

TILLAMOOK HIGH SCHOOL

Alumni Holds Interesting Meeting in High School Auditorium. The annual meeting of the Tillamook Alumni Association, which was held at the High School building on the evening of Friday, May 15th, although not as well attended as might have been, was one of the most interesting meetings that the Association has ever had since its organization some years ago.

After the minutes of the preceding meeting had been read and approved, the president, Mr. R. R. Stillwell, brought up as first order of business, the election of officers for the ensuing year. Those elected were: Elbert E. Ginn, Class of '12, President; Edgar G. Munson, class of '05, first vice president; John Ebinger, class of '13, second vice president; Gladys Beals, class of '11, third vice president; and Mabel Goynne, class of '11, secretary and treasurer.

After the election of officers Mr. Stillwell gave charge of the meeting over to the newly elected official staff, in order that they might transact the regular business as they should see fit. After the secretary pro tem, Gladys Beals, had read the financial statement of the association, the matter of the annual Alumni banquet was brought up for discussion. As it was impossible to do anything definite with this matter, the president appointed the several committees and fixed Wednesday, May 20, as a day for them to get together and decide upon suitable plans. It was decided to hold the meeting at eight p. m. in the high school building.

The committees appointed were: On arrangements, Edgar Munson, chairman, and Gladys Beals and Elsie Lamb; on entertainment and refreshments, Elmer Allen, chairman, Lillie Anderson, John Ebinger, and Ruth Holmes; on invitations, Gladys Beals, chairman, Ralph U. Moore, Edna Poorman, and Bernice Lucas; on finances, John Aschim, chairman, Robert Stillwell, and Benly Stam; and on receiving new members, Howard Drew, chairman, Cloyd Dawson, and Grace Whitehouse.

BAY CITY ENTERTAINS.

The Boosters Band Will Visit Nehalem on Sunday, May 31st. Cloverdale, June 14th.

The Tillamook County Boosters' Band held their bi-monthly reunion at Bay City on Sunday May 17th. Their next get-together rehearsal and concert will be held at Nehalem City on May 31st, and on June 14th Cloverdale will be the place decided on for their entertainment.

Bay City and the country side turned out in large numbers for the Tillamook County Boosters' Band entertainment held there on last Sunday. It is hard to tell which were the entertainers, the band or the hospitable people of Bay City. Early in the morning the Cloverdale band accompanied by a number of people from the "south end" came rolling into town in their autos, and taking their breakfast in this city, proceeded on to Bay City. The Wheeler and Nehalem boys came down on the early motor car, and the Tillamook boys went down in the big auto truck of the City Transfer Company. A large number of Tillamook citizens following the band boys on the noon time motor car.

The Tillamook County Boster's band held their rehearsal in the forenoon and at 1 o'clock were entertained at a banquet arranged by the band boys of Bay City and their ladies, who deserve much praise and credit for the bountiful spread. The ladies deserve special praise for the bounty of the spread and the excellence of the service. Those in charge were the Mesdames W. C. Trombley, W. H. Moon, Sarah Petey, E. B. Jacoby, J. W. Jennings, A. L. Nichols and A. D. Simmons, who were the lunch committee and the Misses Beatrice Clark, Maud Moon, Edith Jennings, Verna Sesten and Mrs. Harley Conner who served.

W. C. Trombley conducted the afternoon concert on the Main street of the city with a 47-piece band, a large number of people being gathered together to hear the music. The Tillamook County Boosters' band organization was then introduced to the people by Rollie W. Watson, its purpose and aims explained, in connection with bringing the people of the both ends of the county together in social and business intercourse, the Booster excursion from this county being planned by the band boys to take in the San Francisco exposition next year, and the many advantages afforded by this live organization from the point of making our country better known the country over generally and the advertising feature principally afforded by the organization in placing Tillamook county to the front. It was also explained that the bands of Nehalem, Cloverdale, Wheeler, Bay City and Tillamook should receive the financial support and encouragement of the citizens of their various towns and of the county as a whole, to help the good work of the boys along, as they are deserving of special consideration.

The citizens of Bay City done their selves proud and the band boys appreciate the hospitality shown on this occasion.

OPENING OF BEACH SEASON BIG SUCCESS.

Garibaldi Beach Boosters Give Attraction with Clam Bake and Baseball Game.

