

Advantage of a Checking Account

III. Acquaintance in Bank.

Not the least of the advantages of having a checking account at this bank is the acquaintance which it promotes between the depositor and our officers.

This acquaintance enables our officers to get in touch with the interests of the depositor, and to lend all the cooperation consistent with conservative banking.

Our officers gladly welcome the opportunity to extend the facilities of the bank to new depositors.

Professor Griffin to Give Illustrated Lecture.

Prof. Griffin, Extension worker for the Oregon Agricultural College, will give an illustrated lecture at the High School Auditorium, Tuesday evening, March 2, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association.

The business meeting will begin promptly at 7:30, and Prof. Griffin's lecture at 8 o'clock.

Married at Cloverdale.

Married on Friday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Compton at Cloverdale, Ore., Mr. Ernest Kirby and Miss Blanche Compton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. S. Ford, pastor of the Nestucca Valley Presbyterian church, the parlor being tastefully decorated for the occasion. After the happy couple had received the congratulations of their friends a substantial wedding dinner was served by Mrs. Compton, assisted by Mrs. Allen. The happy couple are well and favorably known in the south part of the county, and their friends join us in wishing them a happy journey through life.

School Gives Entertainment.

The public school is giving an entertainment Friday night, at the high school building for the purpose of raising money to buy wall pictures.

A splendid program is promised. Some of the features of the program are, a series of historical tableaux by the eighth grade, a little play built around Lincoln's early life by the seventh grade, a colonial play by the children of the fourth grade, and drills of various sorts by the primary children. The orchestra will play several selections.

The program will be given in the High School auditorium Friday evening at 7:45. Admission 10 cents and 25 cents.

To Organize Industrial Clubs.

Field Industrial Worker and Club Organizer, Prof. F. L. Griffin will spend the week from March 1 to 5 in the schools of the county. He will bring with him his lantern and slides and give illustrated talks where practicable. Agriculturist, R. C. Jones and County Superintendent Buel, will accompany Mr. Griffin and assist him in his work. It is the intention to make as many schools as possible. Since it is quite impossible to make every school in the county in one week and that being all the time allotted to us by Mr. Griffin, we have planned the following schedule and it is hoped that the parents and every one interested in the movement will attend these meetings. It is also suggested that schools not included in this schedule but sufficiently near to attend the meeting at one school on the schedule, dismiss and both teacher and pupils attend in a unit. Every one within reach is especially requested to attend the evening sessions, and get some good lessons along the lines which Mr. Griffin represents and see his pictures at the same time.

Schedule:

Monday, March 1, A.M., Wheeler, Mohler; P.M., Manzanita, Nehalem, Union High School; Evening session, Nehalem City.

GEORGE COFFMAN SHOT.

When Trying to Make Improper Proposals to a Married Woman.

Quite an excitement was caused on Thursday when it became known that George Coffman, proprietor of the Silver Dollar Saloon, had been shot the previous night by a young married woman after making improper proposals to her. The young woman is Mrs. Bell, wife of Rhodes Bell, and she had recently come from Hoquiam, Wash., and started house keeping, having rented a small house west of Dr. McGee's apartment house, her husband working for the Coats Logging and Driving Co. She is about 19 years of age, with one child. She was alone in the house, her husband being at the logging camp Wednesday night. Dr. McGee said: About half past eleven Mr. Leonard called him on the phone and said there was a lady at his house that needed assistance badly. Before Dr. McGee was through dressing she came to the door. It was Mrs. Bell, who lives on the opposite corner to Dr. McGee's. She was in a nervous condition and crying. She said she had shot a man in her house. She had shot at him three times and missed twice. The man was George Coffman. Her husband had introduced her to him when she was at the hotel and she had asked Coffman and his wife to visit them. Coffman pressed against her and tried to pass out and she pressed the revolver against his abdomen and fired. Coffman then left the house and ran across the street and started down town. She saw that he had staggered after he had passed the house. She went on to say that she had been to the show with the baby, and after arriving home she was about to undress and put the baby to bed, when there was a knock at the door. She answered it and had a light in her hand. She was surprised to find that it was Coffman, who pushed his way into the house. He had two small bottles of beer and he induced her to drink some. After a short time he made improper proposals to her and she refused, when he caught her and threw her on the bed. She succeeded in getting away from him and obtained a revolver. Coffman said "what he was after he was going to have, and if he didn't get it tonight, he would get it tomorrow night." Mrs. Bell said "you'll not be able to come to-morrow night." He offered her five dollars, then ten dollars, and then twenty dollars. Mrs. Bell fired the first shot in the bedroom, which struck the wall just over where the baby was on the bed. Coffman ran to the kitchen and commenced putting on his coat, telling Mrs. Bell not to make so much noise. She fired the second time. When Coffman crowded her to get past her she fired the third shot, pressing the revolver against the body.

