

The Prime Objects

of every money earner should be to lay up something for the future; to reach middle life with something substantial to show for the labor of years; to have a home and property.

Then the inevitable emergency, or declining years can be approached without flinching; trouble can be looked in the eye.

The world owes us all a living and more, too. The "more" represents what we put aside in a good bank where it may grow in safety.

Married on August 1st, in this city Leon Berry and Miss Frankie Smith. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. L. Shrode. Both are highly respected young people, the groom being the sawyer at the Coats Lumber Co.'s mill, while the bride was employed as clerk at the post office. The happy couple spent a few days honeymoon in the country. They will make their home in this city, and their many friends wish them a long life of happiness.

Thomas D. Stoughton and Peter J. Gotelli, of Portland, were in the city on Monday. They were out for a three weeks summer outing and hiked it from Astoria, coming in by way of a favorite route, which is becoming a favorite route for those who use chank's pony for means of transportation. They are delighted with the scenery in Tillamook County. They left to continue their journey along the coast, taking the road into Sandlake. This is one of the most healthful and enjoyable ways for young men to spend their summer vacations.

Justice of the Peace Stanley raised the bond of $2,500 to $10,000 in the case of Ray Cooper who is charged with the murder of M. Ackers at Blaine, and being unable to obtain that amount he was locked up in the county jail pending the meeting of the grand jury. The next term of the circuit court does not take place until November, and in the meantime Cooper will have plenty of time to consider the seriousness of the crime with which he is charged. He was elected manual training teacher of the Portland schools, which position he will have to relinquish.

At Cloverdale, on Saturday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Owen, Miss Mable Owen became the wife of Ralph D. Werschkul, the Rev. F. S. Ford, pastor of the Nestucca Valley Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony. The young couple are very popular with the young people of Cloverdale and vicinity, the groom being a son of Mr. D. T. Werschkul. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Werschkul are members of two well known and highly respected families of the south part of the county, and they carry with them the best wishes of a large circle of relatives and friends for their future happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heyd and Mr. W. J. Collins have returned home, having spent last Sunday at Cloverdale, Ore., on the ranch of Mrs. Lizzie Johnson and family. Sunday morning fishing was enjoyed, with some fine catches. At noon they all returned to the ranch to do justice to a tempting chicken dinner, which was served by the hostess, Mrs. L. Johnson. After dinner the party went four miles in autos to a clam bake at the Brooten baths, where also some interesting speeches and singing were heard. Those enjoying the outing were: Leslie Johnson, jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. Bailey, Mr. Elma Johnson, Glen White, W. T. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heyd, Miss Iva Johnston, Mrs. Lizzie Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. Baotman. Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Baotman entertained the party at their home with music and social chat.

War News for Tillamook.

The Tillamook Headlight made application and was admitted a member of the Associated Press. This was brought about at the request of a number of our business men and citizens, who were anxious to obtain the war news, who have guaranteed part of the expense of obtaining this telegraphic service, and which will keep them posted directly anything of importance takes place. Commencing on Friday, the Tillamook Headlight will issue special editions daily, of war and other important news, and those who have subscribed for this service will have a copy delivered free, as well as given a certain amount of advertising space. The Tillamook Headlight will be headquarters for war news, and those who wish to help defray the expenses by subscribing a few dollars a week can do so by notifying the editor.

Tillamook Girl Punched Hold-Up Man at Los Angeles.

Proudly exhibiting her "muscle" and illustrating her theory of how to treat hold-up men with a number of fancy blows, pretty 18-year-old Veronica DeLillies today explained how a woman may always get the best of a burglar. Miss De Lillies knows. Although a bold footpad succeeded in snatching a $20 bill from her she fought him off and prevented him from taking a costly lavallier which she wore at the time. And she also taught him she declares, that it isn't safe always to hold up a girl, even if she's a small one.

"All a girl has to do is to hit—quick and hard," she said today, "and the burglar or hold-up man, whichever he happens to be, will do all the running that's necessary."

"The days past when a woman needs to run from any footpad. You see, no man expects a girl to have any fight in her. And so, aside from physical pain, he's so surprised when a girl hits—well, he's so surprised that he just "beats it" as hard as he can. "I shouldn't be surprised if the man I hit was running yet. You see I gave him a swift uppercut, and it nearly took him off his feet."

Little Miss DeLillies is a comedy queen in Filmland, and her first boxing lessons were taken for reproduction on the screen.—Los Angeles Evening Herald.

Tillamook County Boosters' Band.

The next bi-monthly rehearsal and concert will be held in the opera house, in Tillamook City, Oregon, on Sunday August 15th, and it is earnestly requested that all members of the Tillamook Boosters' Band be present on this occasion as matters of much importance to the band will be taken up at the meeting.

The band has received an engagement, to give a two days concert at the "Manufactures & Land Products Exposition," to be held in Portland the latter part of October and November. The band is wanted there either on Monday and Tuesday, November 2nd and 3rd, or on Friday and Saturday, November 6th and 7th. These dates can be arranged to suit the desires of the band.

Transportation to and return from Portland, expense allowance of $2.00 per day per man during the engagement, and $100.00 per day for the big "Frisco Trip" next year.

A proposition was made with the "National Apple Show," which is to be held in Spokane, Wash., beginning with November 10th, 1914, with the very encouraging prospect of getting an engagement for the Tillamook County Boosters' Band on that occasion.
