The gissips have it that Tillamook ity is to have another fight. This me a post office site fight. The Gossip will bet on the winners. Let's hope it won't be necessary to all out the militia, or have a recall

"The only thing I want the Legislature to do is to move the state capital to Tillamook," said Rep-Tillamook," said Rep-T. B. Handley while in ortland. The Gossip objects. The alemites are known as "Salem ogs," but the people over here in this neck of the woods don't want to be called "Tillamook Hogs." Cut this neck of the t out Tom, there's not a ghost of a show when there are so many greedy political hogs about Salem.

year. The timber men folk have been saying they favor good roads and good schools, but my neighbor, Tom Smith, who is one of those grouchy fellows, was as mad as a bear with a sore head when I told him what we women folk were going to do to get a permanent highway through the county, All the women folk in the county are going to join the movement and we'll show those men folk, who keep shooting off their jouths about hard surfaced roads how to get them in a few years. The grouchy men folk who oppose this movement will be pickled in one of Butcher Leach's pork barrels and sold for fertilizer, which is the best we women folk know of getting rid of the grouchy men folk.

Rivals for a Rich Buxom Widow. (By Mrs. Belinda Sourgrass.)

I hear that Calvin Worrall has a Prospective grooms had better matrimonial bee buzzing in his bon-sep their weather eyes open when net. That is not exactly the right way to put it. A buxom, rich widow is stuck on him and Calvin is ready to throw himself at the foot of cupid. We hear however, that the editor of the Gossip is a rival of Mr. Worrall, for he requires a rich widow to fi-nance the Gossip. He has already started for Texas to be first on the job. The chances are the editor of the Gossip will win the rich widow and bring her back to Tillamook as a trophy of matrimonial warfare.

"There Was Nothing Fair About It.

This was a remark by one of our leading citizens and heavy taxpayers who attended the taxpayers' meet-ing to hear the discussion on the budget. There was nothing fair in the timbermen trying to fool the trouble. people by having a section of law read which had nothing to do with the proceedings. There was nothing fair in the timbermen going there, primed and cocked with a resolution o accept the budget and choke off discussion. There was nothing fair in forcing those present to vote on the budget as a whole and the mat-ter of a survey for a State Highway t the same time. There was nothing fair in not giving the taxpayers and those who came in from Portland an opportunity to be heard. And there are many other citizens and taxpayers who think exactly as this taxpayer does about the meeting Have you swore off any bad habits or are you hanging onto them like the two called to give everybody a fair shake to express their opinion and point out to the County Court where other roads were in need of onte improvement which had been overlooked in making up the work to be done in each district. If the same system is to be carried on in future budget meetings there is noth-ing to prevent a large delegation from will of the people and the County Court would have to abide by it.

"Wets" and "Drys."

By Mrs. Belinda I was invited to some of the social bedfast in the morning, and they functions at Fairview, where the women folk wear the pants. I happened to hear a beyy of men folk talking "wet" and "dry". Of course mal; the fast train that runs completely, He said: "Madam, we were talking about 'wet' and 'dry' cows." I have been as mad as a "wet" hen ever since.

"You bet they are."

Pull! Pull!! Pull!!!

There's going to be a scramble to get on the next advisory committee. For this reason: The "pull" of the Fairview delegate obtained more hard surface pavement than was at first planned, the "pull" of the Wheeler-Garibaldi road booster the Wheeler-Garibaldi road booster obtained a good big wad, the "pull" for a bridge across the river at Woods succeeded in its "pull'; the "pull" for the Loerpabel and the Dean's point roads, etc., all cut a figure, Bayocean didn't get a chance to "cut" because it had on reverses to "pull" because it had no representation on the advisory committee to "pull" for it.

Fashionable Gowns. (By Mrs. Belinda Sourgrass.)

As I have been appointed critic on the staff of the Gossip, it was natur al that I should have becoming duds to fill that important position with due dignity, so I hiked off to Hal-tom's January Clearance Sale. Well I bought several of the lovliest gowns in the store, and when I showed them to my neighbor, Mrs. Smith, she said as soon as I wrapped myself up in them they would have to have a government stamp on them to prove that they were the latest fashioned gowns, and that I had better look out for the war tax collector. If any of those fellows came around when I'm tucked away between sheets in my new gowns to ascertain whether the government stamps are attached there is going to be Suppose!

Suppose that Fairview was five or six miles from Tillamook and it took over one hour to reach the city by water; and, suppose, Bayocean had a good macadam road, would it be right and just to hard surface the road to Bayocean and not give the Fairviewites a way out? Suppose we figure this out, so as to enlighten the taxpayers some. How would the Fairviewites feel if $4,000 had been expended on one mile of road, out if which they had contributed $2,000. The remaining $2,000 was paid in this way: Outside capital contributed $1,600 of this, and the other taxpayers-residents of the county-con tributed the enormous sum of $400! If the Fairviewites were suffering for a way out wouldn't they be iustified in becoming indignant and coming to the city and shaking the liver out of those who treated them so unjustly?

Fast.

(By Mrs. Belinda Sourgrass.) Mrs. Belinda Sourgrass had a remarkable conversation with a learned Frenchman who couldn't understand why we English speaking people could apply the word fast to so many things. Well, I told him the

"Yes sure, those wise Tillamookers knows how to figure out the amount figures at about $1,200, and 12 reelections in a year means $14,-400 placed in circulation."

"But they have to put up the monev themselves."

That's where you're fooled. They only pay 20 per cent of it and the other So per cent comes from nonresidents. It's all new money and these recall elections open up a way to put that much more money in
