The hostess served a dainty lunch, which all enjoyed. The invited guests were Mesdames Halton, Severance, Bales, MacKenzie, Small and Zachmann and Miss Maude Overfelt.

Hiner & Reed have just started an up-to-date oxyacetylene welding shop at Hiner's machine shop. They weld cast iron, steel, bronze, brass, aluminum, nickel, copper, broken gears, pulleys, shafts, rollers, in fact, can weld almost anything. In one case a saw arbor was broken off at the collar which would have cost $60 to replace, but this was welded without taking it out of the bearings for $4. In another case a boiler which had a flue sheet cracked between the flues, was repaired in six hours at a saving of $105. Hiner & Reed make bids on all kinds of welding and cutting. In establishing a welding shop in this city it will mean a great saving in money and time to those who have broken machinery. They also build pressure tanks with all seams welded, which are lighter and stronger than riveted tanks. While out buggy riding on Sunday Miss Reba Powell came near meeting with a serious accident. The horse backed the buggy off the grade near
