School Fair Notes.

Prof. F. L. Griffin, of Corvallis, requests that the students who are doing club work send their booklets telling all about the project or work they are doing. If it be garden work tell about the preparing of the soil, the planting of the seed, the cultivating and watering of the plants by giving in detail every thing you have done. It be poultry give in detail every thing you have done in that work. These booklets should be written with pen and ink, and care should be taken to have them neat and free from blots and erases. Write your best at all times.

Only two weeks more and the fair will begin. Who will be the lucky ones and secure a chance to the school camp at the State Fair this fall. Two boys will be sent from this county to be in camp with two boys from each county of the state and two girls to be in camp with two girls from each county of the state.

Prize lists will be furnished you on application. Note the prize list and exhibit such articles as prizes are listed. Other articles exhibited will be marked as decorations and not considered when judging for prizes. This we are obliged to observe because of our limitation of funds. We have selected such articles as we feel to be most practical for this county. If these articles are all exhibited there will be no funds to meet prizes on others.

Watch the papers next week for a full program for Children's Day. This will be Thursday, August 26th. This would have appeared this week but he committee thought it best to have the sanction of our Fair President, Mr. Dunstan who has been unable to meet with us on account of illness. We are truly glad to report that he is much improved and will be with us again after Wednesday of this week.

W. S. Bush, County Supt.
