

The CAREFUL man—the man who takes no long chances—is the one will win out over the man who goes blindly into things and trusts to "luck." Nothing can stop the success of a man who keeps sober, works hard and regularly BANKS a part of his income from his labor or his business. Is it not better to have your money and keep your balance GROWING—than to trust to a DANGEROUS "luck?"

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Feldschau celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding on Friday evening, the occasion being made one of considerable enjoyment. The opera house was hired, where the "young couple" again pledged their troth to one another. A sumptuous wedding supper was served to about 50 guests after which dancing was indulged in.

Mr. Wm. G. Tait has sold the controlling interest in the First National Bank to local parties and is no longer connected with that institution. Mr. Tait plans to spend the winter in Portland or Seattle, and if he does not buy another bank in the Northwest before spring he expects to return to Tillamook and engage in business again. He desires to personally thank the many friends who gave him such loyal support as president of the above bank. The deposits on September 30th, the date Mr. Tait relinquished control, were over $25,000.00, a gain of over $13,000.00, or nearly 80 per cent under his management.

Thos Coates has received a copy of the Bury Times, which gave an item in regard to his nephew, a son of Mrs. Alice Coates who visited here some years ago. The paragraph reads: "Second-Lieutenant Thomas Gordon Coates is the son of Mrs. Coates, Egerton-road, Whitefield, and of the late Mr. Thomas Coates, of Liverpool, and Cubenda, S.W. Africa, and grandson of the late Mr. William Coates, of Bury. He is "gazetted" second-lieutenant in the 3rd Battalion Dorsetshire Regiment, stationed at Weymouth. The "Gazette" notice appeared on the anniversary of his joining the Public School's Battalion, Middlesex Regiment. Before joining he was on the foreign staff of the Mercantile Bank of India, London. He was at the time a sergeant in the Bury Grammar School Contingent of the Officer's Training Corps. Another grandson of the late Mr. W. Coates (a son of Mr. Alfred Coates) is with the first Australian Expeditionary Force, and was seriously wounded in Gallipoli, being now in hospital in Malta."

MRS. I. S. TURNER KILLED.
By Auto Accident on Railroad Track.
Centralia, Wash., Oct. 11.—Mrs I. S. Turner, school director of the Centralia district, and wife of one of the early pioneers of this city, was instantly killed last night, near Lebanon, when the automobile in which she was riding with her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Wolf and Mr. Wolf, was struck by the evening South Bend train. Mrs. Turner had been a resident of this city for the past 30 years. She is survived by her husband, I. S. Turner, and the following sons and daughters; Dr. Theodore Turner, Oliver Turner, Raymond Turner, Mrs. W. F. Wolf and Miss Naomi Turner.

Mrs. I. S. Turner was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John H. Nolan, old settlers of Tillamook County. She is a sister of Mrs. Thos. Coates and Mrs. Rollie Watson, of this city, and the sad news of her death was received on Monday. She was the oldest girl in the Nolan family. Her last visit to relatives in this county was about two years ago.

ment and pleasure of all present. Action and originality characterized the program of games directed by the committee. Parcels of all shapes and sizes were there, and every one inclined could make a selection and pay the price according to class by table, and afterward discover the nature of the article purchased. Each package consisted of good values, therefore, there was no deception imposed upon any purchaser. Roast chicken, canned goods, useful household articles, and articles of wearing apparel and adornment, were among the contents of the parcels assembled by the ladies for this novel event. Light refreshments consisting of fruit, punch and cakes were furnished to all present without cost. The ladies of the Guild wish to express their thanks and earnest appreciation to everyone who so kindly assisted in the program of the evening, especially the members of McGhee's orchestra and those who furnished the literary and vocal numbers.
