make a conservative and economical governor, which Oregon badly needs. It is well to mention that Mr. Moser was an active member of the last State legislature and is conversant with the needs of Oregon. He is broad minded and in favor of consolidating the numerous and expensive commissions that have come into existence.

Who's paying the fiddler, anyway, on inflated farm land? By way of amusement get your pencil and figure it out. Farms have changed hands quite often in this county, and most every time they did so a commission of 5 per cent was charged by the real estate agent, thus it can be seen that if a farm changed hands five times 25 per cent was added to the value and in ten transactions 50 per cent. If anyone is wondering why it is that farms in this county have an inflated valuation and that taxation is burdensome, it is real estate agents who are responsible for this unsatisfactory condition. There are many dairymen who are now paying dearly for this "unearned increment" with long hours of toil.

If Roosevelt had been president he would have handled the situation different to the dilloratory tactics of President Wilson and the Mexicans would have respected the Stars and Stripes long before this. This is conceded by most everybody. But having been forced into a war with that country, we cannot say that we regret it, as it was only a question of time when this unfortunate event would happen. This means the annexation of Mexico and a forcible reminder to other South American republics must cease their repeated revolutions. We look upon a war with Mexico as a step toward civilizing that and neighboring republics, where life and property must be respected.

We notice that there is a tendency on the part of some people to criticise the last State legislature for excessive taxation. This is not fair, for it was by direct vote of the people that State taxes were so high, for they were more extravagant in voting appropriations than the legislature. People who complain about high taxation can thank the dual Oregon system of legislation for increase in taxation, and as this is what the people clamored for they ought to be willing to take their own medicine, which they don't appear willing to do. Yet this is exactly what a number of persons predicted would happen when those who shouted loudest for the Oregon system. Just as well admit that the taxpayers were "stung" as a result of the system.

Our Democratic friends must admit that the tariff was altered to reduce the price of everything raised on the farm, which our Democratic friend, Bro.
 Trombley, stands sponsor for, and lauds free trade. The proof of the pudding is in the eating.
 We will quote a few figures to show how the bottom is deepening out of the price of cheese on account of free trade. Cheese in New York is quoted at 14c., in Wisconsin at 16c. and in California at 13c. Tillamook cheese with no demand in California, where a large proportion of the cheese manufactured in this county is disposed of. This proves that the new tariff law is accomplishing what it was intended —reduce the incomes of dairymen and farmer. Before another week is past the price of Tillamook cheese will take a decided drop.

Sermons by the Gunmen.

The four gunmen who were ex-ecutted in New York on conviction of murdering Herman Rosenthal, a gambler who had fallen out with the police lieutenant that had been his secret partner, were not born criminals. Wintrop D. Lane made an investigation of the personal and family history of all four for the Survey. He found there was no evidence of lawbreaking by the parents of any of them and that the boys when young were no worse than the average. But all went to the streets at an early age and were misled by the example of criminals who got "easy money" by devious ways. They drifted into the ways of the underworld, with a result which all the world knows.

As they saw that the law's stern penalty could not be escaped, they sent messages from their death chamber which should be pondered by every boy in the nation and by every parent. "Whitely Lewis," one of the quartet, emphasized bad company as the cause of all his trouble. "Lefty Louie" added a special warning against the man who gets rich by methods that are not "straight." A fellow who honestly earns $6 a week is better off than he who gets $100 a week, if he does not get it straight.
 All agreed that they were once in affluent circumstances and boasted of the number of their "friends" on the East Side. But when stormy weather came these "friends" fled and only representatives of the synagogue and the church joined the straggling members of their families in giving them aid and comfort.

While there are noble grounds for good conduct than mere utility, it is a fact, old as the history of the race, that crime does not pay. The boy who joins a gang to break the law is certain of a bad end. If he is not found dead in the street, victim of some feud, he is likely to end his life in prison or on the gallows. No boy when he begins an irregular life dreams of ending it as a thug or a murderer, but his criminal environment acts like quicksand, sucking him in until it is almost impossible for him to escape. The warning issued by the four gunmen is the opinion of experts, who gathered their knowledge in the expensive school of experience. Such a cry should not go unheeded. Parents who have given their children the freedom of the streets should consider it well.
 Boys who are just starting on the perilous journey should think of the sad mess of life made by the four gunmen. None of the four was arrested until he was in his teens.
 None of the four could be properly called a victim of circumstances.
 Each had a chance to make an honest living and become a respected citizen. But their dislike of toil and their love of fine clothing and luxuries which they saw temporarily enjoyed by criminals they met in low resorts caused them to take up a course of life which ended so tragically Monday morning.

Made My Life
 Worth Living

"I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me," writes Mrs. L. Dunlap, of Oak Grove, Mich. "I have suffered with pains in my back and under my shoulder blade for a number of years, also with a poor appetite and constipation.
 I tried all of the remedies that I heard of,
 and a number of doctors, but got no relief.
 Finally a friend told me to try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I got a bottle of them and they soon helped my stomach; by their gentle action my bowels became more regular. Today I feel like praising them to all who suffer as I did, for they have cured me and made my life worth living."
