Sheriff Crenshaw arrested a young man on Friday by the name of Rodney Cook, who was wanted in Yamhill county on several charges of larceny. It seems that he eluded the officers in Yamhill county and took to the woods, making his way to Tillamook. He was a fine appearing young man, and when arrested admitted he was the right man. He tried to put one over on the sheriff when arrested that he would be right back after going to the house, but the sheriff did not see it that way, but immediately put him under lock and key. He was taken to McMinnville on Saturday.
