

How do People Acquire Property and Gain Independence?

By saving in a small way to accumulate capital for investing and re-investing.

Large profits are often made from timely investments. You cannot tell when an opportunity for making a profitable investment will present itself.

A growing savings account in this bank will provide for such an emergency. It will give you a borrowing power equal to the capital which you save.

{ We want you to consider this a personal invitation to call and open an account here. }

Elsie O'Hara vs. Mark O'Hara is a divorce suit filed in the circuit court. These parties were married at Astoria Ore., on Oct. 29th 1904, and two boys have been born to the union. The grounds upon which the divorce is sought is cruel and inhuman treatment, the defendant falsely and maliciously accusing the plaintiff of being untrue to her marriage vows. The plaintiff alleges that for the last two or three years defendant has contributed nothing towards the support of his family and compelled her to take in work. Plaintiff accuses defendant of being openly and notoriously devoted to disreputable women.

Some of the friends of Mrs. Al. Juhrs have taken exceptions to the paragraph which appeared in the Herald, which they contend, cast reflections on her. The paragraph stated that Mrs. Al. Juhrs and her large family of children and dependants had sold the small farm she owned on the Miami and left for new pasture. Only two of Mrs. Juhrs children accompanied her. We want to say that the Juhrs were hard working, industrious people and did a lot of work to clean up a piece of land, as well as improve the road on the east side of the Miami. Several others who located in that neighborhood met premature deaths on account of the hardships they endured clearing up land and getting in and out of that rough vicinity. Probably $1000 in cash did look good to Mrs. Juhrs, after so many long years of hardships, but her friends resent the slur being cast at her now that she has left the county.

Artisan's Social.

Artisans and their friends are urged to attend the Hallowe'en social and program on Monday evening, Oct. 19. Refreshments served.

M. E. Church Announcement

Sunday services at the Methodist Church, Edward Gittins, pastor. Sunday School 10 o'clock.—Preaching 11 a.m.—Class meeting 12 p.m. Morning sermon:—"The meal that wasted not, and why." Epworth League, 6:30. Preaching 7:30. "A bowl of white salt." Come and welcome.

The Presbyterian Church.

Sunday school at 10 a.m. We have classes and teachers for all ages. Every Sunday shows a marked increase in attendance. If you are not already a member of another school, it would give us pleasure to have you join our school. We have the best teachers in the city.

Sunday morning at 11 a.m. the pastor will speak to the junior congregation on "Shining for Jesus." This will be an illustrated sermon. Sermon to the senior congregation: "The Challenge of the better way." The vested junior choir will sing a special number, and assist in the congregational singing.

The second service at 7:30 p.m. will be in the interest of Social Service, or the Kingdom of God in faith and practice. The subjects under discussion from Sunday to Sunday are the living issues of the hour. Thoughtful people everywhere are discussing them. Inferior amusement and mere fun on Sunday nights has been outlawed in every intelligent community. Come and join in a service that will bring you a heap of help.

The session and congregation of this church extend you a most cordial welcome to all our church services. Give us the chance to do you good.

D. A. MacKenzie, B. D., Minister.
