

Advantages of a Checking Account

II. Checks as Receipts.

Before cashing a check, payee must sign his name on back in acknowledgment of receipt of the money.

All checks which depositor issues are returned to him after being cashed by the bank.

These checks constitute a valid receipt for the moneys paid, and safeguard the depositor against claims for duplicate payments.

Checking accounts are always welcome at this bank, subject only to reasonable restriction as to minimum average balances.

The amendments to the city charter are necessary for the better administration of city affairs and our citizens should co-incide with them. They are O.K. The city council acted wisely in giving the ordinances plenty of publicity, and we hope the citizens will vote for this necessary legislation so that the city council can better administer city affairs.

Instructions regarding the operations of the new postal money order system, which goes into effect July 1, were sent to postmasters throughout the country. Under the new plan a money order, although drawn on a specified office, may be cashed at any money order postoffice within 30 days of its issue, after which it may be paid only at the office on which it was drawn or repaid at the office of issue.

We understand owing to the exorbitant price asked for the land on Gold Creek for the erection of a new salmon hatchery, the Fish Commission will take no further action in the matter and allow it to drop, as it does not feel justified paying more for the land than it is worth, and, no doubt, the taxpayers will agree with them. The money that would have been expended here will be diverted to hatcheries in other counties, on account of the high price placed upon the land by Mr. Wing, the owner.

Judge Webster Holmes heard the injunction suit of W. G. Dwight and F. Joplin and A. Giebisch, partners doing business under the firm name of Giebisch & Joplin, in which plaintiff asked for a temporary injunction and damages, to restrain defendants from trespassing upon property that he claims to have an interest in on account of Geo. W. Kiger deeding him part of the land, the defendants claiming that they were in possession of the land before Kiger deeded the land to Dwight. The Judge refused to grant a temporary injunction and ordered that Geo. W. Kiger be made a party to the suit. The case will be tried on its merits at some future date. Attorneys H. T. Botts and Stapleton & Sleight, of Portland, are for the defendants and Attorney Oak Nolan for plaintiff.
