

Advantages of a Checking Account

Not the least of the advantages of having a checking account at this bank is the acquaintance which it promotes between the depositor and our officers.

This acquaintance enables our officers to get in touch with the interests of the depositor, and to lend all the co-operation consistent with conservative banking.

Our officers gladly welcome the opportunity to extend the facilities of the bank to new depositors.

Bays-Johnson Nuptials.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dunstan, foster parents of the bride, on Tuesday, June 30th, at 11 a.m., when Miss Crystal M. Johnson was united in marriage to Maurice J. Bays of Pacific City, Oregon. Rev. Herbert F. White, of the United Brethren Church, officiating. The bride is a school teacher having taught at the Fairview school last year, while the groom is a dairy farmer at Pacific City.

The home was tastily decorated for the occasion with ferns, roses and evergreens. The bride wore a messaline silk gown trimmed and flounced with silk shadow lace, with a long flowing bridal veil to complete the attire. After the ceremony about 27 guests enjoyed the bounteous dinner, a feature of which was the cutting of the beautiful bridal cake. The guests were the immediate family and friends of the contracting parties. Many beautiful and useful presents were received by the bride. The young couple are well and favorably known here, the Bays family having lived in the county over 20 years, Mr. Bays' father being the Hotel man at Beaver. Their friends and relatives join in wishing them a long and prosperous married life.

Sander Durrer Wedding.

A large congregation gathered at the Catholic Church on Tuesday morning to witness the wedding of Leo B. Sander and Miss Thresa Durrer, which was performed by Rev. F. Van Clarenbeck the pastor. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos Durrer, and a young woman greatly respected in the community, and the groom is the son of the late Jos Sander, who formerly resided in this county, but removed to Medford about eight years since. At noon the bridal party was entertained at the home of the bride's parents and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Durrer gave a banquet to a large party at the Grange Hall at Fairview, which was largely attended. This was followed by dancing and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Bays, who were married the same day attended the gathering, and a general good time was indulged in to celebrate the happy events.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sanders left on the train the next afternoon for Medford, where they will reside. They were the recipients of many useful presents, and they left with the best wishes of a large number of friends for their future happiness.
