Two Wed After 30 Years.

Vancouver, Wash., Jan 21-Heartthat throbbed with love for each other half a century ago, but which strayed apart, today were reunited here in marriage by Rev. R. H. Saw yer. W. L. Powers, 73, a wealthy mar of Tillamook, Ore., and Mrs. Sarah Smith, 63, are the happy couple and will make their home in Cherry Grow Oregon.

In Iowa, half a century ago, a cours try party was held at the home Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Taylor, W. L. Miss Sarah E, Taylor, his sweethcart, that the kind father of the girl promdaughter when she was slateen.

Conditions changed a little, aning West and marrying. She also was married when a young woman and while she often thought of her first love, she made up her mind it was not to be. Her daughter, Mixs Olice Smith, grew to womanhood and settled in Portland.

While on a visit here to care for her daughter who had become ill, Mr-Smith heard that Mr. Powers was in Tillamook. The reunion followed soon after she had heard that Mrs Powers had died.

Kill Kare's Annual Banquet.

The ladies of the Kill Kare. Study Klub entertained their husbands on Jan. 17th, at the Presbyterian Guild hall, the occasion being the celebration of the annual banquet.

The weather was ideal and conse quently there was a full attendance All the ladies came provided with well with expectant faces.

At exactly 7 p.m. the tables were declared ready and the hungry hushands were required to find partners. Each lady had deposited her haby photo in a basket and her partner had to identify her by matching youth and old age. At last all were seated and did ample justice to the feast.

F. D. Small especially distinguished himself, but we will never tell how much chicken went his way or how many dozen biscuits were consur at that end of the table.

However, Mr. Tait even carried some home in his pocket.

After dinner was over a short musical program was rendered, James Hiner singing in his usual charming manner.

Games followed and it proved very exciting to see Fred Christensen trying to climb the walls in bursuit of an elusive feather. However, he won out and carried off the prize. Emmet-

Lamar whistled longest witho laughing. But would you believe it the ladies won out in the end.

Wm. Tell Pennington proved to be the expert bow and arrow champion We have always wondered why Mr Pennington was such a shot, but have lately been told that he was a genuine frontiersman and was at one time scalped in a conflict with the Indians.

Mr. Small and Mr. Tait played base ball with an apple. Result,-pockets emptier than when they came. "We won't tell".

When at last it came time to say goodnight all voted that they wished the annual dinners came oftner.

Ladies, have you heard it rumored Wonder when Mrs. Lamar thought to take her husband home this time. "Pass another biscuit."