After Mrs. Bell had told Dr. McGee what had happened she said she was afraid she had shot her baby, and the doctor went over and got the baby. Dr. McGee phoned to the marshal and in about five minutes Dr. Boals and A. L. McCarty arrived and they left to hunt for the man. A few minutes after Dr. Boals and Attorney C. E. Claussen returned and Mrs. McGee having found out who the man was told them.

A search was made for Coffman and he was found near the Hotel Tillamook and taken to the saloon, afterwards to his home, where Drs. Boals and Wendt attended to his injuries, which are not considered serious. The second shot fired did not lodge in the body, but the third did, which was removed by Dr. Wendt this morning.

District Attorney T. H. Goyne and Sheriff Crenshaw questioned Coffman quite closely this morning and also obtained Mrs. Bell's account of the shooting, which does not vary in many particulars. At first Coffman denied taking liquor to the house but afterwards admitted doing so. He said he met Mrs. Bell on Wednesday at the hotel and she invited him and his wife to visit her and he agreed to do so at half past nine that night. Coffman alleging that Mrs. Bell said "Come anyway." This Mrs. Bell emphatically denies, but admits that she invited Coffman and his wife to visit them. Mrs. Bell also explained how Coffman came to be in the bedroom. She was taking the baby from the room into the bedroom, when Coffman followed her.

Coffman does not want Mrs. Bell prosecuted, but in all probability the grand jury will investigate the shooting and indict Coffman.

The sympathy of the citizens is with Mrs. Bell, who think she was quite justified in doing what she did in shooting Coffman when he made improper proposals to her, for he had evidently gone there for that purpose.

Notice to Royal Arch Masons.

All companions are invited to attend a special communication of Johnson Chapter No. 24 R. A. M. to be held at Masonic Hall in Tillamook, commencing March 1st at 7:30 P. M. and continuing through the week, The Royal Arch Degree will be conferred on several teams.

And the work will be under the direction and supervision of Most Excellent Grand High Priest CLYDE EVANS and corps of able assistants.

High School Notes.

The High School library is constantly being increased. Rev. D. A. McKenzie has given it a large set of Gibbon's "Nations of the World." This gift is appreciated very much. Representative W. C. Hawley has also sent a number of government bulletins. The library now has quite a collection of these.

The Webster Club is having a series of debates to decide the winner of the beautiful silver cup offered by the Shakespeare Club. The first debate of this series was held a week ago last Tuesday. The question discussed was: Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished. The affirmative represented by Thomas Coates, Helen Stam, and Herbert Stam won unanimously from those of the negative, Lee Doty, Broox Lucas and Trevor Hare. The next debate will be held at high school next Monday evening, March 1. The public is always welcome to these debates.

Last Wednesday evening the T.H.S. basketball team was victorious over the Cloverdale team at Cloverdale with a score of 48 to 11. It is expected that a week from Friday there will be another big game here with a team from the outside.

The Tennis Club has begun work, and planning to have a good court this Spring. A large number of students have shown interest in tennis and have joined the club.

The sixth, seventh, and eighth grades are working industriously in school and home gardens. The ground is receiving the best attention, and good results are expected.

Tuesday, February 23, Loud Sock Day was observed at the high school. The more inconsistent the color scheme, the better it served the purpose. It was all quite absurd, but we should remember that "even the wisest men relish a little nonsense now and then."

Thursday noon the Freshmen girls served a delightful luncheon to a large number of eager patrons.

Next Tuesday evening, at the high school, Dr. Griffin of the Oregon Agricultural College gives an illustrated lecture on industrial education.

Just by way of reminder, don't forget to come to "picture" program given by the grades at the high school Friday evening.

Christian Church.

Seven more responded to the gospel invitation last Friday at the Miami school house and Garibaldi, making a total of 48 thus far in that community.

Next Sunday morning the sermon will be the fourth in a series on New Testament conversions.

The evening program will be as follows:

- 1.—Congregational singing.
 - 2.—Special by 10 piece orchestra.
 - 3.—Questions answered by pastor.
 - 4.—Prayer and scripture.
 - 5.—Special anthem by chorus.
 - 6.—Sermon subject: "The Tower of Babel and Jacob's Ladder."
- A cordial invitation is extended to the public.
