THE TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT.

Editorial Snap Shots.

It will be noticed that the counties which have bonded landed the largest share of the State Highway money.

The next time Yamhill and Tillamook counties put in a claim for State Highway funds they should ask for all of it, and providing its claims were cut in two, the officials would return home with half of the "sack." Try it next year boys.

The Lyceum course does not appear to be receiving the patronage that it should. This may be largely due to the fact that the "movies" attract and hold the people. The first two numbers in the course were certainly fine entertainments, and the remaining four are also of a like character.

Why, sure if some of the non-resident taxpayers want to sue the county, it is up to them to do so. They may be able to bluff some of the people part of the time, but they can bluff Tillamook people all the time. It is certainly amusing how the non-resident taxpayers have worked the bluffing act.

"America stands as champion of neutral's rights." This is a newspaper heading to the U. S. note to England. When the war first broke out and Germany forced her army through Belgium, no one ever heard of President Wilson championing the cause or sending a note of protest to Germany, which this country should have done for Belgium—was a neutral country.

Christmas is not far off and we want to appeal to our citizens to patronize the home stores and home merchants. They will have plenty of useful and pretty articles on display, giving the citizens a choice lot of goods to choose from. Let's show our loyalty to our home town and support and patronize the home merchant. You need his help and he needs your help, so help one another.

We still contend it would be good sound business sense for Yamhill and Tillamook Counties to hard surface the Sour Grass road. With the money secured from the State Highway, the two counties should be able to raise enough money to hard surface half of the road next year and with another whack at the State Highway, in two years the road would be hard surfaced and not require an annual maintenance charge. The way to build modern roads is to stop as much as possible the large amount of money, that is now required for maintenance charges.

Tillamook cheese has gone up another cent and is now selling for 16c. Never mind Bro. Baker, we know it is a very sorrowful affair, but cheer up old man, if you can keep the cows dried up you may still run a small chance of regaining that postoffice.—Herald.

Every body knows that if the terrible war in Europe had not broken out Democratic free trade would have brought about the most serious times the United States ever experienced. But Bro. Trombley, the chicken headed free trade rooster, fought for a policy that was to reduce the price of everything grown or produced on the farm so as to reduce the cost of living. Raising the price of cheese is certainly not bringing about one of the pet hobbies of the Democrats—reducing the cost of living.

"What is the opinion of the snap shot man about having the timber cruised," We are not inclined to favor spending a large amount of money for that purpose. We do think, however, that where the county cruise contains a notation that so per cent and under should be added to the cruise of certain timber lands, this should be rechecked. It is an injustice to the timber men to have these notations against their holdings if the amount of timber is not on the land. On the other hand, if the cruise is correct with the amount added, then the timber men are not assessed enough in these particular estimates of timber. And another thing that makes it conflicting. Until this land is rechecked it is a matter of impossibility for the county assessor to place a correct assessment on this timber land. We should rather see the money expended on roads than on another expensive timber cruise.

Besides her devoted husband and two sons, she has left to mourn her departure, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hiner, and three others, Clifford, James and Neal Hiner, all residents of Tillamook, many relatives and a great many intimate friends and acquaintances in Tillamook city and county, where through school days and youth she has been well and favorably known. Mrs. Kathryn Christensen united the Presbyterian Church of Tillamook along with her husband, on Feb. 14, by confession of her personal faith in Christ. In addition to her desire and ambition to prove an upright womanly Four teams were in the contest, and a banquet will be held soon in honor of the winning team. The high scorer in the contest was H. R. Edmunds, who bowled an average of 170 pins. Another contest is planned for the near future and bowling promises to be quite a sport for the winner.

The Bayocean Road.

W. J. Climens and S. B. Vincent, representing the Bayocean people were in the city on Monday conferring with the County Court in regard to the order to stop work on the Bayocean road. They have a contract with the county court for this work, which was agreed to by the Circuit Court of Multnomah county, as the Bayocean property is in the hands of a receiver. It is thought that arrangements will be made whereby the work can proceed, as it would entail extra expense to close down on the work.

 Over 150 were in attendance at the festivities after the lodge work was over. The banquet was excellent and an enjoyable time was had by all. After the banquet games were played until a late hour.

Funeral of Mrs. F. W. Christensen.

The funeral of Mrs. F. W. Christensen took place on Monday, the religious services being in the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. Youel, the pastor. The deceased was a member of this church and a large congregation gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased and her family. The interment was in the L. O. O. F. cemetery, which was of a private character. The many friends of the family sent beautiful flowers as a token of love to adorn the grave. In the death of Mrs. Christensen the community has lost a young woman who was greatly respected, and the home a loving wife and mother.

