BEST SCHOOL EXHIBIT.

District or Club Booth.

(Ten Dollar Banner, Given by C. R. Worrall.)

The County Fair Board will furnish transportation to the State Fair to the two boys who win memberships to the School Fair Camp by being awarded the highest number of points on two of any of the ten projects listed in the Industrial Club Bulletin, these points to be awarded by winning out at the local and County Fair.

Rules Governing School Department Contests.

- The parents or guardians of boys and girls who enter the contests must make a statement certifying that the article to be exhibited was made or grown by the one who is to make the exhibit. This statement should be filed at the time the entry is made.
- Competitors may make but one entry for the same prize, but they may enter as many different contests as they wish, so long as they keep in their class.
- There will be no entry fee in this department nor gate charges for admission for those having creditable exhibits.
- Those desiring to enter the contests in ciphering, spelling, declamation and running, must win in a tryout in their school and possibly later in a locality tryout before being eligible to enter these contests at the County Fair.

(Teachers are requested to give these tryouts and present to the ones winning a statement showing that they excelled in the one or more tryouts. A separate statement should be prepared for each subject. In case this is not done by the teacher the school board, upon request of any applicant, may proceed to conduct said tryout after having given ten days' notice to all eligible boys and girls, residing within the district, either by posting written notice at postoffice or by local or county paper. The County Superintendent will aid in the carrying out of these tryouts where requested to do so. Winners in these district tryouts are to give notice of the fact immediately following the contest. These district tryouts must be reported to the County Superintendent not later than Aug. 15, 1914. You will then be given notice of the time and place of the local tryout in which you are supposed to take part. This depends upon the number of districts planning to compete at the County Fair. If the number is not too large there will be no local tryout, but the winners in the districts will compete at the County Fair. These contests will be public. The building that will accommodate the largest number of people will be selected for the contests in Declamation, Spelling and Ciphering. The speed contests will be given where all may have an opportunity to witness them. Competent judges will be selected for each contest and a regular system will be followed in selecting a choice. In spelling the words will be taken from the Annual Spelling Contests in the Champion Spelling Book, beginning on page 43, page 81, page 110 and so on, if the contest should be spelling down. If the contest is decided by the spelling of one hundred words, they will be selected from the words of the Annual Spelling Contests. The ciphering will be rapid work in the four fundamental operations (addition, subtraction, multiplication and division). Rapidity and accuracy will be the points for counting.)

I also desire to call the boys and girls' attention to the Grand Prize of a trip to the Panama Canal Exposition some time in 1915, to the ten boys or girls who win first place on each of the ten following:

- Corn growing.
- Potato growing.
- Girls' canning and preserving.
- Girls' cooking and baking.
- Boys and Girls' poultry raising.
- Girls' sewing.
- Boys' pig feeding contest.
- Boys and girls' gardening contest.
- Dairy herd record keeping.
- Manual arts.

(At the State Fair this fall. See particulars in Corvallis Bulletin.)

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY.

Will be offered to the people of the Pacific Northwest on Thursday, June 4th next at the complete disposal sale of the Montinore herd of A. J. C. Club Registered Jerseys, owned by John F. Forbis, of Montinore, Dilley, Oregon, consisting of 76 head of highly bred animals of both sexes. An extended pedigree of each animal to be sold is printed in a sales catalogue which is now ready. These cattle are bred for economical production. One good Jersey cow will yield as much profit as 10 scrub cows. One outcross from the Montinore herd on a scrub herd will increase its profits 100 per cent. Send for catalogues to T. Withycombe, 432 12th street, Portland, Oregon, sales manager.

ASSISTANT STATE ENGINEER VISITS TILLAMOOK.

On a tour of inspection of the highways in Tillamook County, William P. Butler, assistant state highway engineer, accompanied County Surveyor U. G. Jackson last Thursday and Friday. Mr. Butler was invited to Tillamook by Frank A. Rowe of Wheeler, chairman of the exploiting committee of the Good Roads Boosters Club. Mr. Butler stated to a representative of the Headlight that he was particularly interested in permanent road work and believed that the weather conditions in this county demand careful study before any general road policy is determined for the future. The establishment of a trunk line from the north to the south through the county he believed the first step in the direction of permanent roads. Whether this be accomplished by a bond or by the regular road levy he does not care, but the establishment of good roads and the routing by Surveyor Jackson in the past three years he believes that the ground work for activity in permanent road construction is well prepared. He is of the opinion that the road fund wisely expended next year will give the County Court an opportunity to show excellent results, and if the energy is properly directed the beginning of permanent highway construction should be well in hand before the end of 1915. A little added to this each year will give Tillamook a splendid system of roads. Mr. Butler found no opposition here to public improvement of a permanent character with the funds judiciously expended. In fact, he found universal support to the plan to prepare a definite road policy for this county. Those best informed favor a staple constructive policy without bonded debt and believe that with careful supervision Tillamook County need not lag behind other counties of the state in highway improvements. Mr. Butler informed Judge Homer Mason that the state highway engineering department will provide free of cost to this county all plans and specifications for steel and cement bridges so that the greatest efficiency will be obtained in their purchase and construction.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETS.

