THE TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT.

Editorial Snap Shots.

A bill has been introduced in the state legislature that will probably knock the high valuations out of inflated farm lands and especially in Tillamook county.

A matter of great importance to this county now before the county court is the proposed new road at Dolph, in which Yamhill, Polk and Tillamook counties are all interested.

A bill is introduced in the state legislature specifying school holdings and ends up with this provision: "Teachers are allowed full pay for holidays."

Attorney General Brown has decided within the meaning of the law when it revised the different items of money to be expended on the roads.

The Fourteen Mistakes of Life.

The mistakes of life are many, as the old song says, and only a daring man would have the heart to point out the number of mistakes which his neighbor makes.

to fourteen. And here they are! Setting up one's own standard of right and wrong and expecting others to conform to it.

Not making allowances for traits in others which apparently unfit them for success in life.

Lesson From the "Ham Man."

The unfortunate criminal who was sent to jail for twenty-five years for stealing a loaf of bread, and whose case has served the purpose of many of the muck-rakers who have been writing for the magazines, may be behind prison bars yet for all we know.

As a matter of fact, however, his sentence to life imprisonment was not due entirely to the ham, as the muck-rakers against judges have so often declared.

This is where the muck-rakers who used "the ham man" as a horrible example of judicial injustice had the advantage over the Michigan judge.

Are You That Man.

Statistics tell us that only one man in one hundred accumulates a surplus or tangible property over the value of one thousand dollars.

Remember this is the average man. True, you or someone else may get together a hundred million every one whom can make good on $1000.

But where do you come in? This is the all-important point. Where do you come in? Are you worth $1000 free and clear from all debts and incumbrances?

Look back a single year. What have you to the good over one year ago? "But it costs so much to live."

Of all men most miserable is the man who earns less than he spends. First of all, therefore, we all should live within our income.

Wood! Wood!! Wood!!! of all kinds, and fence posts, for sale. See Shrode.

THE GOSSIP. TILLAMOOK COUNTY'S LEADING SOCIETY AND FASHIONABLE NEWSPAPER.

Representative Handley is after the "pork barrel" at Salem.

County Judge-elect A. M. Hare is taking a hand at tax collecting.

"Two quarts of whisky or 24 quarts of beer," says a wet advocate, "won't be enough to sober up an after a day."

Attorney H. T. Bots was in Salem last week, hobnobbing with the state legislators.

The Headlight didn't give Prof. Outbank a fair shake when it said that his deep rich voice made up in noise what it lacked in culture.

It will soon be in order for saloon keepers to be advertising bargain sales.

The wise ones who live in Fairview were discussing who was the greatest inventor of the other day.

Attorney S. S. Johnson is the most polite gentleman in the city. Some men are scared for fear that they will get rheumatism in their hair when they make an apology in raising their hats to the ladies.

The Herald man had the audacity to call the Gossip "smutty" etc.

Ex-Governor West was a sticker on law enforcement. Yet he was one of the worst violators of the law in Oregon.

Dismissed to place in the penitentiary.

Why don't the County Court get a move on and help provide work for some of the unemployed?

Did it ever occur to Tillamookers that all the power of a horse is centered in one leg?

This is what a preacher and all good women who gossip.

"Now, ladies, let me talk to you a while about the north commandment. 'Thou shalt not tell a lie.'"

The foolish men folk. Everybody is talking something, even the state legislators, as well as those who have had to economize on account of Democratic free trade.

and six young women used to try and out do one another in making the whoops as big as possible.

Well, well, I have forgot all about the joke they are telling on M. F. Leach, who is one of the most liberal and kindhearted Christian gentlemen in Tillamook.

The Rich Widow. The editor of the Gossip returned from Texas last week, cross-fallen and with a fit of the blues.

Love is a Disease. Dr. Richard Triven of Chicago discovered that love is a disease according to a dispatch from Chicago.

Pray don't be sneaky if your health goes in a slump. There's nothing much the matter after all.

Do not make your will because you will have it all to change. You're only getting ready for life's race.

Telephone the druggist that you cannot get his recipe. That never more again you'll see his face.

Telephone the undertaker he need not come around. The minister a message likewise.

Not that your not diseased—the what disease? Oh, bliss! Old Anaphylax has laid you out.

Just a new name for that thing that makes the world go round. That makes for joy or makes for trouble's knell.

That makes of life a heaven or hell despite the fact you're sick. That makes of life a heaven or hell.