Kathryn V. Hiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hiner, was born Oct. 8, 1882 at Westerville, Nebraska. She came to Tillamook, Oregon with her parents in 1891 and her residence has ever since been here. She was married to Fred W. Christensen at Tillamook on Jan. 10, 1908. This union has been blessed with two children, Verne aged 8 years, and Carroll aged 2 years. After an illness of several weeks not expected to prove fatal, she departed this life on the evening of Thursday, Nov. 11, 1915, having attained the age of 33 years, 1 month and 3 days. Besides her devoted husband and two sons, she has left to mourn her departure, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hiner, and three others, Clifford, James and Neal Hiner, all residents of Tillamook, many relatives and a great many intimate friends and acquaintances in Tillamook city and county, where through school days and youth she has been well and favorably known. Mrs. Kathryn Christensen united the Presbyterian Church of Tillamook along with her husband, on Feb. 14, by confession of her personal faith in Christ. In addition to her desire and ambition to prove an upright womanly character, have and hold friends, prove to be a good and faithful wife and mother, she has taken great interest in the development and use of her musical inclination and attainments. By this means she loved to be of service whenever possible, and was ever modestly and unconsciously displaying a tender nature and kindly disposition.

Scarcely a week ago she was talking with some of us about the church and its prospects, and was hoping that she might soon be able to help again with the services.
 We believe she has "finished her course," and has "kept the faith," and that even now is in possession of her "crown of life." We believe she has heard the "well done" of the Master, her Lord and Redeemer, and has entered into her rest. Sweet peace.
 This is the best reason for comfort for the bereaved ones.
 Rev. J. E. Youel.

THE APOLLO CONCERT COMPANY

The Apollo Concert Co. Coming.

The Apollo Concert Co., which is to appear at the Christian church on Saturday evening, November 27th, is one of the most popular musical organizations in America. For years this company has traveled over the country and each year its fame becomes wider. Every member of the company is a finished artist. The personnel this year includes Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wells, the former a banjoist and guitarist of national fame the latter a well known pianist and saxophonist; Harry W. Lewis, known as the greatest saxophonist and clarinetist before the public; George Shuts, celebrated xylophonist, and Miss Gladys Harding, reader and vocalist.

The Apollophone, an instrument built for this company, was invented by Mr. Wells and is heard only with this organization. The company offers an unusual wide offering of music.

A recent newspaper account says: Summerfield Sun, Summerfield, Kan. Oct. 16, 1915.

Appolos please large crowds. The best company ever here. The young people's entertainment course opened last Saturday night with a musical program by the Apollo Concert Co. of the Affiliated Bureau. If the reports which come to the management are sincere, it was a big success. For many said that the first number was worth the price of the season ticket and others have said that the Apolos are superior to any company that has been offered in the town before on either lecture course or Chautauqua.

The program was divided into two parts with five minutes intermission. Both divisions of the program were opened with selections on the Apollophone, a peculiar instrument which consists of wooden bars of rare wood from Africa. The instrument is built on the principle of the Xylophone but is a great improvement over this more familiar instrument. The bars were set on cords with resonators attached to give richness and volume to the tone. The bass part of this instrument and the arrangement of the bars are patented by Mr. Wells, manager of the company. The instrument was played by five members of the company and they proved that their claim that the instrument was all the possibilities of the Steinway Grand piano are not exaggerated, in fact they are modest, for with this musical instrument they play selections from the operas that could not be improved upon except by human voices and orchestras.

Another feature of both parts of the program was the playing of the saxophone quartets. The company uses four instruments that are 22-carats gold and are considered the finest in the world. They are valued at $1,200. Another number in which the entire company was represented was the vocal duets by Mrs. Wells and Miss Harding with flute, mandolin and viola de amour and piano accompaniment.

It would be a difficult matter to find a company the equal to these artists anywhere in Lyceum. Each individual is a star, the best in his line. It is a big well balanced company, fit to entertain anyone, anywhere. The program offers more variety, than that of any other company that visited here, and it is a fact that the Apolos could give another complete program without using any of the same instruments.

Besides the ensemble work of the company there were numbers that gave opportunity for estimating the individual worth of each person. Miss Harding the reader, won a big place by her readings. She possess a very pleasing personality and is as pretty as the heroine in books, as well as a very clever artist. E. Pompei did not know how the audience liked his trombone solos or he would have played two more. Many have said that they wish he had. This man and also Walter Steube, the clarinetist, have played with the best bands in the country and these solos were evidence that they were masters of their instruments. Mr. Wells and his training banjo put "ginger" into the last part of the program, and won a big rousing applause. But what would the Apolos be without the little Mrs. Wells, she has been with the company ten years and during that time has taken her place at the piano with the quartet, at the Apollophone and always puts life into the program.

It is said that the kaiser has offered Gibraltar to Spain if she will come in on the Teuton side. Has Spain been invited to help herself to Gibraltar.

Kisses by Fast Express.
 "Now, in New York," said the New Yorker, boasting of the fast trains of that locality, "we not only run our trains fast, but we start them fast. I remember the case of a friend of mine whose wife went to see him off for the west in the Pennsylvania at Jersey City. As the train was about to start my friend said his final good-bye to his wife and leaned down from the car platform to kiss her. The train started, and, would you believe it, my friend found himself kissing a strange woman on the platform at Trenton."
