J. H. Dunstan, master of the Fairview Grange, having requested that the Commercial Club assist in the entertainment part of the program for the State Grange, which meets in this city next month, a committee from the Grange and the Club met on Saturday and outlined a program for that part of the proceedings. It was agreed that the club give the Grangers a reception, auto trip, and would look after the accommodations for the visitors. On their return home on Saturday Bay City has promised to provide the clams for a clam bake at Barview. The Women's Civic League, will no doubt, take part in the entertainment of the visitors.

Don't forget the play "An Arizona Volunteer" in 4 acts to be given at the opera house for the benefit of the Artisan Lodge, Friday and Saturday nights, April 9th and 10th. This play is clean, moral, and tells a story of American Army life that is instructive. The Lodge has used every effort to make this a decided success, and they feel sure that their many friends will not miss a chance to witness one of the best plays ever presented in this city. Tickets are selling fast, and those who do not secure them early may not get a good seat. Get your tickets from members of the lodge, or at Lamar's Drug Store.

Pamona Grange Meets.

At a special meeting of the Tillamook County Pamona Grange held last Thursday the chief topic for discussion was the coming session of the State Grange. Plans were discussed for the entertainment of the delegates and visitors. The details were left to a committee consisting of J. H. Dunstan, L. J. Redberg, G. R. McKimmins, M. D. Ackley, and C. E. Trombley.

The subordinate Granges reported a membership in the county of a trifle over four hundred members.

Miss Marvin, the State Librarian, gave a talk on the State Library and urged the establishment of a County library in Tillamook, with branches in other cities of the county. After her talk the following resolution was adopted:

Be it resolved that the Tillamook County Pamona Grange go on record as favoring the establishment of a County Library in this county, and that the subordinate granges be requested to discuss the subject at an early meeting and act thereon.

A paper on road work in Columbia and Clatsop Counties, prepared by Mr. Dougall was read after which a motion was passed to endorse the action of the County Court in turning down the State Engineer's survey of this county this year.

Mrs. Hattie L. Vail, Deputy State Master, was present and assisted in training the degree team.

"A Professor's Escapade."

To be given by the Senior Class on April 23 and 24.

Takes about two and one half hours. Thirteen characters. This play ran for several months in a Broadway Theatre in New York and was recently given by the Baker Stock Co. in Portland. Will be given at the opera house.

Cast of characters and a synopsis of the play will be published at a later date.

Haltom's

Presbyterian Church.

Easter Sunday was observed both morning and evening in this church in a manner that reflected great credit to all who took part, as well as the Presbyterian church in Tillamook. The music rendered by a large chorus choir was of the highest order in its selection, and was rendered in a happy and soleful manner. The choir gave two Easter anthems in the morning, "The Light of Easter Morning," and "Lift up your Heads O Ye Gates," and Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie sang a duet, "A Vision of Angels" by Adams. In the evening the choir gave two anthems, "The day of Resurrection," and "Christ the Lord is Risen," and Mrs. Fred Poorman sang a beautiful Easter soprano solo.

The annual meeting of the congregation was held on the 1st inst. The following officers were elected for terms varying from one to three years; Elders, Alex Watt, W. B. Alderman, Walter Baker, and E. M. Bales; Trustees, Carl Haberlach, W. A. Williams, W. B. Alderman, E. M. Bales, and A. A. Pennington. Mr. Alex McNair was elected treasurer of the church.

The following Sunday School officers were elected for one year; Supt., Walter Baker; Assistant Supt., Mrs. Alpha Alderman; Secretary, George W. Hoskins; Treasurer, Blanch Mc

Nair; Organist, Mrs. Walter Baker; Librarian, Fay Hill; Cradle Roll Supt. Mrs. Carl Haberlach.

The Ladies' Guild held their bi-weekly meeting Tuesday afternoon. About 39 ladies were in attendance. The contest adopted recently has had a healthy influence upon the interest and attendance of the Guild. The attractive rooms of the Guild, and the dainty lunch served at each meeting, gives an added social effect that will enlist every lady in the congregation.

The Union Prayer-Meeting next week will be in the Methodist Church. These gatherings are making themselves felt throughout the city and surrounding country. It is beautiful to see families driving in six and seven miles to attend prayer-meetings. And the best part of the whole movement is, the large number of persons who take part in the meeting in the way of prayer and testimony. Let the good work go on, until the whole city shall learn that Christian people are one in purpose, one in heart, and one in their place of meeting.

Services in the Presbyterian church next Sunday at the usual hours.

D. A. MacKenzie, Pastor.
