So that this idea of informing the folks "back East" of the particular attractions of Portland and oi Oregon may be thoroughly impressed upon every resident of the state the Chamber of Commerce has decided to set aside a "letter-writing week."

The name suggests the object During this one week-probably the third week in January-you are expected to write to all your friends and your relatives and tell them of the superior attractions of Oregon-her attractions for the tourist, particularly and for the prospective settler incidentally.

Meanwhile, the Chamber of Commerce urged, try to think up all the nice things you can about your city and state. Try to enumerate the advantages of visiting here-if visiting here. If the climate appeals to you as something worth mentioning-that is, favorably—why note it down and when "letter-writing week" rolls round, tell your Eastern acquaintances about it.

FREE TRADE GOSSIP.

Some Interesting Paragraphs Culled From Leading Newspapers.

The fear of free-trade is the begining of wisdom.

The present free trade Congress will soon be sized with attacks of tax.

Adequate defense, by all means, and let it begin with proper protection or home industries.

Changing its title from bonds to increased taxes doesn't make the added urden on the free trade ruined citien any easier to bear.

With our free trade Congress threatening to levy a heavy tax on obacco to raise the revenues necesary to tide us over the few remainng days of free trade farce, the last nopes of smoking the pipe of peace vanish into thin air.

The Underwood free trade advocates admit the failure of their law, out say it would work satisfactorily ander peaceful conditions. Unfortun-ately for the burden-bearers of econmic government, Free trade legislaion has ever proved itself a disturber of industrial peace.

When the war is over not only will oreign orders drop, but under the exsting tariff duties we are certain to suffer an influx of cheap foreign made goods that will drive American nanufacturers out of the American market. There must be a change of policy if there is to be permanent prosperity.

The only invasion this country need ear from foreign lands is the invasion of goods made by the 10 cents a day wage earners over there. The only preparedness the country can have for such an invasion must come hrough a protective tariff. Anyone who seriously disputes this statement either ignorantly or wilfully misrep-