The summer season is now on at the beaches along the P. R. & N. from Manhattan to Garibaldi. And more than that, if the season as a whole is as complete a success as the opening day, Sunday was, we will be safe in saying that by fall the Tillamook beaches will be the most popular ones in the state.

In all probability the success of the big picnic at Rockaway and the adjoining beaches last Sunday was due in the greatest measure to the fact that there was co-operation in its fullest sense among the promoters and boosters of the various beach resorts along the coast between Tillamook and Nehalem bays. This organization known as the Garibaldi Beach Boosters' Association, and the success of their effort might well be considered as a good lesson to men in other lines of business to get together in their efforts for development.

The first half of the day's program, which consisted of boat races, foot races, the tug-o-war, and various other side features, for the purpose of keeping up the interest between the main events, together with the clam bake and basket dinner, were given at Lake Lytle, on the ground and in the lake adjoining the station house property. As soon as dinner was dispensed with the people began to leave the lake for Elmore Park, where the baseball game between Rockaway and a team from this city was to be played.

Of the morning sports it is hard to state which was the most exciting. The boat race which was the first feature on the program, was an exciting event from the very start until Bob Norwood and Horace Sappington pulled ahead with their boat and finished the race in the lead by feet. Then came the free for all 100-yard dash for which there were 16 entries. The race was hardly started when John Ebinger, of this city, forced his way to the front and maintained his lead to the tape, winning the event with over a yard to spare.

The next event, the tug-o-war, was perhaps the most hotly contested feature of the day. The two opposing teams, the Rockaway men and the Jetty huskies from Bar View, were composed of eight men each. The two teams were, seemingly, very evenly proportioned, and when the pull began it seemed that neither side was going to be able to make the advantage until after nearly to minutes' steady strain the Rockaway team began to gain rope and it was not long then until they had pulled their opponents over the line.

If a good meal is the best way to reach a man's heart, the ladies from along the beach certainly had it in mind to win the hearts of all the visitors to their resorts with the clam bake and basket dinner. The tables which were spread under an open tent down the railroad from the south end of the station house were literally loaded with appetizing luxuries. In fact this was the crowning feature of the day.

The ball game which started at 2:30 was one of exceptional interest considering the roughness of the ground on which it was played. Up till the end of the third inning the game went fast and not until after this point was there any runs made. It was in the fourth that Tillamook landed on the Rockaway pitcher for hits and turned their hits into runs. However, Probst got out of this difficulty with no further damage than letting in two runs.

From this time on the Tillamook men continued to land on the venerable and much-lauded pitcher from Portland and by successive hits in three of the remaining frames, runs were forced over until six was the total number. At one time "Brick" Crimmins slashed a dirty one out over center field that would have gone for the four bases in a regulation field, but because of the ground rules he was only allowed two bases.

On the other hand, Rockaway was at no time able to fathom King, the Tillamook portholder. Only one hit was obtained from him, and had it not been for the roughness of the grounds, the ball would have been fielded in sufficient time to have given him credit for a hitless and scoreless game. As it was the score was 6 to 0. The lineup follows: Rockaway—J. Jasmine, cf; V. Nelson, 2b; McPherson, 1b; Earnst, c; F. Beaty, ss; H. Sappington, 3b; W. Bergen, lf; C. Byers, rf; Probst, p; Kentucky Joe and A. Davis, field.

Tillamook—Heitsman, c; King, p; Mills, 1b; J. Ebinger, 2b; Wallace, 3b; Stanley, ss; De Lillies, rf; Crimmins, lf; H. Ebinger and Rhodes, cf.

MEMORIAL DAY

Garland not with laurel nor with bay, Not with yew, nor cypress as of olden; Rather bring the offspring of the May; Blossoms, red and white, and blue and golden. Bring a wreath for every hero brave, Let our soldiers know they're not forgotten; On this day when silent walks are trodden Plant a stary flag on every grave. Never more shall roar the cannon's mouth, Nor shall musket rattling break their slumber; There's no more a North, no more a South, Blue and Gray are one in rank and number. May no sound of discord ever rend the air, May the sod in peace grow green above them, May their country ever honor, love them, And with blossoms keep their memory fair. Garland not with laurel, nor with bay, Not with yew, nor cypress as of olden; Rather bring the offspring of the May Blossoms, red, and white, and blue and golden. Memory's Muse through gentler eres now sees, Now she lifts the branches of the willow, Lays for Blue and Gray a floral pillow, Smiles through tears, and bids them sleep in peace.