Monday evening was the regular monthly meeting of the Tillamook Commercial Club, and an effort was made to get business men to attend, which did not meet with the success that was anticipated, for when President Gaylord called the meeting to order there was but a slim attendance. George Henderson was the first speaker, and he deplored the lack of interest taken in these meetings by business men. He said there was a great deal of work for the club to do, and it was disappointing to find so few business men present. Rollie W. Watson gave a good talk on civic improvements, dwelling principally on "Clean-Up" day, June 11. He also called attention to the excessive speed of autos, and stated that nothing was done to prevent the dangerous practice. Ira Smith enlightened the meeting on "Clean Up" Day, and stated that he was going to organize a boy city council on Friday next at the school. Secretary Worrall commended by the business men. He complained of the lack of interest in these meetings by the business men. He stated that he had sent out 150 invitations, to business men and others to attend that meeting, but they appeared to be indifferent about attending. He poured some "hot shot" into those who were criticizing him for taking an active part in the club and in his effort to accomplish something. He called them "knockers," no matter what was undertaken to improve the city and county, they stood back and criticised. He then related what the club was doing to advertise the cheese industry, and bring new settlers here, and mentioned several matters that should be discussed by the club, especially "Clean-Up" day and the G. A. R. encampment. The latter caused quite an animated discussion, as C. E. Reynolds was opposed to spending any of the money collected in this city for an excursion to the beach during the encampment. Several speakers coincided with him, but Fred C. Baker took a different view. He contended that the G. A. R. encampment was coming here as the city's guests, and it was natural to expect that those who came from the interior would like to spend a short time on the beach. Calvin Worrall looked at the matter in a similar light. He said we ought to be broad minded and show visitors everything of interest, especially the beaches and bar improvements. D. L. Shrode thought there had been some misunderstanding about the excursion, but as those who wanted to go to the beach would have to pay their own fare, he thought it a good idea. George Henderson then read a letter from parties who wanted some information about buying 400 acres of land for a model dairy farm. This soon developed into a discussion that caused some surprise, as there appeared to be an objection to large farms falling into the hands of a few. This caused some sharp criticism and a lively discussion when Attorney C. W. Talmage jokingly made the remark that a man ought to be put out of the way for wanting to procure that amount of land in this county.

Although the discussions were heated and personal at times there was considerable interest taken in the meeting by those present, after which refreshments and cigars were passed around.

SOME HOT SHOTS.

The Board of Directors of Club Makes Pertinent Remarks.

Twenty-five progressive citizens met at the Club rooms last Monday evening in response to 150 invitations sent out. They made up in earnestness what they lacked in numbers, and many subjects were discussed for the benefit of the city. But the business men, doctors, lawyers, county and city officials and bankers were only conspicuous by their absence, and some "hot shot" was thrown at the absentees and Tillamook citizens generally for the lack of support of the club.

The purpose of the Club under progressive management is to do something to build up the city and county, by bringing here more people and money, and improve the conditions of the county and its citizens, and with the hearty co-operation of all the citizens much can be done, but if the merchants and others with money invested here stay out of the club or stay away when invited to meetings where matters of importance come up, it is time to take notice and to separate the workers from the drones and kickers, and have the live ones stand together. The city and county can best be advanced by and through the Commercial Club. The officers are working, spending their time and money, without pay, to this end, and it is a business outrage that only about 60 citizens are supporting the club with a paltry $1.50 a month dues. There ought to be 200 or more on its roll or honor. If the business and professional citizens think they can get along without the club and its help, and want to just fool along in the old ruts of old fogyism, its time the balance of us knew it. If they want to leave us alone we can leave them alone and run the club for our own selfish interests, or not run it at all, or turn it into a social club. A city is known by its Commercial Club. A progressive active club denotes that kind of a city, and people with money to invest are looking for such cities and not dead ones. The club officers are working to make this club worthy of the name "Commercial Club," to give you a business administration and not solely a social club nor a place for boxing matches and dances. Let's do something! But we can't do it with our present support. The club is in debt, its running expenses heavy, its for your benefit and all our citizens and it's up to you whether it wins or not, your presence, your little dues, your kind word is needed to help it. We thank those who attended last Monday's meeting and helped discuss the vital matters presented. See another column for what the club is doing. Will you come and be a worker or will you be a drone or kicker?

By order, Board of Directors.

DEATH OF FELIX ROY.

We have to record the death of Felix Roy, of Nehalem, who died at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland, on May 21st. Deceased had been failing in health for over a year. Mr. Roy came to Tillamook County about 23 years ago, and took up a homestead at Nehalem, where he has since resided, and was one of the prominent citizens of that part of the county. He was born at Sainte Martine County, Chateauguay, Canada, and at the time of his death was 76 years of age. He leaves one sister, Vergenie Marleau, who resides at Montreal Canada, and several nephews, two of whom Joseph and Hermisdo Roy came from there and did what they could for the deceased previously to his death. The funeral took place at Nehalem on Saturday, a large number of his neighbors and friends attending. Deceased was not married, and was an active worker of the Nehalem grange.

WEDDING.

Rev. D. MacKenzie united in marriage in the parlor of The Hotel Ramsey at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 23rd Mr. Tillman Trent and Miss Katherine Bauer, of Neskwim. A host of friends attended, among the most prominent were Mr. J. W. Myer and Joseph Aufdermauer and many others. Mr. Trent has been a trusted employe of J. W. Myer & Son for several years, and is quite a factor among the young folks. Mrs. Trent has been teaching school at Oretown and is very popular among her pupils and the younger society set. Among the list of congratulations received the Headlight wishes a happy and prosperous life.
