

Flying Log Kills Lester Pitts.

Lester Pitts, aged 28, unmarried, was accidentally killed near Nehalem on Saturday at his father's logging camp on the Charles Alley place. Pitts was chopping wood for the donkey engine and had been warned of big logs. One of the chains snapped, a log swung on Pitts and killed him instantly.

City to Have Trophy.

Mrs. Dunstan has received the cup that was won by Tillamook at the National Dahlia Show in Portland, this county carrying off the premium for the best display of dahlias out side of Portland. It is a large silver cup with this inscription: "Portland Floral Society Trophy, won by Tillamook City for best Community Display of Dahlias at the National Dahlia Show, Portland, Oregon, Sept. 23, 1915." It has been decided by those who sent the dahlias and entered them for exhibition to turn the cup over to Mrs. C. J. Edwards, president of the Civic Improvement League, to be presented to the city at the next meeting of the city council, as it was through the efforts of the League that the dahlias were sent to Portland. The cup will be on exhibition for a few days at Halton's.

Parent Teachers' Association.

Last Friday evening in the High School Auditorium, the annual election of the officers of the Parent-Teachers' Association was held and other business was transacted.

Preceding the business session was a splendid program given by the grades and high school. The little plays acted by the grade pupils was very interesting.

Mrs. Stranahan was elected president, Mrs. A. C. Everson vice-president, Miss Mabel Coyne secretary, and Mrs. C. J. Edwards treasurer. The outgoing officers were D. L. Shrode, president and treasurer, Mrs. R. W. Terry, vice-president, and Mrs. L. I. Leach, secretary. After the election prospects for the year were discussed and plans formulated for the future work.

The auditorium was filled with parents and teachers and a very successful meeting was held.

CIRCUIT COURT ENDS.

Jury Discharged on Thursday After Being in Session Ten Days.

The October term of the Circuit Court came to a close on Friday, Judge G. R. Bagley discharging the jury the previous day. A good deal of the time of the court and jury was taken up in trivial cases that should not have been taken into court. The other cases were disposed of as follows:

Philadelphia Ann Owens vs. Willie R. Owens, Divorce. Decree for plaintiff and custody of the children, with one-third of the property and $25.00 per month to be paid for the support of the children until further order of the court, provided the children are kept in the county. Payment to be made to the clerk of the court on or before the 10th of each month, and if not paid to be entered up as a judgment against defendant.

L. S. Miller vs. E. H. Lane and Mertie D. Lane, Action for money. Judge Bagley ordered the setting aside of the verdict and a new trial granted. The jury gave a verdict for plaintiff for $107.22, the defendants having admitted that they owed the plaintiff twice that amount of money.

W. B. Smith vs. W. R. Illingworth, Action for money. This was a case where plaintiff sought to recover $600, alleging that defendant had not kept his agreement in securing for plaintiff a job as fire warden, but had gone onto his land and removed the above value in chittim bark. Defendant showed that he had obtained a job for plaintiff and the court rendered a verdict for Illingworth.

A. F. Coates Lumber Co. vs. P. J. Sharp and Maud Sharp, Action for money. Trial by court on garnishee and decree in favor of W. W. Sharp and W. A. Sharp.

George J. Junstan vs. W. C. Hawk and Mrs. E. B. Miller, Action for money. Dismissed on application of plaintiff for plaintiff.

Olympia Beer Agency, vs. E. F. Laughlin, Action for money. Dismissed on court's own motion.

Coats Driving and Boom Co., vs. Alma S. Johnson, Action for money. Demurrer to first amended complaint overruled.

Tillamook County on relation of James Langley, vs. M. M. Mead and Lee M. Mead and W. J. Stephens, Action for money. Motion to strike out part overruled. Demurrer overruled.

I. C. Quick, vs. R. B. Kennedy, Action for money. Default judgment and order that attached property be sold.

W. G. Dwight vs. James Beggs, Action for money. Judgment and decree.

Guy O. Smith vs. Merton R. De Long, Foreclosure. Dismissed by the court on its own motion.

Morrison Mills, vs. Randolph Lamb and Sarah Lamb, Foreclosure. Continued.

Alfred Gubser vs. G. W. Wilks, Foreclosure. Decree.

O. K. Jeffery vs. H. J. Conklin and A. G. Ross, Foreclosure. Continued for want of service.

A. F. Coates Lumber Co., vs. Wm. Powell, Foreclosure on lien. Dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

W. A. Wise, vs. Frank McGinnis and Cora McGinnis, Foreclosure of agreement. Order dismissing without costs to either party.

H. D. Schroeder vs. Alfdiede Schroeder, Divorce. Default and decree.

George Bonin vs. Wilfred Bonin, Divorce. Decree for plaintiff.

Moving pictures have done more to decrease drunkenness than any influence; and nothing done yet to organize a society for the promotion of moving pictures.

WOOLTEx COAT WEEK, OCTOBER 25TH TO 30TH.

THE beautiful new coat fashions have already made their impression in the city. You see them on the street, at church, and everywhere else where women are anxious to appear well dressed. Many of the handsomest coats you see are Wooltex tailored coats with their charming, stylish beauty and clever trimming effects.

Wooltex Coat Week is being participated in by one good store in every city of consequence in the United States, and the event is being used to emphasize the superiority of Wooltex Garments for Women of discriminating taste in sartorial attire.

View our showings in Windows and Departments, and permit us to fit on one or more of these beautiful coats so that you may stand in front of the mirror and see for yourself how well they fit and how becoming they are in style and fabric.

Mid-Season Reduction Sale LADIES' CLASSIC COATS.

THIS is your opportunity to secure your New Fall Coat at a genuinely reduced price. The garments are the late fall styles, and they are faultless in material and workmanship. We have, however, too many in stock at this time of the year and would rather cut the price than carry them on the racks.

Buy Your New Fall Coat Now and You Will Save Money.

We have already admitted the unusualness of reduced prices at this season of the year, but the lateness of the Fall season compels us to adopt this method of moving our superb Fall stocks. Early inspection is desirable, as we do not expect such stylish garments to remain in stock long when offered at such remarkable savings.
