 Inspector C. H. Gram was in the city this week. He stated that he was recently in British Columbia, where a large number of sawmills and shingle mills were being erected on account of free trade with the United States, and in one establishment there were between 600 and 700 men employed, less than 50 were white men. *
 The petition of J. J. McCormick for a liquor license was taken up by the County Court on Wednesday and was adjourned until Saturday. It is said that some of those who are opposing the license have been in the bootlegging business, but there were no remonstrances on file when the petition was taken up. *
 Carl O. Shagren vs. the Arab is a suit filed in the circuit court to recover $149.00. It was at the special request of the owners of the Arab that Henrietta No. 2 succeeded in pulling the Arab off the sand and from danger of destruction on the beach of Tillamook Bay and towed her to Tillamook City and to recover the amount of the expenses and for anchors the plaintiff brings suit. *
 At the special election on Tuesday the vote on the question of bonding the city, not to exceed $30,000, for a new city hall, carried by a large majority. There were 433 votes cast, 311 being in favor of the amendment and 113 against, with 10 spoiled ballots, 8 of which were in favor and 1 doubtful. This is a good expression of public opinion, and shows that the citizens are in favor of a new city hall 3 to 1. The City Council is now ready to receive plans from architects. *
 The meeting called for last Friday evening to discuss the proposed change in the schedule of the water rates, was adjourned until Monday, June 14, at the city hall. As there was quite a number of persons who wanted to be present, but were at the high school graduating exercises, the adjournment will give them an opportunity to be heard. It was practically decided on Friday to reduce the figure from 50c. to 25c. for a toilet and not to charge 50c. for washing machines. *
 Conrad Krebs pleaded guilty to violating the factory inspection law and was fined $25 and the case against his manager, J. R. Montgomery, was dismissed. It was decided that if Krebs would make the improvements recommended by C. H. Gram, within a certain time and pay the cost the fine would be remitted. The case against the Mutual Telephone Co. for employing women longer hours than the law allows was not filed, as there was no disposition to violate the law on the part of the company. *
 C. F. Doane, expert in charge of cheese investigations of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, with headquarters at Washington, D. C., and G. E. Frevert, dairy manufacturer and investigations of Western States, with headquarters at Salt Lake, came in on Saturday to study conditions in Tillamook County. With County Agriculturist Jones they spent Sunday at the cheese factory of the Tillamook Creamery and on Monday visited the other large cheese factories and farms in this vicinity, and took up the matter of organization and selling of cheese with Carl Haberle. They were wonderfully well pleased with the dairy industry of Tillamook county. *
 All trade coupons issued by the Grand Leader will be redeemed at any time in cash at the Grand Leader. We are now giving Scrip, a mile in travel for a dollar in trade. Scrip given in 10c, 25c, and $1.00 denominations. *
 At the Christian Church on Sunday the members of the G. A. R. post and W. R. C. attended memorial services in a body. Rev. Van Winkle in his address, which though carefully prepared was short, paid tribute to the soldiers of America—to those of the North and the South and said they did all they could do. But in words that came as though inspired he told of the sorrows and losses of war, and of the glories and advancement of peace. He urged patriotism and the glory of dying if need be in a great cause for what was right. Tears came to the eyes of many who were reminded of the incidents which happened in the great struggle, especially the many hardships they endured, but would not give up fighting for right and home and country. *
 The benefit concert to be given at the High School Auditorium, Friday June 4th, by Katherine Neal-Simmons, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Ladies Guild, is creating great enthusiasm. It is interesting to note that Mrs. Simmons is very active musically, being at present, Secretary of the "MacDowell Club," Portland's leading Musical Club. *
 Mrs. Simmons is an American Soprano. Her Lyric Voice is one of unusual clearness and purity, always conveying a message to her audience. She is capable of rendering the tenderest reflections in the most artistic manner, and captivates her audience with her charming personality. *
 Mrs. Simmons will have the inspiration of an excellent accompanist in the person of Miss Constance Piper, who will also give a piano number. Miss Piper is the daughter of Edgar Piper, Editor of the Oregonian. Lucia Barton-Gillhouse, Violinist who will appear on the program with Mrs. Simmons, is a Violinist of unusual ability, and will be heard to advantage in "Traumeri." *
